PART2
DIRECTORS
DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Directors' general authority

3. Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

Shareholders' reserve power

4. (1) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
(2) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

Directors may delegate

5. (1) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles-
- (a) to such person or committee;
  - (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
  - (c) to such an extent;
  - (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
  - (e) on such terms and conditions; as they think fit.
- (2) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- (3) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

Committees

6. (1) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- (2) The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Directors to take decisions collectively

7. (1) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.
- (2) If-
- (a) the company only has one director, and
  - (b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

Unanimous decisions

8. (1) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- (2) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- (3) References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.
- (4) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

Calling a directors' meeting

9. (1) Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- (2) Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate-
- (a) its proposed date and time;
  - (b) where it is to take place; and
  - (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- (3) Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- (4) Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

Participation in directors' meetings

10. {1) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when-
- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
  - (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- (2) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- (3) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

Quorum for directors' meetings

11. (1) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- (2) The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two.
- (3) If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision-
- (a) to appoint further directors, or
  - (b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

Chairing of directors' meetings

12. (1) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- (2) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.
- (3) The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.
- (4) If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

Casting vote

13. (1) If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
- (2) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

Conflicts of interest

14. (1) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.
- (2) But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.
- (3) This paragraph applies when-
- (a) the company by ordinary resolution disappplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;
  - (b) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of int rest; or
  - (c) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.
- (4) For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes-
- (a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries;
  - (b) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities; and
  - (c) arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.
- (5) For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision- making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.
- (6) Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

(7) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

Records of decisions to be kept

15. The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

Directors' discretion to make further rules

16. Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Methods of appointing directors

17. (1) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director-
- (a) by ordinary resolution, or
  - (b) by a decision of the directors.
- (2) In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

Termination of director's appointment

18. A person ceases to be a director as soon as-
- (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- (e) [paragraph omitted pursuant to The Mental Health (Discrimination) Act 2013]
- (f) notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

Directors' remuneration

19. (1) Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide.
- (2) Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine-
- (a) for their services to the company as directors, and
  - (b) for any other service which they undertake for the company.
- (3) Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may-
- (a) take any form, and
  - (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.
- (4) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.
- (5) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

Directors' expenses

20. The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at-
- (a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
  - (b) general meetings, or
  - (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS
SHARES

All shares to be fully paid up

21. (1) No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.
- (2) This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

Powers to issue different classes of share

22. (1) Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.
- (2) The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

Share Rights

23. Share Classes

- (1) The capital of the Company shall be constituted as Ordinary Shares of £1 each and 10% Preference Shares of £1 each, having the rights and subject to the restrictions set out in these articles.
- (2) Without prejudice to the specific rights attached to any share in issue from time to time, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.

23A. Rights attaching to Ordinary Shares

Subject always to the rights of any other class of shares as set out herein or as may be adopted from time to time, the Ordinary Shares will generally be entitled to enjoy all of the rights attaching to shares and specifically have the following rights:

- (1) Rights as to income: Each Ordinary Share shall only entitle the holder to a dividend (which shall be reduced on a pro rata basis for any Ordinary Shares not in issue for the whole accounting year) if in the opinion of the directors the annual profits available for distribution to the shareholders, remaining after payment to the Preference Shareholders of their Preference Dividend entitlements specified in article 23B are sufficient to justify such payment. The dividend payment shall be payable in respect of the year ended on the previous 31 December or in respect of such other period as the Directors may in their discretion determine.

(2) Rights as to capital: In the event of a winding-up or dissolution of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary or for the purpose of a reorganisation or otherwise or upon any distribution of capital, the Ordinary Shares will entitle the holder(s) thereof to the amounts paid up on the Ordinary Shares but only after the holder(s) of the Preference Shares have had returned to them the amounts paid up on their Preference Shares including any accrued but as yet unpaid dividend. The holder(s) of the Ordinary Shares will be entitled to all remaining assets of the Company once the amounts paid up on each share have been returned to the holder(s) of the Preference Shares and the Ordinary Shares, together with a sum equal to any accrued but as yet unpaid dividend on the Preference Shares.

(3) Voting rights: Each Ordinary Share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote on a show of hands and one vote per share on a poll.

23B Rights attaching to 10% Preference Shares

The 10% Preference Shares will have the following rights:

(1) Rights as to income: In respect of each 10% Preference Share a fixed cumulative preferential dividend (“10% Preference Dividend”) will accrue at the annual rate of 10% of the Issue Price per 10% Preference Share in each year (“10% Coupon Rate”) to the person registered as the holder of such 10% Preference Share at that date and which will be calculated in respect of the period to such date on a daily basis assuming a 365 day year, in all events in priority to the Ordinary Shares. Such 10% Preference Dividend will be paid if the directors so decide and if in the opinion of the directors the Available Profits (in priority to any payments to the Ordinary Shareholders) are sufficient to justify such payment annually.

(2) Rights as to capital: In the event of a winding-up or dissolution of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary or for the purpose of a reorganisation or otherwise or upon any distribution of capital, the surplus assets of the Company shall be applied in repayment to the holder(s) of 10% Preference Shares of the amounts paid up on such shares together with a sum equal to any accrued but as yet unpaid 10% Preference Dividend thereon in priority to any entitlement of the Ordinary Shareholders. The 10% Preference Shares do not confer any further right of participation in the profits or assets of the Company.

