PART 1

INTERPRETATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

1. DEFINED TERMS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In the articles, unless the context requires otherwise:

“address” has the meaning given in section 1148 of the Companies Act 2006;

“articles” means the company’s articles of association;

“bankruptcy” includes individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy;

“Business Day” means a day other than the Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in England and Wales, Germany or Luxembourg;

“chair” has the meaning given in article 13.2;

“chair of the meeting” has the meaning given in article 49.3;

“clear days” in relation to a notice, excludes the day the notice is deemed under the articles to be given and the day on which the specified period expires;

“Companies Acts” means the Companies Acts (as defined in section 2 of the Companies Act 2006), in so far as they apply to the company;

“company’s lien” has the meaning given in article 31.1;

“director” means a director of the company, and includes any person occupying the position of director, by whatever name called;

“distribution recipient” has the meaning given in article 40.2;

“document” includes, unless otherwise specified, any document sent or supplied in electronic form;

“electronic form” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006;

“electronic means” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006;

“eligible directors” has the meaning given in article 9.3;

“fully paid” in relation to a share means that the nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in respect of that share have been paid to the company;

“hard copy form” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006;

“holder” in relation to shares means the person whose name is entered in the register of members as the holder of the shares;

“instrument” means a document in hard copy form;

“lien enforcement notice” has the meaning given in article 32;

“member” means a holder for the time being of any shares;

“ordinary resolution” has the meaning given in section 282 of the Companies Act 2006;

“proxy notice” has the meaning given in article 55.1;

“Relevant Agreement” means any agreement in writing entered into between the members of the company or any indirect parent company relating to their ownership of the shares, as from time to time amended, varied, supplemented or novated;

“relevant officer” means any person who is or was at any time a director, secretary or other officer (except an auditor) of the company or of any undertaking in the same group as the company;

“shares” means shares in the company having the rights and being subject to the restrictions set out herein and any Relevant Agreement;

“special resolution” has the meaning given in section 283 of the Companies Act 2006;

“subsidiary” has the meaning given in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006;

“transmittee” means a person entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law; and

“writing” means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form by any method or combination of methods, whether sent or supplied in electronic form or otherwise.

- 1.2 The relevant model articles (within the meaning of section 20 of the Companies Act 2006) are excluded.
- 1.3 Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in the articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when the articles become binding on the company.
- 1.4 Except where the contrary is stated or the context otherwise requires, any reference in the articles to a statute or statutory provision includes any order, regulation, instrument or other subordinate legislation made under it for the time being in force, and any reference to a statute, statutory provision, order, regulation, instrument or other subordinate legislation includes any amendment, extension, consolidation, re-enactment or replacement of it for the time being in force.
- 1.5 Words importing the singular number only include the plural and vice versa. Words importing the masculine, feminine or neuter gender include all other genders. Words importing persons include corporations.

2. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

- 2.1 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

- 3.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, the articles and any Relevant Agreement, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

4. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

- 4.1 Unless and until otherwise determined by ordinary resolution and subject to any Relevant Agreement, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) must not be less than two and no more than eight.

5. MEMBERS' RESERVE POWER

- 5.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, the members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 6.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any Relevant Agreement, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- 6.1.1 to such person or committee;
- 6.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 6.1.3 to such an extent;
- 6.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 6.1.5 on such terms and conditions as they think fit. The power to delegate shall be effective in relation to the powers, authorities and discretions of the directors generally and shall not be limited by the fact that in certain of the articles, but not in others, express reference is made to particular powers, authorities or discretions being exercised by the directors or by a committee authorised by the directors.

- 6.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.
- 6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

- 7.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.
- 7.2 A member of a committee need not be a director.

- 7.3 Subject to any Relevant Agreement, the directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 8.1 The rules about decision-making by directors shall be as determined by any Relevant Agreement.
- 8.2 Save where any alternative threshold has been approved in any Relevant Agreement any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 9.

9. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 9.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing signed by each eligible director (whether or not each signs the same document) or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3 References in the articles to “eligible directors” are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors’ meeting (but excluding any director whose vote is not to be counted in respect of that particular matter).
- 9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. CALLING A DIRECTORS’ MEETING

- 10.1 Any director may call a directors’ meeting in accordance with any Relevant Agreement. Notice of each directors’ meeting shall be given in accordance with any Relevant Agreement. Any director may waive the notice requirements of any directors’ meeting insofar as such waiver is permitted by any Relevant Agreement.
- 10.2 Notices of meetings of directors must be given to all directors and to any alternate directors appointed by them. Any such notice will be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is sent in writing (including by electronic communication) to them at their last known address or at any other address given by them to the company for this purpose, or by any other means authorised in writing by the director concerned.

11. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS’ MEETINGS

- 11.1 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, directors participate in a directors’ meeting, or part of a directors’ meeting, when
- 11.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles and the terms of the Relevant Agreement, and
  - 11.1.2 they can each communicate to the other directors who are participating any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 11.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors’ meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

- 11.3 Meetings of the directors shall take place in the United Kingdom or, if not conducted in person, with a majority of directors located in the United Kingdom.

12. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 12.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 12.2 The quorum for directors' meetings shall be as agreed by the members in any Relevant Agreement from time to time.
- 12.3 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 13.1 The members ultimate holding company may by majority decision appoint a director who is a resident of the United Kingdom to chair any directors' meetings.
- 13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the ("chair").
- 13.3 The members may terminate the chair's appointment at any time in the manner set out in any Relevant Agreement.

14. CASTING VOTE

- 14.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, if the numbers of votes validly cast for and against a proposal are equal, the chair has a casting vote.
- 14.2 But, subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chair is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes in respect of that proposal.

15. DIRECTORS' INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS AND VOTING

- 15.1 This article 15 is subject to any applicable terms of any Relevant Agreement.
- 15.2 Without prejudice to such disclosure as is required under section 177 or section 182 of the Companies Act 2006, a director may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company. Subject to the terms of any authorisation made under article 16, no director shall:
- 15.2.1 by reason of his office be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any interest in any transaction or arrangement with the company, and no such benefit shall constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties, and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such benefit;
  - 15.2.2 be in breach of his duties as a director by reason only of his excluding himself from the receipt of information, or from taking part in any decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise), that will or may relate to any interest he may have in any such transaction or arrangement; or
  - 15.2.3 be required to disclose to the company, or use in relation to the company's affairs, any confidential information obtained by him in connection with any such transaction or arrangement if his doing so would result in a breach of a duty or an obligation of confidence owed by him in that connection.

- 15.3 The general rule is that a director shall be entitled for quorum and voting purposes to participate in the decision-making process on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty that conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company, but this article shall not absolve him of any duty he may have pursuant to section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 and is without prejudice to the operation of article 16 and subject to the terms of any authorisation made under it.
- 15.4 Subject to article 15.5, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chair, whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chair is to be final and conclusive.
- 15.5 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chair, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chair is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

16. DIRECTORS' SITUATIONAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 16.1 This article 16 is subject to any applicable terms of any Relevant Agreement.
- 16.2 Provided that he has duly disclosed the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director may, notwithstanding his office or that, without the authorisation conferred by this article 16.2, he would or might be in breach of his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest:
  - 16.2.1 be interested in shares or other securities issued by the company or by any group undertaking, or by any other undertaking promoted by the company or any group undertaking, or in which the company or any group undertaking is otherwise interested;
  - 16.2.2 be party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with any group undertaking or any such other undertaking;
  - 16.2.3 be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or owe any duty to, any group undertaking or any such other undertaking; or
  - 16.2.4 otherwise be interested in any group undertaking or any such other undertaking.
- 16.3 No director shall:
  - 16.3.1 by reason of his office be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any office or employment, or by virtue of any interest, participation or duty, that he is authorised under article 16.1 to have (and no such benefit shall constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties, and no transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such benefit);
  - 16.3.2 be in breach of his duties as a director by reason only of his excluding himself from the receipt of information, or from taking part in any decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise), that will or may relate to any such office, employment, interest, participation or duty; or

