Year Ending: 31 March 2021

Company activities and impact

During the Financial Year 2020 - 2021, REGA-UK continued to incorporate cultural content into the celebrations and events it organised. This has made it possible to weave a network of support and collaboration between existing Galician groups in the United Kingdom, generating synergies that contributed to represent the Galician language and culture in the country.

The following events were organised during the Financial Year:

Lockdown with the Galician diaspora
April and May 2020

Virtual event

REGA-UK decided to approach the Galician community during the confinement caused by the coronavirus pandemic to find out how they were dealing with this unprecedented scenario.

As a result, REGA-UK created a series of videos that depict the Galician community's experiences. The result was a series of videos produced by REGA-UK that reflect the experiences of the Galician community. The interview series included healthcare professionals, essential service workers, education, and the performing arts.

Romaria Dia da Matria 2020 - National Day of Galicia
25th July 2020

Virtual event

Due to the pandemic unleashed by the coronavirus, REGA-UK replaced its traditional gathering in Hyde Park with an online event in which artists from different geographical locations participated.

The event was broadcast from the REGA-UK Facebook page and created a meeting point for Galician culture inside and outside the Galician territory, weaving networks between artists from Galicia, London, Belgium and Argentina.

The event had more than 120 attendees, and the highlight was its international reach and participation.

Magosto - Chestnut Festival
16th to 22nd November 2020

Virtual event

The virtual Chestnut Festival - Magosto included a weekly program of videos of different categories: traditional music, gastronomy and literature. In addition, the Galician community was asked to share videos and images of the Magosto celebration in their homes through a contest.

Entroido na casa - Carnival at home
13th to 17th February 2021

Virtual publications

The 2021 REGA-UK Entroido - Carnival was also a virtual event due to the pandemic.

Several posts with the hashtag #entroidonacasa - carnivalathome were shared on REGA-social UK's media channels.

The post generated a virtual conversation about carnival celebrations around Galicia - Viana, Xinzo, the counties of Ulla, Salnés between the 13th and 17th of February, from Carnival Saturday to Ash Wednesday, detailing the features of the costumes and ways of celebration.

With the organisation of all the events, REGA-UK continued to pursue its goal of promoting and maintaining the cultural offer in Galician. As well as creating a point of convergence and a collaborative framework for the defence and dissemination of Galician culture in the United Kingdom.
