- 1.2 Save as otherwise specifically provided in these Articles, unless the context otherwise requires, words and expressions which have particular meanings in CA 2006 as in force on the date when these Articles become binding on the Company shall have the same meanings in these Articles.
- 1.3 Readings of these Articles are used for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of any provision of these Articles.
- 1.4 Unless expressly provided otherwise, a reference to a statute, statutory provision or subordinate legislation is a reference to it as it is in force from time to time and shall include any orders, regulations or subordinate legislation from time to time made under it and any amendments thereto and any such orders, regulations or subordinate legislation for the time being in force.
- 1.5 Any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular" or any similar expression shall be illustrative only and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.
- 1.6 No regulations set out in any statute or in any statutory instrument or other subordinate legislation concerning companies, including the model articles for private companies limited by shares contained in Schedule 3 of the Companies (Model Articles) Regulations 2008 (SI 2009/3229) as amended prior to the date of adoption of these Articles, shall apply to the Company, but the following shall be the articles of association of the Company.

2 Liability of members

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

PART 2

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3 Directors' general authority

Subject to these Articles and to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

4 Change of Company name

Without prejudice to the generality of Article 3, the directors may resolve in accordance with Article 10 to change the Company's name.

5 Members' reserve powers

5.1 Without prejudice to any special resolution which direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, particular action.

5.2 A special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

6 Powers of directors falling less than minimum number

If the number of directors is less than the minimum for the time being prescribed by these Articles, the remaining director (or directors where such minimum is three or more) shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional director or directors to make up such minimum or of convening a general meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment.

7 Members can call general meeting if not enough directors

7.1 If:

7.1.1 the Company has fewer than two directors, and

7.1.2 the director (if any) is unable or unwilling to appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or to call a general meeting to do so, then two or more members may call a general meeting (or instruct the Company secretary to do so) for the purpose of appointing one or more directors. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, any additional director so appointed shall hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the Company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting.

8 Directors may delegate

8.1 Subject to these Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under these Articles:

- 8.1.1 to such person or committee;
- 8.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);
- 8.1.3 to such an extent;
- 8.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and
- 8.1.5 on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

8.2 If the directors' resolution or delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers to any person to whom they are delegated.

8.3 The directors may rescind their delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

9 Committee

9.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are consistent with the general principles in these provisions of these Articles which govern the making of decisions by directors.

9.2 The directors may determine the procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from these Articles if they are not consistent with them.

9.3 Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the directors and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the directors to a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

10 Directors to take decisions collectively

10.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be taken as a majority decision at a meeting or as a directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 11 (Directors' written resolutions).

10.2 Subject to these Articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

11 Directors' written resolutions

11.1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution by giving notice in writing of the proposed resolution to each of the other directors (including alternate directors).

- 11.2 The Company secretary must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests by giving notice in writing of the proposed resolution to each of the other directors (including alternate directors).
- 11.3 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate:
- 11.3.1 the proposed resolution and
 - 11.3.2 the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it.
- 11.4 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when all of the non-conflicted directors (or alternates duly authorised in writing) have signed copies of it, provided that those directors (or their alternates) could have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting (or at a meeting of a committee of the directors, as the case may be) were the resolution to have been proposed at such meeting.
- 11.5 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting (or at a meeting of a committee of the directors, as the case may be) in accordance with these Articles.
- 11.6 It is immaterial whether any director signs the resolution before or after the time by which the resolution is proposed that it should be adopted.

12 Calling a directors' meeting

- 12.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to each of the other directors, whether or not he is absent from the United Kingdom, or by authorising the Company secretary to give such notice.
- 12.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
- 12.2.1 the proposed business to be transacted and
 - 12.2.2 that all eligible directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place and that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 12.3 Subject to Article 12.4, notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director but need not be in writing.
- 12.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Company prior to or up to and including not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

13 Participation in directors' meetings

- 13.1 Subject to these Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these Articles; and
 - (b) they each voluntarily disclose to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 13.2 In the meeting, the directors participating in a directors' meeting. It is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 13.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

14 Quorum for directors' meetings

- 14.1 If fewer directors than a quorum is required to participate, no proposal is to be voted on, except at a special resolution of the meeting.
- 14.2 The directors may from time to time fix a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors, but it must never be less than two directors, unless and in which case it is two.
- 14.3 For the purpose of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 18 (Directors' Conflicts of Interest) to deal with a director's Conflict, if there is only one non-conflicted director involved in a meeting, the non-conflicted director(s), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one non-conflicted director.