- 16.3.3 be required to disclose to the company, or use in relation to the company's affairs, any confidential information obtained by him in connection with any such office, employment, interest, participation or duty if his doing so would result in a breach of a duty or an obligation of confidence owed by him in that connection.
- 16.4 The directors may, if the quorum and voting requirements set out below are satisfied, authorise any matter that would otherwise involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest, and any director (including the director concerned) may propose that the director concerned be authorised in relation to any matter the subject of such a conflict provided that:
- 16.4.1 such proposal and any authority given by the directors shall be effected in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to and resolved upon by the directors under the provisions of the articles, except that the director concerned and any other director with a similar interest:
- (a) shall not be counted for quorum purposes as taking part in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration;
  - (b) may, if the other directors so decide, be excluded from taking part in the decision-making process while the conflict is under consideration; and
  - (c) shall not vote on any resolution authorising the conflict except that, if any such director does vote, the resolution will still be valid if it would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted; and
- 16.4.2 where the directors give authority in relation to such a conflict:
- (a) they may (whether at the time of giving the authority or at any time or times subsequently) impose such terms upon the director concerned as they may determine, including, without limitation, the exclusion of the director from the receipt of information or participation in any decision-making or discussion (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the matter giving rise to the conflict;
  - (b) the director concerned will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed from time to time by the directors in relation to the conflict but will not be in breach of his duties as a director by reason of his doing so;
  - (c) the authority may provide that, where the director concerned obtains (otherwise than by virtue of his position as a director of the company) information that is confidential to a third party, the director will not be obliged to disclose that information to the company, or to use the information in relation to the company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
  - (d) the authority may also provide that the director concerned shall not be accountable to the company for any benefit that he receives as a result of the matter giving rise to the conflict;
  - (e) the receipt by the director concerned of any remuneration or benefit as a result of the matter giving rise to the conflict shall not constitute a breach of the duty under the Companies Act 2006 not to accept benefits from third parties;

- (f) the terms of the authority shall be recorded in writing (but the authority shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
- (g) the directors may withdraw such authority at any time.

17. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

- 17.1 The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in hard copy form, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

18. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

- 18.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any Relevant Agreement, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

19. METHODS OF APPOINTING AND REMOVING DIRECTORS

- 19.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director in accordance with the terms of any Relevant Agreement.
- 19.2 If the company has no directors and, by virtue of death or bankruptcy, no member is capable of acting, the transmittee of the last member to have died or to have had a bankruptcy order made against him has the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.
- 19.3 For the purposes of article 19.1, where two or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.
- 19.4 The appointment or removal of a director shall be effected in accordance with the terms of any Relevant Agreement. Any such appointment or removal shall take effect when notice is delivered to the registered office of the company or, if it is produced at a meeting of the directors, when it is so produced or, if sent by electronic means to an address generally used by the company, when it is sent (and article 60.2 shall not apply to it). Any such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim that a director may have under any contract between him and the company.

20. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

- 20.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement a person ceases to be a director, as soon as:
  - 20.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
  - 20.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
  - 20.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
  - 20.1.4 he becomes, in the opinion of all his co-directors, physically or mentally incapable of discharging his duties as a director;
  - 20.1.5 notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms; or
  - 20.1.6 he is otherwise duly removed from office.

21. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, the company shall only pay any reimbursement of director expenses incurred in their performance of their duties to the extent that these are approved by the Board in advance.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

22. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

22.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, any other director, or any other person may be appointed as an alternate to:

22.1.1 exercise that director's powers; and

22.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors, in the absence of the alternate's appointor.

22.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must identify the proposed alternate and be effected in the manner set out in the Relevant Agreement.

23. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

23.1 An alternate director may act as alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.

23.2 Except as the articles and any Relevant Agreement specify otherwise, alternate directors:

23.2.1 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;

23.2.2 are liable for their own acts and omissions;

23.2.3 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and

23.2.4 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors

and, in particular (without limitation), each alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which his appointor is a member.

23.3 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, a person who is an alternate is entitled, in the absence of his appointor, to form part of the quorum and vote as alternate (in addition to his own vote if he is a director and to any other vote he may have as alternate for another appointor) in any decision-making of the directors, but:

23.3.1 only if his appointor is an eligible director in relation to that decision;

23.3.2 not if he is himself a director but is not so eligible; and

23.3.3 he shall not count as more than one director for the purposes of determining whether there is a quorum, whether in relation to a meeting of the directors or a unanimous decision.

23.4 Where an alternate participates in a unanimous decision it is not necessary for his appointor also to participate in it.

23.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing given to the company.

24. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP

24.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- 24.1.1 when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing and such revocation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- 24.1.2 on the occurrence, in relation to the alternate, of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- 24.1.3 on the death of the alternate's appointor;
- 24.1.4 when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates; or
- 24.1.5 when the alternate is removed in accordance with the articles.

