3 Details of variation of rights

Please give details of the variation of rights attached to shares.

Variation: Rights attached to A and B shares:
The A and B shares have attached to them full voting and dividend rights; they do not confer any rights of redemption. The A and B shares rank equally in all respects save that the B shares have no right to any dividend unless so declared and approved by the board. The preference shares have priority over the A and B shares on winding up, liquidation or sale, insofar as their nominal value is redeemed. The B shares have no right to a distribution (including any such distribution on liquidation) thereafter until the holder of each A share has received a total distribution of £414,000 pa or proportion thereof of ownership, after which time the A shares will be entitled to 80% of the remainder and the B shares 20% of the remainder