15 Chairing of directors' meetings

- 15.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.
- 15.2 The person so appointed at the time being is known as the chairman.
- 15.3 The directors may appoint other directors as deputy or assistant chairmen to chair directors' meetings in the chairman's absence.
- 15.4 The directors may terminate the appointment of the chairman, deputy or assistant chairman at any time.
- 15.5 If none of the chairman, deputy or assistant chairman nor any director appointed generally to chair directors' meetings in the chairman's absence is participating in a meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

16 Voting at directors' meetings: general rules

16.1 Subject to these Articles, a decision is taken at a directors' meeting by a majority of the votes of the participating non-conflicted directors.

16.2 Subject to these Articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

17 No casting vote of chairman at directors' meetings

If the number of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

18 Conflicts of interest: general rules

18.1 For the purposes of this Article, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and any other conflict of duty and interest, includes both direct and indirect interests.

18.2 The directors may, if authorised within the requirements set out in this Article 18, authorise any matter proposed within by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his duty under section 171 of the 2006 Act to avoid conflicts of interest (such matter being referred to in these Articles as a Conflict).

18.3 A director seeking authorisation in respect of a Conflict shall declare to the other directors the nature and extent of his interest in a Conflict as soon as is reasonably practicable. The director shall provide the other directors with such details of the relevant matter as are necessary for the other directors to decide how to address the Conflict together with such other information as may be requested by the other directors.

18.4 Any authorisation given under this Article shall be effective only if:

18.4.1 the matter in question has been proposed by any director for consideration at a directors' meeting in the same way that any other matter may be proposed for consideration in accordance with the provisions of these Articles or in such other manner as may be authorised by the directors;

18.4.2 any requirements as to the quorum at the meeting of the directors at which the matter is proposed are complied with without counting the director in question and any other conflicted director(s) as part of the quorum;

18.4.3 the matter was agreed to without the director and any other conflicted director(s) voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

18.5 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article 18 may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):

18.5.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the Conflict so authorised;

18.5.2 be subject to such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions as the directors may determine; or

18.5.3 be terminated or varied by the directors at any time.

18.5.4 shall with no effect anything done by the director prior to such termination or variation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

18.6 If authorising a Conflict the directors may decide (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that if a director has obtained any information through his involvement in the Conflict otherwise than as a director of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person the director is under no obligation to:

18.6.1 disclose such information to the directors or to any director or other officer or employee of the Company; or 18.6.2 use or apply any such information in performing his duties as a director.

18.6.3 shall be subject to any duty of confidentiality.

18.7 Where the directors make a Conflict they may provide, without limitation (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently) that the director:

18.7.1 shall not be allowed to vote (whether at meetings of directors or otherwise) on any resolution relating to the Conflict;

18.7.2 shall not be permitted to disclose any information relating to the Conflict;

18.7.3 shall not be permitted to vote on any resolution relating to the Conflict; and any vote cast by the director may not be counted in the event of any future resolution relating to the Conflict.

18.8 Where the directors make a Conflict:

18.8.1 the director shall be permitted to conduct himself in accordance with any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict;

18.8.2 the director shall be relieved of any duty he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 174 to 177 of CA 2006 provided he acts in accordance with such terms, limits and/or conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of his authorisation.

18.9 Subject to the applicable provisions for the time being of the Companies Acts and to any terms, limits and/or conditions imposed by the directors in accordance with Article 18.5.2 and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any interest of his in accordance with the Companies Acts, a director notwithstanding his office:

18.9.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

- 18.9.2 shall be counted as participating for voting and quorum purposes in any decision in connection with any proposed or existing transaction or arrangement with the Company, in which he is in any way directly or indirectly interested;
- 18.9.3 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (otherwise than as auditor), and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;
- 18.9.4 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, transaction, or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate approved by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested; and
- 18.9.5 shall, in any event, if his being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), be accountable to the Company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he (or anyone connected with him) as agent or trustee of the Company (section 282 of the 2006) derives:
- (a) in or in connection with a relationship involving a Contract which has been authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions relating to that authorisation);
 - (b) in or in connection with any such office or employment; or
 - (c) in or in connection with any such contract, transaction or arrangement; or
 - (d) in or in connection with any interest in any such body corporate;
- and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground that it has been or will be made or effected in breach of any such provision, and no director shall be liable for a breach of his duty under section 176 of CA 2006.
- 18.10 For the purpose of all the provisions relating to proposed decisions and decision-making processes involving directors, the following shall be part of a directors' meeting:
- 18.11 Subject to Article 18.10, the following shall arise at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a Director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes: the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman, whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.
- 18.12 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