PART 3 SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

SHARES

25. PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

25.1 The company may purchase its own shares (including redeemable shares) in any manner permitted by the Companies Act 2006, including in accordance with section 692(1ZA).

26. POWERS TO ISSUE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF SHARE

- 26.1 Subject to the articles and the terms of any Relevant Agreement, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution or, if no such resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, as the directors may decide.
- 26.2 The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

27. PAYMENT OF COMMISSIONS ON SUBSCRIPTION FOR SHARES

27.1 The company may pay any person a commission in consideration for that person:

- 27.1.1 subscribing, or agreeing to subscribe, for shares; or
- 27.1.2 procuring, or agreeing to procure, subscription for shares.

27.2 Any such commission may be paid:

- 27.2.1 in cash, or in fully paid or partly paid shares or other securities, or partly in one way and partly in the other; and
- 27.2.2 in respect of a conditional or an absolute subscription.

28. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

28.1 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

29. EXCLUSION OF STATUTORY PRE-EMPTION PROVISIONS

- 29.1 Sections 561 and 562 of the Companies Act 2006 shall not apply to an allotment of equity securities made by the company.

30. FRACTIONAL ENTITLEMENTS

- 30.1 Where there has been a consolidation or division of shares and, as a result, members are entitled to fractions of shares, the directors may:
- 30.1.1 sell the shares representing the fractions to any person, including the company, for the best price reasonably obtainable;
  - 30.1.2 authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser; and
  - 30.1.3 distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares.
- 30.2 Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale under article 30.1 amounts to less than a minimum figure determined by the directors, that member's portion may be retained for the benefit of the company.
- 30.3 The person to whom the shares are transferred pursuant to article 30.1 is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions. The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings leading or relating to their sale.

LIEN AND FORFEITURE

31. COMPANY'S LIEN OVER SHARES

- 31.1 The company has a lien (the "company's lien") over every share, whether or not fully paid, which is registered in the name of any person indebted or under any liability to the company, whether he is the sole registered holder of the share or one of several joint holders, for all monies payable by him (either alone or jointly with any other person) to the company, whether payable immediately or at some time in the future.
- 31.2 The company's lien over a share:
- 31.2.1 takes priority over any third party's interest in that share; and
  - 31.2.2 extends to any dividend or other money payable by the company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the company) the proceeds of sale of that share.
- 31.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.
- 31.4 Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles, any lien on any shares (whether part or fully paid) which the Company has shall not apply where any such shares have been pledged, mortgaged or charged by way of security to a bank, other financial institution or other person to which shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security (or any agent, trustee, nominee or nominees or receiver of such bank, financial institution or other person to which such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security).
- 31.5 Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles, the directors shall not have any right of forfeiture over any shares of the Company that have been pledged, mortgaged or charged by way of security to a bank, other financial institution or other person to which shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security (or any agent, trustee, nominee or nominees or receiver of such bank, financial institution or other person to which such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security).

32. ENFORCEMENT OF THE COMPANY'S LIEN

32.1 Subject to the provisions of this article and the terms of any Relevant Agreement, if:

32.1.1 a lien enforcement notice has been given in respect of a share; and

32.1.2 the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it the company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide.

32.2 A lien enforcement notice:

32.2.1 may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the company's lien, and where a qualifying sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed;

32.2.2 must specify the share concerned;

32.2.3 must require payment of the sum within 14 clear days of the notice;

32.2.4 must be addressed either to the holder of the share or to a transmittee of that holder; and 32.2.5 must state the company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.

32.3 Where shares are sold under this article:

32.3.1 the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with the directions of, the purchaser; and

32.3.2 the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale.

32.4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other proceedings leading or relating to enforcement of the lien) must be applied:

32.4.1 first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice; and

32.4.2 second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the company for cancellation, or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the company's lien over the shares before the sale for any money payable (whether immediately or at some time in the future) after the date of the lien enforcement notice.

32.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary (if any) that the declarant is a director or the company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the company's lien on a specified date:

32.5.1 is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share; and 32.5.2 subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

33. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 33.1 The company must issue each member, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds.
- 33.2 Every certificate must specify:
- 33.2.1 in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
  - 33.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;
  - 33.2.3 the amount paid up on them; and
  - 33.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- 33.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- 33.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- 33.5 Certificates must:
- 33.5.1 have affixed to them the company's common seal; or
  - 33.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.
- 33.6 The directors may determine, either generally or in relation to any particular case, that any signature on any certificate need not be autographic but may be applied by some mechanical or other means, or printed on the certificate, or that certificates need not be signed.

34. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 34.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a member's shares is:
- 34.1.1 damaged or defaced, or
  - 34.1.2 said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,
- that member is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.
- 34.2 A member exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate:
- 34.2.1 may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
  - 34.2.2 must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
  - 34.2.3 must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

35. SHARE TRANSFERS

- 35.1 No shares or any interest in them shall be transferred and the directors shall not register any transfer of shares other than a transfer made pursuant to the articles and any Relevant Agreement.
- 35.2 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, if the shares are not fully paid, the transferee.
- 35.3 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 35.4 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

- 35.5 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- 35.6 Except as the articles and any Relevant Agreement otherwise provide, the directors, in their absolute discretion, may refuse to register the transfer of a share, whether or not it is fully paid, and if they do so, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged send the transferee the notice of refusal together with their reasons for refusal and, unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent, the instrument of transfer.
- 35.7 Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles (whether by way of or in relation to pre-emption rights, restrictions on, or conditions applicable to, share transfers, or otherwise, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any lien referred to in the articles), the directors shall promptly register any transfer of shares and may not refuse or suspend registration of a transfer:
- 35.7.1 to a lender, a bank or institution, an entity acting as agent and/or trustee for a group of lenders or other person to which such shares have been pledged, mortgaged or charged by way of security (each a "Secured Party"), or to any nominee or any transferee of a Secured Party where the transfer is as contemplated by, or pursuant to, any mortgage or charge of shares granted in favour of such Secured Party; or
- 35.7.2 by or on behalf of a Secured Party or any nominee of a Secured Party in favour of any third party upon disposal or realisation of shares following the Secured Party having become entitled to exercise or enforce its rights under any such mortgage or charge;
- and a certificate by or on behalf of the Secured Party that the relevant transfer is within paragraph 35.7.1 and 35.7.2 above shall be conclusive evidence of those facts.

36. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 36.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- 36.2 Nothing in these articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member.
- 36.3 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:
- 36.3.1 may, subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
- 36.3.2 subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 36.4 But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise unless they become the holders of those shares.

37. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

- 37.1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- 37.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

- 37.3 Any notice or transfer given or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred, and so that the notice or transfer is treated in the same way under the articles as a transfer executed by that person.
- 37.4 The directors may at any time give notice to the transmittee requiring him to elect either to become a holder of the shares or to transfer the shares to another person, and if the notice is not complied with within 60 days from the date of the notice, the directors may withhold payment of all dividends and other monies payable in respect of the shares until he complies with the notice.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

38. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 38.1 Subject to the terms of any Relevant Agreement, the company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 38.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 38.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with members' respective rights.
- 38.4 Unless the members' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each member's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 38.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrears.
- 38.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 38.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

39. CALCULATION AND CURRENCY OF DIVIDENDS

- 39.1 Except as otherwise provided by the articles, any Relevant Agreement or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:
- 39.1.1 declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (excluding share premium) on the shares on which the dividend is paid; and
  - 39.1.2 apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid;
- and any dividends or other monies payable on or in respect of any share shall be declared and paid in British pound sterling (GBP).
- 39.2 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.
- 39.3 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

40. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

40.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

40.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or

40.1.2 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.

40.2 In the articles, “the distribution recipient” means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

40.2.1 the holder of the share; or

40.2.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or 40.2.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

41. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

41.1 The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

41.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued, or

41.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

42. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

42.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

42.1.1 payable in respect of shares, and

42.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

42.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

42.3 If:

42.3.1 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and

42.3.2 the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

43. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

43.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company).

- 43.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:
- 43.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;
  - 43.2.2 paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and
  - 43.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

44. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

- 44.1 Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if:
- 44.1.1 the share has more than one holder, or
  - 44.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise,
- the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

45. DISTRIBUTION IN SPECIE ON WINDING UP

- 45.1 If the company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the company and any other sanction required by law, divide among the members in specie the whole or any part of the assets of the company and may, for that purpose, value any assets and determine how the division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with such sanction, vest the whole or any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of members as the liquidator with such sanction determines, but no member shall be compelled to accept any assets upon which there is a liability.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

46. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

- 46.1 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:
- 46.1.1 decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any fund or reserve, including but not limited to the share premium account, capital redemption reserve, merger reserve, redenomination reserve or revaluation reserve; and
  - 46.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a “capitalised sum”) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the “persons entitled”) and in the same proportions.
- 46.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:
- 46.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled, and
  - 46.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them
- and the company shall for the purposes of this article be deemed to be such a member in relation to any shares held as treasury shares which, if not so held, would have ranked for any such distribution by way of dividend, but only insofar as the appropriated sum is to be applied in paying up in full shares of the company.

