- 2.2 The A Ordinary Shares and B Ordinary Shares shall be separate classes of shares. The B Ordinary Shares shall have only those rights expressly provided in these Articles.
- 2.3 Any consideration to be paid to the Company for the issue of a share shall be payable at such time or time(s) and in such instalments (if any) as shall be prescribed by the directors and as regards any premium may be conditional or variable in amount, in whole or in part.

2.6 Except as in accordance with any written agreement between the members, no transfer of B Ordinary Shares shall be permitted without the prior written consent of all A Ordinary Shareholders acting in their absolute discretion.

3 PARTLY PAID SHARES AND FORFEITURE

3.1 Subject to their terms of issue, the directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal amount of the shares or by way of premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue, and each member shall (subject to the Company serving upon him at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares.

3.2 A call may be made payable by instalments. A call may be revoked or postponed, in whole or in part, as the directors may decide. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for all calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

- 3.3 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed.
- 3.4 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.
- 3.5 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable, the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it is due and payable to the time of actual payment at such rate, not exceeding 5 per cent per annum above the Base Rate, as the directors may decide, and all expenses that have been incurred by the Company by reason of that non-payment, but the directors shall be at liberty in any case or cases to waive payment of the interest or expenses wholly or in part.
- 3.6 Any amount which becomes payable in respect of a share on allotment or on any other date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue, whether in respect of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call and, if it is not paid, all the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if the sum had become due and payable by virtue of a call.
- 3.7 Subject to their terms of issue, the directors may on the issue of shares differentiate between the allottees or holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
- 3.8 The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member who is willing to advance them all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and on all or any of the moneys so advanced the Company may (until those moneys would, but for the advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate, not exceeding 5 per cent per annum above the Base Rate, as the directors may decide.
- 3.9 If any call or instalment of a call remains unpaid on any share after the day appointed for payment, the directors may serve a notice on the holder requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of that non-payment.
- 3.10 The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 14 clear days from the date of the notice) on or before which, and the place where, the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment on or before the day and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call has been made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The directors may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited and, in that event, references in these Articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.
- 3.11 If the notice is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before payment of all calls or instalments and interest and expenses due in respect of it has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors and the forfeiture shall include all dividends declared and other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.
- 3.12 When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission or neglect to give notice.
- 3.13 Until cancelled in accordance with the requirements of the Act, a forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was, before forfeiture, the holder or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the directors shall decide. The directors may for the purposes of the disposal authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer to the designated transferee. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal. At any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled by the directors on such terms as the directors may decide.

- 3.14 A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of them and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for the forfeited shares but shall remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of the forfeiture were payable by him to the Company in respect of those shares with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum above the Base Rate (or such lower rate as the directors may decide) from the date of forfeiture until payment, and the Company may enforce payment without being under any obligation to make any allowance for the value of the shares forfeited or for any consideration received on their disposal.
- 3.15 A statutory declaration that the declarant is a director of the Company or the secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is sold or otherwise disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, sale or disposal.

4 LIENS

- 4.1 Subject to the following provisions of this Article, the Company shall have a first and paramount lien on any shares standing registered in the name of any person indebted or under liability (actual or contingent) to the Company and a right of set off for that debt or liability against all moneys payable by the Company on or in respect of the same, whether he shall be the sole registered holder or shall be one of two or more joint holders, for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the Company in respect of those shares.
- 4.2 The directors may also resolve that any share or shares be exempt wholly or in part from this Article.
- 4.3 For the purpose of enforcing the Company's lien on any shares, the Company (which shall be deemed by these Articles irrevocably appointed as the attorney and, separately, the agent of the member empowered and authorised on his behalf to do, execute and deliver any acts, things, deeds, transfers and documents for him as it may consider necessary for the purpose) may sell and transfer the shares in such manner as it decides if an amount in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen clear days following the giving of a notice to the holder (or any person entitled by transmission to the share) demanding payment of the amount due within such fourteen clear day period and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold. The appointment referred to in this Article 4.3 is given by way of security to secure the performance of the obligations of the member whose shares are the subject of the lien under this Article.
- 4.4 The purchaser or transferee will not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies in respect of any sale of shares under the powers of the Company conferred by this Article. The title of the transferee to the shares will not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the sale or transfer. Any deeds, transfers and documents executed and all acts and things done in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Article shall be effective as if they had been executed or done by the holder of the shares to which they relate.