19 Director's interest in own appointment

A director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the directors or committee of the directors concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of his appointment or its termination) as the holder of any office or place of profit with the Company or any company in which the Company is interested, where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying the terms of appointment or its termination) of two or more directors to offices or places of profit with the Company or any company in which the Company is interested. Such proposals shall be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each director. In such case each of the directors concerned (if not otherwise debarred from voting under these Articles) shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

20 Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record in writing, for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded, of every decision taken by the directors.

21 Directors' liability for breach of duties

Nothing in these Articles shall release or excuse any director from any liability which they think fit to incur for any act or omission in breach of their duties or otherwise or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS AND THE ELECTION OF APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

22 Number of directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall be fixed by ordinary resolution and shall not be less than two.

23 Eligibility for appointment of directors

23.1 Any person who is not disqualified by law from acting as a director or is permitted by law to act as a director may be elected or appointed as a director.

23.2 Any person may be elected or appointed as an alternate director.

23.3 Any person may be elected or appointed as a director or alternate director.

23.2 In any case where as a result of death or bankruptcy, the Company has no members and no directors, and no person is deemed to be the last member to have died or to have a bankruptcy order made against him or the case may be, shall have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person (including a person who is a natural person), who is willing to act and is permitted to do so, to be a director.

23.3 For the purposes of Article 23.2, where two or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.

24 Retirement of directors by rotation

24.1 At the first annual general meeting all the directors must retire from office.

24.2 At every subsequent annual general meeting any directors who:

24.2.1 have been appointed by the directors since the last annual general meeting; or

24.2.2 were not appointed or reappointed at one of the preceding two annual general meetings, must retire from office and may offer themselves for reappointment by the members.

25 Position of retiring director

A director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed at the meeting or by special resolution or have been re-appointed. He shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

26 Deemed re-appointment

Any director who retires at an annual general meeting by rotation the Company may fill the vacancy and if it does not do so, the retiring director shall be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the director is put to the meeting and lost.

27 Termination of director's appointment

27.1 A director's office shall be terminated if:

27.1.1 that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of CA 2006 or is otherwise disqualified from acting as a director by law;

27.1.2 a winding-up order or a receiving order is made against that person;

27.1.3 a winding-up order is made against a person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts or that person petitions the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that Act and the court resolves that his office be vacated;

27.1.4 a medical practitioner or other person who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

27.1.5 both he and his alternate director appointed pursuant to the provisions of these Articles (if any) are absent, without the permission of the Directors, from directors' meetings, for six consecutive months and the directors resolve that his office be vacated;

- 27.1.6 notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office as director, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- 27.1.7 he is removed from office by notice in writing signed by all the other directors (without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract between him and the Company) and, for this purpose, a set or like notices each signed by one or more of the directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of directors (and for these purposes (i) an alternate director appointed by him acting in his capacity as such shall be excluded and (ii) a director and his alternate appointed by such director and acting in his capacity as such shall constitute a single director so that signature by either shall be sufficient); or
- 27.1.8 in the case of a director who holds any executive office with the Company, his appointment is terminated or expires and the directors resolve to his resignation.

28 Resolution as to vacant directorial office

A resolution of the directors appointing a director to a vacant office under the provisions of Article 27.1.3 shall be conclusive as to the director's appointment and the action stated in the resolution.

29 Director's remuneration

29.1 Directors are entitled to receive remuneration from the Company and the directors resolve:

29.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine for:

(a) the services rendered by any director; and

(b) the services rendered by any director for the Company.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the resolution of the Company by which it is voted) the dividend payable to the directors shall be in such proportions and in such manner as the directors may determine and may be determined equally (except that in such event any director holding more than one office in the relevant period in respect of which the fees are paid shall be paid a proportion in proportion to the time during such period for which he holds more than one office) and shall be distinct from any salary, remuneration, emoluments or other amounts payable to a director pursuant to any other provisions of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company.