- 46.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted, credited as fully paid, to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 46.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied:
  - 46.4.1 in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled; or
  - 46.4.2 in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.
- 46.5 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, the directors may:
  - 46.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 46.3 and 46.4 partly in one way and partly in another:
  - 46.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
  - 46.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

PART 4

DECISION-MAKING BY MEMBERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

47. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 47.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 47.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
  - 47.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
  - 47.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 47.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 47.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 47.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

48. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

- 48.1 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, no business other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.
- 48.2 The quorum at any general meeting, or adjourned general meeting shall be as agreed by the shareholders in any Relevant Agreement from time to time.

49. CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

- 49.1 If the members have appointed a chair, the chair shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 49.2 If the members have not appointed a chair, or if the chair is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:
- 49.2.1 the directors present, or
- 49.2.2 (if no directors are present), the meeting,
- must appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chair of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.
- 49.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as “the chair of the meeting”.

50. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-MEMBERS

- 50.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are members.
- 50.2 The chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:
- 50.2.1 members, or
- 50.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

51. ADJOURNMENT

- 51.1 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, if the persons attending a general meeting within thirty minutes of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the terms of any Relevant Agreement shall apply.
- 51.2 The chair of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- 51.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or
- 51.2.2 it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 51.3 The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 51.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must comply with the terms of any Relevant Agreement.
- 51.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it:

- 51.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and
- 51.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 51.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

52. VOTING: GENERAL

- 52.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles or the terms of any Relevant Agreement.

53. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 53.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 53.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.

54. POLL VOTES

- 54.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:
  - 54.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
  - 54.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 54.2 A poll on a resolution may be demanded by the chair of the meeting, the directors or by any qualifying person (as defined in section 318 of the Companies Act 2006) present and entitled to vote on the resolution.
- 54.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
  - 54.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and
  - 54.3.2 the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 54.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs.

55. CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

- 55.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
  - 55.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
  - 55.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
  - 55.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

- 55.1.4 is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any Relevant Agreement not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting in relation to which the proxy is appointed and in accordance with any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate (but notwithstanding this an appointment of a proxy may be accepted by the directors at any time prior to the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote (or, where a poll is demanded at the meeting, but not taken forthwith, at any time prior to the taking of the poll)).
- 55.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 55.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions, but the company shall not be obliged to ascertain that any proxy has complied with those or any other instructions given by the appointor and no decision on any resolution shall be vitiated by reason only that any proxy has not done so.
- 55.4 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, except that if the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution and:
- 55.4.1 has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it, or
- 55.4.2 has been instructed to vote the same way (either for or against) on the resolution by all of those members except those who have given the proxy discretion as to how to vote on the resolution
- the proxy is entitled to one vote for and one vote against the resolution.
- 55.5 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- 55.5.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- 55.5.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

56. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- 56.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 56.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 56.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 56.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

57. AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

- 57.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 57.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine), and
  - 57.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 57.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 57.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
  - 57.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 57.3 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

58. NO VOTING OF SHARES ON WHICH MONEY OWED TO COMPANY

- 58.1 No voting rights attached to a share may be exercised at any general meeting, at any adjournment of it, or on any poll called at or in relation to it, or in relation to any written resolution of the company unless all amounts payable to the company in respect of that share have been paid.

APPLICATION OF RULES TO CLASS MEETINGS

59. CLASS MEETINGS

- 59.1 The provisions of the articles relating to general meetings apply, with any necessary modifications, to meetings of the holders of any class of shares, subject to any Relevant Agreement.

PART 5

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

60. MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

- 60.1 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company.
- 60.2 Except insofar as the Companies Acts and any Relevant Agreement require otherwise, the company shall not be obliged to accept any notice, document or other information sent or supplied to the company in electronic form unless it satisfies such stipulations, conditions or restrictions (including, without limitation, for the purpose of authentication) as the directors think fit, and the company shall be entitled to require any such notice, document or information to be sent or supplied in hard copy form instead.

