DIRECTORS

3. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 3.1 The general rule about decision making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 4.
- 3.2 If the Company only has one director for the time being and no provision of these Articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may (for so long as he remains the sole director) take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of these Articles relating to directors’ decision making.

4. Unanimous decisions

- 4.1 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with Article 4 when all Eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 4.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, where each Eligible Director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each Eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 4.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with Article 4 if the Eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at a directors’ meeting.

5. Calling a directors’ meeting

- 5.1 Any director may call a directors’ meeting by giving reasonable notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
- 5.2 Notice of a directors’ meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

6. Participation in directors’ meeting

- 6.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors’ meeting, or part of a directors’ meeting, when:
 - 6.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - 6.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

- 6.2 Any director or his or her alternate may validly participate in a directors' meeting through the medium of conference telephone or any other form of communications equipment, provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting. In determining whether directors (or their alternates) are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director (or his or her alternate) is or how they communicate with each other and a person so participating by telephone or other communication shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be counted in a quorum and entitled to vote.
- 6.3 Where a person is so participating by telephone or other form of communication, such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the chairman of the meeting then is or at such other location as the directors deem it to be held.

7. Quorum for directors' meetings

- 7.1 Subject to Article 7.2, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors is any two Eligible Directors.
- 7.2 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 10 to authorise a director's Conflict, if there is only one Eligible Director in office other than the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) will be one Eligible Director.
- 7.3 If the total number of directors in office for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision except for the purposes of:
- 7.3.1 appointing further directors; or
 - 7.3.2 calling a general meeting so as to enable the Shareholders to appoint further directors.

8. Casting vote

If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting will not have a casting vote.

9. Transactions or other arrangements with the Company

Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) CA 2006 and declaring the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of section 177 or 182 CA 2006 (as the case may be), a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:

- 9.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise directly or indirectly interested;
- 9.2 is an Eligible Director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors (or committee of directors) in respect of such contract or proposed contract in which he is interested;
- 9.3 may vote at a meeting of directors (or of a committee of the directors) or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such contract or proposed contract in which he is interested;
- 9.4 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm will be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;

- 9.5 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and
- 9.6 will not be accountable to the Company (except as he may otherwise agree) for any benefit which he, or a person connected with him (as defined in section 252 CA 2006), derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such contract, transaction or arrangement will be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor will the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of the director's duty under section 176 CA 2006.

10. Directors' conflicts of interest

- 10.1 The directors may, as provided in this Article 10, authorise any matter or situation proposed to them by any director which would or might, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 175 CA 2006 to avoid conflicts of interest (Conflict).
- 10.2 Any authorisation of a Conflict will be effective only if:
 - 10.2.1 the matter in question is proposed by any director for consideration at a meeting of directors in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as the directors may determine;
 - 10.2.2 any requirement as to quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question; and
 - 10.2.3 the matter is agreed to without the director in question voting or would have been agreed to if his vote had not been counted.
- 10.3 Any authorisation of a Conflict may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):
 - 10.3.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised;
 - 10.3.2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine; and
 - 10.3.3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time.
- 10.4 Anything done by the director in question in accordance with the terms of the authorisation will not be affected by its subsequent termination or variation.
- 10.5 In authorising a Conflict the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is under no obligation, if it would amount to a breach of that confidence, to:
 - 10.5.1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; or
 - 10.5.2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director of the Company.

- 10.6 Where the directors authorise a Conflict they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) provide, without limitation, that the director in question:
- 10.6.1 is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) relating to the Conflict;
 - 10.6.2 is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict; and
 - 10.6.3 may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict.

- 10.7 Where the directors authorise a Conflict, the director in question:
- 10.7.1 will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict; and
 - 10.7.2 will not infringe any of the duties he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 CA 2006 if he acts in accordance with any terms, limits and conditions as the directors impose in respect of its authorisation.

