COMMUNITY INTEREST ANNUAL REPORT

EXCELSIOR SAFEGUARDING C.I.C.

Company Number: 10858996 (England and Wales)

Year Ending: 31 December 2021

Company activities and impact

Our focus has been Early Intervention and Identification of those 'at risk' from Gangs, Serious Youth Violence, Criminal Exploitation and associated vulnerability strands such as mental health and SEND. This is consistent with the Government's 4P approach and this strategy effectively coordinates joint working to reduce the levels of vulnerability affecting our local communities. The framework often referred to as the 4Ps (Pursue, Prevent, Protect and Prepare) strengthens a partnership approach to safeguarding our most vulnerable and tackling offenders. The company during this financial year has been delivering certified educational training services across Kent and the other counties of the UK to professionals and volunteers from statutory agencies and voluntary sector partners. This has developed their skills and knowledge; enabling them to effectively safeguard vulnerable young people and adults considered 'at risk. In addition to this service significant services have been delivered in partnership with Education services and schools to prevent young people from harm, positively supporting and also building the resilience of young people; better safeguarding them from gangs, drugs, violence and other forms of criminal exploitation vulnerability.

Consultation with stakeholders

The stakeholders of the company are the young people and their families/carers living within the local community of Kent and Medway. There has been considerable consultation (meetings, interviews and surveys) with an extensive number of statutory partners drawn from across Community Safety Partnerships. In addition, children and young people have been consulted via use of surveys and direct 'one to one group engagement to better empower them and strengthen their voice in shaping the company's current and future intervention services. In response to the above stakeholder feedback, the company has continued to adapt and develop at a time of significant need and uncertainly (Covid 19) in providing current training, community engagement content, consultancy and supportive interventions,