- 60.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, except insofar as the articles and any Relevant Agreement otherwise provide, all notices, documents or other information shall be given to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of members in respect of the joint holding and shall be deemed to have been given to all the joint holders. For all purposes, including the execution of any appointment of proxy, resolution in writing, notice or other document (including anything sent or supplied in electronic form) executed or approved pursuant to any provision of the articles, execution by any one of such joint holders shall be deemed to be and shall be accepted as execution by all the joint holders.
- 60.4 In the case of a member that is a corporation, for all purposes, including the execution of any appointment of proxy, resolution in writing, notice or other document (including anything sent or supplied in electronic form) executed or approved pursuant to any provision of the articles, execution by any director or the secretary of that corporation or any other person who appears to any officer of the company (acting reasonably and in good faith) to have been duly authorised to execute shall be deemed to be and shall be accepted as execution by that corporation.
- 60.5 Subject to the articles and any Relevant Agreement, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.
- 60.6 A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 24 hours.
- 60.7 Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register of members, has been given to the person from whom he derives his title.

61. INFORMATION SENT BY THE COMPANY

- 61.1 Any document or information sent or supplied by the company shall be deemed (subject to article 60.6) to have been received by the intended recipient:
- 61.1.1 where the document or information is properly addressed and sent by first class post or other delivery service to an address in the United Kingdom, on the day (whether or not it is a working day) following the day (whether or not it is a working day) on which it was put in the post or given to the delivery agent and, in proving that it was duly sent, it shall be sufficient to prove that the document or information was properly addressed, prepaid and put in the post or duly given to the delivery agent;
  - 61.1.2 where the document or information is properly addressed and sent by post or other delivery service to an address outside the United Kingdom, five working days after it was put in the post or given to the delivery agent and, in proving that it was duly sent, it shall be sufficient to prove that the document or information was properly addressed, prepaid and put in the post or duly given to the delivery agent;
  - 61.1.3 where the document or information is not sent by post or other delivery service but delivered personally or left at the intended recipient's address, on the day (whether or not a working day) and time that it was delivered;
  - 61.1.4 where the document or information is properly addressed and sent or supplied by electronic means, on the day (whether or not a working day) and time that it was sent and proof that it was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that it was sent;

- 61.1.5 where the document or information is sent or supplied by means of a website, when the material was first made available on the website or (if later) when the intended recipient received (or is deemed to have received) notice of the fact that the material was available on the website.

62. COMPANY SEALS

- 62.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors.
- 62.2 The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.
- 62.3 Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.
- 62.4 For the purposes of this article, an authorised person is:
- 62.4.1 any director of the company;
  - 62.4.2 the company secretary (if any); or
  - 62.4.3 any person authorised by the directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied.

63. NO RIGHT TO INSPECT ACCOUNTS AND OTHER RECORDS

- 63.1 Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

64. PROVISION FOR EMPLOYEES ON CESSATION OF BUSINESS

- 64.1 The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary.

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

65. INDEMNITY

- 65.1 Subject to article 65.2 (but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a relevant officer is otherwise entitled):
- 65.1.1 a relevant officer may be indemnified out of the company's assets to whatever extent the directors may determine against:
    - (a) any liability incurred by that officer in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company or any undertaking in the same group as the company;
    - (b) any liability incurred by that officer in connection with the activities of the company, or any undertaking in the same group as the company, in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of the Companies Act 2006);

- (c) any other liability incurred by that officer as an officer of the company or of any undertaking in the same group as the company; and

65.1.2 the company may, to whatever extent the directors may determine, provide funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by a relevant officer in defending any criminal or civil proceedings in connection with any alleged negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him in relation to the company or any undertaking in the same group as the company, or any investigation, or action proposed to be taken, by a regulatory authority in that connection, or for the purposes of an application for relief, or in order to enable the relevant officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

65.2 This article 65 does not authorise any indemnity that would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts, any provision of any other Relevant Agreement or any other provision of law.

66. INSURANCE

66.1 The directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the company, for the benefit of any relevant officer in respect of any relevant loss.

66.2 In this article, a “relevant loss” means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant officer in connection with that officer’s duties or powers in relation to the company, any undertaking in the same group as the company or any pension fund or employees’ share scheme of the company or of any undertaking in the same group as the company.