29.3 Subject to these Articles such directors' remuneration may:

29.3.1 include any pension or gratuity;

29.3.2 include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

32.1.2 carry out that director's responsibilities.

in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of that appointor.

32.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the Company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

32.3 The notice must:

32.3.1 identify the person to be appointed;

32.3.2 in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice;

32.4 an alternate director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum or minimum number of directors allowed by these Articles.

33 Rights and responsibilities of alternate directors

33.1 An alternate director may be an alternate to more than one director and, in his capacity as alternate, be entitled to attend and vote in relation to any decision of the directors, as that director.

33.2 Except as these Articles specify otherwise, alternate directors:

33.2.1 shall have the same rights and powers as directors;

33.2.2 shall be bound by the same duties and omissions;

33.2.3 shall possess the same liabilities as their appointors; and

33.2.4 shall be deemed to be agents for their appointors.

33.3 Notwithstanding to the contrary of the foregoing, an alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the Company a notice in writing of the circumstances in which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which he is a member.

33.4 Where an alternate director is appointed a director:

33.4.1 the person to whom he is appointed shall, for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at a meeting, be counted as if that person's appointor is not participating and that person's appointor may be counted as more than one director for such purposes;

33.4.2 the signa of the resolution, but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person, shall be valid.

33.4 A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is:

33.4.1 not participating in a directors' meeting; and 33.4.2 would vote but cannot vote if they were participating in it.

but he shall not be counted as more than one director for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

33.5 An alternate director shall not be allowed to contract and be interested in an interest from contracts or arrangements with the Company and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent mutatis mutandis as if he were a director. An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the Company. Subject to this Article, the Company shall pay to the alternate director such expenses as might properly have been paid to him if he had been a director.

34 Termination of alternate directorship

34.1 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate for any appointor terminates:

34.1.1 when that appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing signed by him. It is to terminate:

34.1.1.1 from the date of receipt by the Company from the alternate that the alternate is resigning as alternate for that appointor and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

34.1.2 on the occurrence of the death of the alternate, of any event which, if it occurred in the case of an appointor, would result in the termination of that appointor's directorship as directed;

34.1.3 on the death, resignation, death or

34.1.4 on the death, resignation, death or appointment as a director of the person appointed as an alternate. If an appointor as an alternate does not terminate when the appointor resigns, dies or is removed at a general meeting and is then re-appointed as a director at a subsequent meeting,

34.1.4.1 shall

35 Appointment and removal

The directors may appoint or remove any person to act as the Company secretary for such term, at such remuneration and on such conditions as they may think fit and from time to time remove such person and, if the director is removed, appoint a replacement. In each case by a decision of the directors.

PART 3

DECISION-MAKING BY MEMBERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

36 Annual general meetings

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, annual general meetings shall be held at such time and place or places as the directors may determine.

37 Other general meetings

All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

38 Convening general meetings

The directors may call general meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Acts, may also call special meetings in accordance with Article 20.6. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting, any director or the members requisitioning the meeting or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of the company may call a general meeting.

39 Notice of general meetings

39.1 Subject to Article 38.2, general meetings (other than an adjourned meeting) shall be called by notice in writing.

39.2 In the case of an annual general meeting, at least twenty-one Clear Days; and 39.3 In the case of all other general meetings, at least fourteen Clear Days.

39.4 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by:

39.4.1 In the case of an annual general meeting, all the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting; or

39.4.2 In the case of any other general meeting, a majority in number of the members entitled to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the nominal value of the shares at the meeting, giving entitlement to vote.

39.5 The notice shall state:

39.5.1 The day, date and time of the meeting is an annual general meeting;

39.5.2 The place or places of the meeting (including any satellite meeting place or places) and the facilities for the purposes of Article 40.6, which shall be identified as such in the notice; and

- 39.3.3 the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting;
- 39.3.4 the terms of any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- 39.3.5 if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose a special resolution; and
- 39.3.6 it shall be deemed to be proved that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member.

39.4 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be given to all members, to all persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member (if the Company has been notified of their entitlement) and to the directors, alternate directors and the auditors for the time being of the Company.