- 10.8 A director shall not infringe his duty to avoid a Conflict if the matter or situation which would otherwise result in that director infringing that duty arises out of or results from that director:

- 10.8.1 being a director, alternate director, officer, employee, consultant or member of any other Group Company; or
- 10.8.2 being (directly or indirectly) involved with or interested in, any other Group Company, for the reason that any such matter or situation is authorised by this Article 10.8 and no further authorisation is required in respect of such matter or situation. In addition, any such director:

- 10.8.3 will not be in breach of any other duties he owes to the Company, including the duty to exercise independent judgement, as a result of him being involved in other Group Companies or pension schemes in the manner referred to in this Article 10.8;
- 10.8.4 will not be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from such matter or situation; and
- 10.8.5 will not be required to disclose or use for the benefit of the Company, any confidential information relating to such matter or situation if such disclosure or use would constitute a breach of confidence.

11. Records of decisions to be kept

Where decisions of the directors are taken by electronic means, they must be recorded by the directors in permanent form, so that they may be read with the naked eye.

12. Number of directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) is not subject to any maximum but must not be less than two.

13. Appointment and removal of directors

- 13.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director by ordinary resolution.

- 13.2 The Parent Company may at any time and from time to time by notice in writing to the Company appoint any person to be a director or the company secretary of the Company or remove from office any director or the company secretary, whether or not appointed by the Parent Company. In the case of an executive director or an executive secretary, his removal from office is deemed an act of the Company and has effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
- 13.3 Without prejudice to Article 13.2, the directors may at any time and from time to time appoint any person as an additional director.

14. Alternate directors

Appointment and removal

- 14.1 Any director may, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of that director, appoint as an alternate any other person, to:
- 14.1.1 exercise that director's powers; and
 - 14.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities.
- 14.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the Company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.
- 14.3 The notice must:
- 14.3.1 identify the proposed alternate; and
 - 14.3.2 in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

Rights and responsibilities

- 14.4 An alternate director may act as alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.
- 14.5 Except as the Articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:
- 14.5.1 are entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which their respective appointor is a member;
 - 14.5.2 are deemed for all purposes to be directors;
 - 14.5.3 are liable for their own acts and omissions;
 - 14.5.4 are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
 - 14.5.5 are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors.
- 14.6 A person who is an alternate director but not a director:
- 14.6.1 may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present (but only if that person's appointor is not participating);
 - 14.6.2 may participate in a unanimous decision of the directors (but only if his appointor is an Eligible Director in relation to that decision and does not participate); and
 - 14.6.3 will not be counted as more than one director for the purposes of Articles 14.6.1 and 14.6.2.

- 14.7 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except for any such part of his appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing to the Company.

Termination

- 14.8 An appointment as an alternate director terminates:
- 14.8.1 when the alternate director's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
 - 14.8.2 on the occurrence, in relation to the alternate director, of any event which, if it occurred in relation to his appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
 - 14.8.3 on the death of the alternate director's appointor; or
 - 14.8.4 when the alternate director's appointor's appointment as a director terminates.

15. Company secretary

The Parent Company may appoint any person who is willing to act as the company secretary for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit and from time to time remove such person and, if the Parent Company so decides, appoint a replacement.

ALLOTMENT OF SHARES AND FINANCING PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

16. Further issues of Shares: authority

- 16.1 Except as authorised by these Articles, or authorised from time to time by an ordinary resolution of the Shareholders or by a written resolution in accordance with section 282(2) CA 2006, and subject to Article 16.3, the directors must not exercise any power of the Company to allot Shares or to grant rights to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, any Shares.
- 16.2 Subject to the remaining provisions of Article 16, the directors are generally and unconditionally authorised, for the purpose of section 551 CA 2006, to exercise any power of the Company to offer or allot, grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into or otherwise deal in, or dispose of, any Shares to any person, at any time and subject to any terms and conditions as the directors think fit.

18.2 The Company's Lien over a Share:

18.2.1 takes priority over any third party's interest in that Share; and

18.2.2 extends to any dividend or other money payable by the Company in respect of that Share and (if the lien is enforced and the Share is sold by the Company) the proceeds of sale of that Share.

18.3 The directors may at any time decide that a Share which is or would otherwise be subject to the Company's Lien will not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

20.3 A demand withdrawn as prescribed in Article 20.2 will not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

21.1.1 states the name and address of the Shareholder appointing the proxy;

In calculating the period specified in this Article 21.1.4 there will be disregarded any day or part of a day which is not a Business Day.

21.2 A Proxy Notice which is not delivered as provided by Article 21.1 will be invalid, unless the directors, in their discretion, accept the notice at any time before the meeting.

22. Quorum