- 4.5 The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to the Company's lien under these Articles (after payment of the costs and expenses of sale) shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount then due to the Company in respect of the shares. Any balance shall be paid to the original holder of, or the person entitled (but for such sale) by transmission to, the shares on surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for those shares (or an indemnity in such form as the directors may require where it is missing or destroyed) and (in all cases) subject to the Company having a lien on such balance on the same basis as applied to the shares for any amount not presently payable as existed on such shares before the sale.

5 NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company by ordinary resolution of the B Ordinary Shareholders, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall be not less than one in number. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution fix a maximum number of directors and from time to time vary that maximum number.

6 CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

Notices of meetings of directors shall be given to all directors and to any alternate directors appointed by them. Any such notice shall be deemed to be properly given to a director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing (including by electronic communication) to him at his last known address or at any other address given by him to the Company for this purpose, or by any other means authorised in writing by the director concerned. A director absent or intending to be absent from the United Kingdom may request that notices of meetings of the directors shall, during his absence, be sent to him by electronic communication in writing at an address given by him to the Company for this purpose Article 9 of the Model Articles shall be varied accordingly.

7 QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 7.1 The quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors shall be any two Eligible Directors or in the event of there being a single director, that director.
- 7.2 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 9.1 to authorise a director's conflict, if there is only one Eligible Director in office other than the conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one Eligible Director.

8 TRANSACTIONS AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

- 8.1 Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Act and provided he has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of the Act and Article 8.2, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:
- (a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;
 - (b) shall be an Eligible Director for the purposes of, and be counted in the quorum in relation to, any proposed decision of the directors in respect of such existing or proposed transaction or arrangement in which he is interested;

The directors may also cause any voting power in any Relevant Entity held or owned by the Company or any associated company of the Company or any power of appointment to be exercised in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit, including the exercise of the voting power or power of appointment in favour of the appointment of the directors or any of them as directors or officers (or equivalent office holders) of the Relevant Entity, or in favour of the payment of remuneration to the directors or officers (or equivalent office holders) of the Relevant Entity; and
- (e) shall not, save as he may otherwise agree, be accountable to the Company or any associated company of the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he (or a person connected with him (as defined in section 252 of the Act)) derives from any such transaction, arrangement, office, directorship, employment or interest referred to in Articles 8.1(a) and 8.1(d) and no such transaction or arrangement nor any contract arising therefrom or related thereto shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest, profit or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Act.

- (a) at a meeting of the directors;

If a declaration of interest under this Article proves to be, or becomes, inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made. This Article 8.2 does not require a declaration of an interest of which the director is not aware or where the director is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question. For this purpose a director shall be deemed to be aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware. A director need not declare an interest in the circumstances set out in section 177(6) or section 182(6) of the Act, as applicable.

8.3 A director may hold any other office or place of profit with the Company (except that of auditor) in conjunction with his office of director for such period (subject to the provisions of the Act) and upon such other terms as the directors may decide, and may be paid such extra remuneration for so doing (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or

9 DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

9.1 The directors may resolve in accordance with sections 175(5)(a) and 175(6) of the Act (as if it applied irrespective of the date of incorporation of the Company) to authorise a director to enter into a specific situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company, as described in section 175(1) of the Act, including (without limitation) any such situation or matter which relates to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity (irrespective of whether the Company could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity) (a "Conflict Situation").

- (c) be terminated or varied by the directors at any time.

This will not affect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

9.4 In authorising a Conflict Situation the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict Situation otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is under no obligation to:

- (a) disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the company; or
- (b) use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence.

9.5 Where the directors authorise a Conflict Situation they may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) provide, without limitation, that the director:

- (a) is excluded from discussions (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict Situation;
- (b) is not given any documents or other information relating to the Conflict Situation; and

- (c) may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at any future meeting of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the Conflict Situation.
- 9.6 Where the directors authorise a Conflict Situation, the director the subject of such Conflict Situation will:

 - (b) pursuant to section 180(4)(b) of the Act, not have breached his general duties as set out in sections 171 to 177 of the Act to the extent that he complies with such terms and the other provisions of these Articles relating to Conflict Situations.
- 9.7 For the purposes of sections 175 and 180(4) of the Act and for all other purposes, it is acknowledged that a director may be or become subject to a Conflict Situation or Conflict Situations as a result of his also being or having been, or being party to an agreement or arrangement or understanding or circumstances under which he may become, an employee, director, trustee, member, partner, officer or representative of, or a consultant to, or a direct or indirect investor in and/or otherwise commercially involved with or economically interested in, any associated company of the Company and/or any pension or similar retirement benefits scheme operated for the benefit of the employees and/or directors of any associated company of the Company and/or in the case of any director appointed by the holder or holders of shares in the capital of the Company, a holder of those shares or any associated company of a holder of those shares. Any such Conflict Situation of a director shall be deemed authorised by these Articles.
- 9.8 Any director the subject of a Conflict Situation envisaged by Article 9.7 shall be entitled to receive notice (including any relevant board papers) of, attend, count in the quorum towards and vote at board meetings relating in any way to, and deal generally with, matters concerning, connected with or arising from the Conflict Situation concerned.
- 10 APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS
- 10.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director (either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors):
 - (a) by an ordinary resolution of the B Ordinary Shareholders; or
 - (b) by a notice in writing, specifying the person to be appointed, signed by or on behalf of the B Ordinary Shareholders who, together, are entitled to exercise a majority of the voting rights exercisable in respect of the B Ordinary Shares which is sent to the Company or tabled at a meeting of the directors.
- 10.2 If the Company in general meeting of the B Ordinary Shareholders determines to increase the number of directors in office additional directors shall be appointed in accordance with 10.1.
- 10.3 At any general meeting of the B Ordinary Shareholders at which a director retires or is removed from office, a director may be appointed to fill the vacancy in accordance with 10.1, unless the Company determines to reduce the number of directors in office.
- 10.4 Seven clear days' notice shall be given to the Company of the intention of the B Ordinary Shareholders to propose any person for election to the office of director provided always that, if the B Ordinary Shareholders present in person at a general meeting unanimously consent, the chairman of such meeting may waive the said notice and submit to the meeting the name of any person duly qualified and willing to act.

10.5 The office of a director shall be vacated if:

- (a) he resigns his office by notice to the Company;
- (b) he ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Act or becomes prohibited or disqualified by law from being a director;
- (c) he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
- (d) he is removed from office by notice in writing, signed by or on behalf of the B Ordinary Shareholders who, together, are entitled to exercise a majority of the voting rights exercisable in respect of the B Ordinary Shares, which is sent to the Company or tabled at a meeting of the directors.

11 APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

11.1 Any director other than an alternate director ("appointor") may appoint (and remove any alternate so appointed) as an alternate any other person (whether or not a director) to

- (a) exercise that director's powers; and
- (b) carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors, in the absence of the alternate's appointor.

11.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing (including by electronic communication) identifying the alternate director concerned and will take effect on the later of:

- (a) the date that the Company is served with the notice, and
- (b) the date specified in the notice as being the appointment or removal date of the alternate.

11.3 In the case of an appointment of an alternate director, he must confirm in writing to the Company his willingness to act as the alternate of the appointor.

11.4 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- (a) if his appointor revokes his appointment by notice to the Company in writing (including by electronic communication) specifying when it is to terminate;
- (b) if any event happens in relation to him which, if he were a director, would cause his office as director to be vacated; or
- (c) if his appointor ceases to be a director for any reason.

12 RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

12.1 An alternate director may act as alternate director to more than one director and has the same rights in relation to any decision of the directors as the alternate's appointor.

12.2 Except as the Articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:

- (a) are deemed for all purposes to be directors;

- (b) are liable for their own acts and omissions;
- (c) are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
- (d) are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors,

- (c) may be counted separately for the purposes of Articles 12.3(a) and 12.3(b) in respect of each of his appointors and be entitled to a separate vote for each such appointor as is an Eligible Director.

12.4 A director who is also an alternate director is entitled, in the absence of his appointor, to a separate vote on behalf of each of his appointors, in addition to his own vote on any decision of the directors (provided that such appointor is an Eligible Director in relation to that decision).

12.5 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the Company.

13 SECRETARY

The directors may from time to time appoint or remove any person who is willing to act as the secretary of the Company on such terms as they think fit. If at any time there is no secretary or for any reason no secretary capable of acting, the directors may appoint an assistant or deputy secretary.

14 CHANGE OF NAME OF THE COMPANY

In addition to any other method available under the Act for effecting a change of name of the Company, the Company's name may (subject to compliance with section 79 of the Act) be changed by resolution of the directors.

15 QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

15.1 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. The quorum shall be all qualifying persons who are entitled to attend and vote at the relevant meeting provided that at any general meeting where the matter under consideration is only in respect of the appointment or removal of directors the quorum shall be qualifying person(s) holding at least one half of the issued B Ordinary Shares.