39.5 In the accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

39.6 If after the first notice of a general meeting of the Company has been despatched or made available to members but before the meeting has been held (or after the adjournment of a general meeting, if after the adjourned meeting is held, whenever or not notice of the adjourned meeting is received), the directors becomes aware of any fact, event or circumstance the existence of which, in their honest opinion, would make it impractical or inappropriate to hold the general meeting at the time or place declared (or places, in the case of a general meeting to which Article 39.6 applies), the directors may give notice pursuant to Article 39.2 of a new date and place for the notice pursuant to Article 39.4 either cancelling such meeting or postponing it to such meeting at a time and date which is not less than four (4) calendar days before the date of the new general meeting, twenty (20) days from the date of such notice and which shall specify the place (or places, in the case of a general meeting at which the meeting may be held) at which such postponed meeting will be held.

40 Attendance at general meetings and proxies

40.1 The directors may, if they so desire, permit a general meeting which is open to all a quorum to be held by means of a poll or by ballot, during the meeting, and any meeting may be conducted by means of a poll or by ballot on the business of the meeting.

40.2 The directors may, if they so desire, allow a general meeting which is open to all to be held by means of a poll or by ballot, during the meeting, and any meeting may be conducted by means of a poll or by ballot on the business of the meeting.

40.3 The directors may, if they so desire, allow a general meeting which is open to all to be held by means of a poll or by ballot, during the meeting, and any meeting may be conducted by means of a poll or by ballot on the business of the meeting.

40.4 The directors may, if they so desire, allow a general meeting which is open to all to be held by means of a poll or by ballot, during the meeting, and any meeting may be conducted by means of a poll or by ballot on the business of the meeting.

40.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

40.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are or would be free to exercise them.

40.6 The directors may resolve to enable persons entitled to attend a general meeting to do so by simultaneous attendance and participation at one or more satellite meeting places anywhere in the world. Members present in person or by proxy at satellite meeting places shall be counted in the quorum for, and entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairman of the general meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the general meeting to ensure that members attending at all the meeting places are able to:

(a) receive the notice for the business for which the meeting has been convened;

(b) put questions to, and speak to, persons present or speaking (whether by the use of microphones or otherwise) at the meeting, and to other communications equipment or otherwise) in the globally simultaneous satellite meeting place; and

(c) be seen and seen by other persons so present in the same manner.

40.7 The chairman of a general meeting shall have the power, and the meeting shall be deemed to take place at the place where the chairman is present.

40.8 The directors may make such arrangements as they see fit to enable persons entitled to attend a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting to view and hear the proceedings of the general meeting or adjourned general meeting (whether by the use of microphones, or otherwise) at the meeting place or at a venue (whether a place of their choice or a satellite meeting place). Those attending at any such venue shall be deemed to be present at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting if they are able to view and hear the meeting at or from that venue. The liability for the provision of such facilities shall be on the directors. The right of any person to view or hear or to speak at the meeting shall in any way direct or indirect be subject to the provisions of the articles.

40.9 The directors may make such arrangements as they see fit for the conducting of a general meeting (or an adjourned general meeting) at the same place or places (and by electronic means) as the meeting place.

41 Quorum for general meetings

41.1 The quorum for a general meeting of a company incorporated in England and Wales shall be two persons, as defined in section 250(1) of the Companies Act 2006, two qualifying persons, as defined in section 250(2) of the Companies Act 2006, or two persons upon the business of the company. If the company has only a single member, a director shall be a quorum for a general meeting.

- 41.2 No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

42 Chairing general meetings

- 42.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

- 42.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

42.2.1 the directors present;

42.2.2 if no director is present, the meeting;

may appoint a director or member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting shall be part of the business of the meeting.

- 42.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as the chairman of the meeting.

- 42.4 The chairman of a general meeting may take such action as he considers appropriate to permit the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as set out in the notice of the meeting. The chairman's decision on points of order, matters of procedure or on matters arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final and conclusive, as shall his determination as to whether any point or matter is of such a nature.

43 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-members

- 43.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings and may separately meeting of members may do so, whether or not they are members.

- 43.2 If a person is not a director or a member, the persons who are not:

43.2.1 directors, may attend and speak;

43.2.2 non-directors, may attend and speak, but shall not be entitled to exercise the rights of members in relation to general meetings, unless they are members.

44 Adjournment

- 44.1 A general meeting may be adjourned within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start, or at any time during a meeting, if a majority of the members of the meeting so resolve.

- 44.2 A general meeting may be adjourned if a majority of the members be dissolved or

- 44.3 A general meeting may be adjourned if a majority of the members be dissolved or

The adjourned meeting must be held no less than ten Clear Days after it was adjourned.