(3) Voting Rights: Save as provided by s.630 of the Companies Act 2006, no 10% Preference Share shall entitle the holder thereof to vote.

(4) Redemption Rights:

a. The holders of the 10% Preference Shares may at any time on or after the date which is twelve (12) months after the date of issue require the Company to redeem all the 10% Preference Shares then in issue by giving the Company written irrevocable notice of the same. Where such notice has been given, the Company must, subject to having sufficient Available Profits to do so, redeem the 10% Preference Shares on the Business Day falling one month following the receipt of such notice.

b. In addition, the Company may redeem the 10% Preference Shares at any time upon giving at least 5 Business Days written notice to the holders of the 10% Preference Shares.

c. On the date of redemption: (1) the holders of the 10% Preference Shares to be redeemed shall deliver to the Company at the Company's registered office the certificate(s) for such 10% Preference Shares (or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Board, in respect of any lost certificate); and (2) upon such delivery, the Company shall pay to the holder (or, in the case of any joint holders, to the holder whose name stands first in the Company's register of members in respect of such Shares) 100% of the Issue Price thereof, and all accruals and/or unpaid amounts of 10% Preference Dividend in respect thereof, calculated down to and including the date of actual payment. On and from the relevant payment date this aggregate amount shall become a debt due from the Company (subject to the Company having Available Profits or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such redemption (in priority to any payments to the Ordinary Shareholders)). If such debt is not paid in full on the relevant payment date, the unpaid amount shall carry interest at the Default Rate from and including the relevant payment date to the date payment is made by the Company.

d. If the Company does not have sufficient Available Profits to make the payments in article 23B (c) or other monies which may be lawfully applied for such purpose or to do so would cause the Company to be in breach of the provisions of any Financing Documents, then the Company shall pay such amounts that it is lawfully able to pay and without causing it to be in breach of the provisions of any Financing Documents and the unpaid amount shall carry interest at the Default Rate from and including the relevant payment date to the date payment is made by the Company (which shall be made once the Company has sufficient Available Profits or other monies that may lawfully be applied for such purpose (in priority to any payments to the Ordinary Shareholders)).

e. In the event that for whatever reason the Company fails to pay or redeem all the 10% Preference Shares required to be redeemed on a particular date set for redemption, or there is any outstanding amount pursuant to article 23B b., c., or d., the holders of the 10% Preference Shares may (at their sole discretion) require the Company and the directors to commence proceedings to wind up or dissolve the Company at any time after three (3) months of such failure to pay or redeem.

f. For the purposes of this this article 23B, where reference is made to decisions of the holders of the 10% Preference Shares, in the event that there are more than one holder of 10% Preference Shares, the decision of the holders of at least 75% in nominal value of the 10% Preference Shares shall be final. Such holder(s) shall from time to time appoint a representative to communicate its decisions to the board, and such appointment shall be notified in writing to the board.

g. The provisions in this article 23B are subject to any subordination and/or third party financing arrangements entered into by the Company and/or any holder of 10% Preference Shares, and in the event of any conflict such subordination and/or third party financing arrangements shall prevail.

Company not bound by less than absolute interests

24. Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

Share certificates

25. (1) The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
- (2) Every certificate must specify-
- (a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
  - (b) the nominal value of those shares;

- (c) that the shares are fully paid; and
- (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- (3) No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- (4) If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- (5) Certificates must-
  - (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
  - (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

Replacement share certificates.

- 26. (1) If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is-
- (a) damaged or defaced, or
  - (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.
- (2) A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate-
- (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
  - (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
  - (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

Share transfers

- 27. (1) Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- (2) No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- (3) The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- (4) The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- (5) The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

Further share transfer provisions

26A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles:

(a) the directors (or director if there is only one) of the Company may not decline to register any transfer of shares in the Company nor suspend registration of any such shares; and

(b) a holder of shares in the Company is not required to comply with any provision of the articles which restricts the transfer of shares or which requires any such shares to be first offered to all or any current shareholders of the Company before any transfer may take place, where in any such case the transfer is or is to be:

(a) executed by a bank or institution to which such shares have been mortgaged, charged or pledged by way of security (or by any nominee of such bank or institution) pursuant to a power of sale under such security;

(b) executed by a receiver or manager appointed by or on behalf of any such bank or institution under any such security; or

(c) to any such bank or institution (or to its nominee) pursuant to any such security.

(2) A certificate by any officer of such bank or institution that the shares were so charged and the transfer was so executed shall be conclusive evidence of such facts.

Transmission of shares

28. (1) If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

(2) A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require-

(a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

(b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

(3) But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

Exercise of transmittees' rights

29. (1) Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

(2) If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

(3) Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

Transmittees bound by prior notices

30. If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

Procedure for declaring dividends

31. (1) Except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:
- (a) declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; and
  - (b) apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.
- (2) If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.
- (3) For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.
- (4) Model Article 31(1) shall apply as if the words "either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide" were deleted from each of paragraphs (a) to (d) inclusive and replaced in each case by the words "in writing".

Payment of dividends and other distributions

32. (1) Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means-