If at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

44.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

44.2.1 the meeting consents to adjournment; or

44.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to give all persons entitled to attend the meeting or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of attending, speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

44.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

44.4 Subject to Article 44.1, when adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:

44.4.1 state briefly and in plain language (or places, in the case of a general meeting to which Article 40.6 applies) the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting or state that it is to continue at a time and place (or places, in the case of a general meeting to which Article 40.6 applies) to be decided by the directors; and

44.4.2 state regarding any directions as to the time and place (or places, in the case of a general meeting to which Article 40.6 applies) of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

44.5 Subject to Clause 40.6 and to Article 44.1:

44.5.1 the business to be transacted at the reconvened meeting must be clearly stated in the original notice to be deemed to have been given at least fourteen 'Clear Days' notice of the reconvened meeting; and

44.5.2 if the reconvened meeting is a continuation of an adjourned meeting, the business to be transacted at the reconvened meeting must be clearly stated in the notice given at the adjourned meeting.

44.6 The notice of an adjourned meeting must be given to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meeting was given and shall contain the same information as that such notice must contain.

44.7 If business has been transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting to which the adjournment had not taken place, the business shall be deemed to have been validly transacted.

45 Noting: general

- 45.1 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these Articles. Subject to the Companies Acts and to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares, on a show of hands, every member who (being an individual) is present in person or (being a corporation), is present by a duly authorised representative (unless the representative is himself a member, in which case he shall have more than one vote), shall have one vote.
- 45.2 The Company shall not be entitled to exercise any voting rights, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares.
- 45.3 In the case of joint holders of shares, only one of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register of members.
- 45.4 Unless a poll is duly demanded, and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or rejected or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 45.5 A general meeting resolution shall be put to the vote by the chairman and there shall be no objection on the ground that it is not moved or seconded by any person.
- 46 Objections and Appeals
- 46.1 Any objection to the admission of any person voting at a general meeting shall be made at the time when the vote objected to is tendered, and every objection shall be decided by the chairman.
- 46.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- 46.3 Any objection to the admission of any person to vote at a general meeting, whether rejected or referred to the chairman, shall not be a ground for objecting unless it is pointed out at the same meeting, and, subject to the provisions of these Articles, if in the opinion of the chairman, it is of sufficient importance to be taken into account.
- 47 Demand for a Poll
- 47.1 Any member or members present in person or by proxy, or by duly authorised representative or by proxy, shall have one vote on a show of hands, unless the member or a pollable member entitled to more than one vote is entitled to exercise more than one vote in the same way, or some uses in the same way.
- 47.2 A poll may be demanded by a member or members present in person or by proxy, or by duly authorised representative or by proxy, or by the chairman, where he is entitled to demand a poll, at any time when he is entitled to put a question to the meeting.
- 47.3 A demand for a poll shall be made before a show of hands on that resolution or on that resolution and any other resolution on which a show of hands is demanded.

- 47.3 A poll may be demanded by:
- 47.3.1 the chairman of the meeting;
 - 47.3.2 the directors;
 - 47.3.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution;
 - 47.3.4 a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to shares held as treasury shares); or
 - 47.3.5 a person or persons holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution on which the aggregate sum has been paid up which is not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding shares held as treasury shares).
- 47.4 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
- 47.4.1 a majority in number of directors and
 - 47.4.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

48 Procedure on a poll

- 48.1 Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, general meetings must be taken when, where and in such manner as the directors of the company determine.
- 48.2 The chairman of the meeting may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and decide when and where the poll shall be taken and where the declaration shall be made.
- 48.3 The result of a poll shall be decided by the majority of the meeting in respect of the resolution on which the poll was demanded.

48.7 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded.

48.8 In any other case, at least seven days' notice must be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

48.9 The result of the poll shall not be subject to the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

49 No casting vote

In the case of a poll, if the chairman of the meeting takes part in the poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the poll is taken shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.

50 Voting by proxy

50.1 Subject to the provisions of the articles, every member is entitled to appoint and empower as his proxy another person or persons, of his own free will, to attend and to speak and vote at a general meeting in general meetings. A member may appoint more than one proxy in relation to a meeting, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that member. When two or more valid but differing instruments of proxy are delivered in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share.

50.2 If, on any day, more than one instrument of proxy is delivered in respect of the same share, none of them shall be valid for the purpose of the exercise of the rights of that share.

50.2 In the case of a poll, if a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed to vote on the resolution has one vote.

50.3 In the case of a poll, every proxy has one vote.

50.4 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution in question, unless the proxy has been duly appointed to vote on the resolution.

50.5 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution, and

50.6 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution, and

50.7 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution, and

50.8 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution, and

50.9 If a member is present at a meeting, a proxy for him shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution, and against the resolution (negative voting instructions) and by one or more other of those members to use his own discretion in casting his vote; and

- 50.4.3 In his discretion, elects (where he has otherwise received affirmative voting instructions) to vote against the resolution, or (where he has otherwise received negative voting instructions) to vote for the resolution.

51 Content of proxy notices

- 51.1 Proxies may only be given by a member by a notice in writing (proxy notice), which:
- 51.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - 51.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general nature of the matters in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 51.1.3 is signed by the member appointing the proxy or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - 51.1.4 is delivered to the company in accordance with these articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting(s) (or adjourned meeting(s)) to which they relate.
- 51.2 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 51.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions and the proxy is obliged to vote or abstain from voting in accordance with the specified instructions. However, the Company is not obliged to direct or direct a proxy to vote or abstains from voting as he has been instructed and shall incur no liability for any loss or expense. Failure by a proxy to vote or abstain from voting as instructed at a meeting shall not invalidate proceedings at that meeting.
- 51.4 Proxies will be valid for use at the meeting to which they relate unless:
- 51.4.1 they are revoked or annulled by the member appointing a proxy, or by a resolution of the directors or the members of the Company; or
 - 51.4.2 they are revoked or annulled by the directors or the members of the Company in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which they relate as far as the meeting is concerned.
- 51.5 Any proxy notice or other document appointing the proxy, if it is to be accompanied by any document or documents, must be accompanied by a document or documents signed by the person who executed it, to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

52 Delivery of proxy notices

- 1578215 01-... SR... A

- 52.8.1 in the case of a general or adjourned meeting, not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised;
- 52.8.2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- 52.8.3 in the case of a poll taken forthwith but not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, at the time at which it was demanded or twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, whichever is later, and a notice which is not delivered and received in such manner shall be invalid.

- 52.9 In calculating the periods referred to in this Article 52, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is a public holiday.

53 Representation of corporations at meetings

Subject to Article 20(6), a corporation may authorise a company within the meaning of Article 20(1) to be a member of the corporation and, if authorised by its board of directors or other governing body, authorise one or more persons to act as its representative or representatives at a meeting of the Company or at a separate meeting of the holders of a class of securities of the company (corporate representative). Any person so authorised shall (subject to section 323 of CA 2006) be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's dealings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. A director, secretary or other person authorised for the purpose by the directors may require a corporate representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution of authorisation of the corporation authorising him to exercise his powers.

54 Amendments to resolutions

- 54.1 A resolution passed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution.
- 54.2 A resolution may be amended only if a written amendment is given to the Company Secretary in writing before the general meeting at which it is to be proposed and the amendment is proposed before the meeting is to take place (or such other time as the directors may determine); and
- 54.3 The amendment must be in the form of a written amendment not more reasonable of its form and content than the original resolution and must be within the scope of the resolution.
- 54.4 A resolution passed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution.
- 54.5 A resolution passed at a general meeting may be amended at the general meeting at which it is proposed by ordinary resolution.
- 54.6 A resolution passed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if the amendment is necessary to correct a grammatical or clerical error in the resolution.

- 54.3 If the chairman of the meeting acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERS' RIGHTS

55 No voting of shares on which money owed to Company

No voting rights attached to a share may be exercised either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, at any adjournment of it, or on any poll called at or in relation to it, unless all amounts payable to the Company in respect of that share have been paid.

APPLICATION OF RULES TO CLASS MEETINGS

56 Class meetings

The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings apply, with any necessary modifications, to meetings of the holders of any class of shares.

PART IV

FINANCIAL DISTRIBUTIONS

ISSUE OF SHARES

57 Authority

Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any relevant authority of the Company in general meeting resolved by the Company, all shares created and any shares held by the Company in treasury shall be at the disposal of the directors (who may and, with or without conferring rights of renunciation), grant options over, offer, sell or otherwise dispose of or otherwise dispose of rights or subscribe for or convert any security into shares to such persons (including the directors themselves), at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as the directors may decide, provided that no share shall be issued at a discount.

58 Powers to issue different classes of shares

58.1 Subject to the Articles, the directors may, at their discretion, exercise the rights attached to any existing shares of the Company and may issue shares of any class or classes with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution of the Company, whether or not such a resolution has been passed or so far as the resolution does not make specific provision, the directors may determine.

58.2 The directors may, at any time, issue shares of any class or classes which are to be redeemed, or the date for redemption of which is determined by the directors, and may determine the terms and conditions of such issue, including the manner of redemption.

59 Transfer and transmission

59.1 The shares of the Company shall be transferable and the transferee of a share shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges attached to the share, whether or not the transfer is made by or for the Company or a giving effect to the result of the election of a winning up, in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights or in the absence of any such provision, with the consent of the holders of the issued shares of that class given in accordance with Article 59.2.

59.2 The consent of the holders of a class of shares may be given:

59.2.1 by a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class; or

59.2.2 in writing in any form signed by or on behalf of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of that class.

but not other than the foregoing meeting, all the provisions of these Articles and CA 2006 relating to general meetings of the Company shall apply (with such amendments as may be necessary to give such provisions efficacy) but so that the necessary quorum shall be two holders of shares of the relevant class present in person or by proxy and holding or representing not less than one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the relevant class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares); that every holder of shares of the class shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every such share held by him; and that any holder of shares of the class, (being a person or by proxy or (being a corporation) by a duly authorised representative may demand a poll at an adjourned meeting of such holders such quorum shall be satisfied by a proxy or a person holding shares of the class who is present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

60 Deemed validity.

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 2006, shares of the right or privileges attaching to any class of shares shall not be deemed to be void or invalidated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu with the first class of shares in which such new shares shall rank for dividend) and/or otherwise to the extent of the payment of the capital paid up on such shares or to the purchase or redemption of the Company's new shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and the Articles.

61 Payment of the shares of the Company and the rights

1.1 The Company shall be entitled to receive the following contributions for the purposes of:

(a) the payment of the capital paid up on shares; or

(b) the payment of the capital paid up on shares or

2.1 The Company shall be entitled to receive:

(a) the payment of the capital paid up on shares or other securities of the Company or

(b) the payment of the capital paid up on shares or other securities of the Company.

62 Company not bound to recognise interest in shares.

Except as required by law, or so far as may be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by or under these Articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or to recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

63 Certificates to be issued except in certain cases.

63.1 The Company must issue each member with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds.

63.2 The following cases are exceptions:

63.2.1 shares in respect of which a share warrant has been issued; or

63.2.2 shares in respect of which the Companies Acts permit the Company not to issue certificates.

63.3 In respect of each of the shares in which certificates are issued, all certificates must be issued free of charge.

63.4 A certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

63.5 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it, and every person who is registered as a holder of such shares must be sufficient delivery of it to all joint holders.

64 Contents and execution of share certificates.

64.1 Every certificate must contain:

(a) a statement of the particulars of what class it is issued;

(b) the name of the holder or holders;

(c) the number of shares to which it relates;

(d) the names of the persons to whom the shares are assigned to them.

64.2 Every certificate must:

(a) be signed by a director or the company secretary or a person authorised in that behalf by the directors or the company secretary, and

(b) be countersigned by the company secretary or a person authorised in that behalf by the directors or the company secretary.

64.3 Every certificate must be signed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

65 Consolidated share certificates

65.1 If a member's holding of shares of a particular class increases, the Company may issue to that member:

- (65.1.1) a single consolidated certificate in respect of all the shares of a particular class held by the member; or
- (65.1.2) a consolidated certificate in respect of only those shares by which that member's holding has increased.

65.2 When a member's holding of shares of a particular class is reduced, the Company must ensure that the member is issued with one or more certificates in respect of the number of shares held by the member and that the reduction that the Company need not (in the absence of a request from the member) issuing new certificate in:

- (65.2.1) the shares which the member no longer holds as a result of the reduction; and
- (65.2.2) the shares which the member retains following the reduction, were, immediately before the reduction, represented by the same certificate.

65.3 A member may request the Company, in writing, to replace:

- (65.3.1) one or more separate certificates with a consolidated certificate; or
- (65.3.2) a consolidated certificate with two or more separate certificates, including any portion of the shares as the member may specify.

65.4 If the Company agrees to a request, it may charge such reasonable fee as the directors may decide for carrying out

65.5 The consolidated certificate or the separate certificates which it is to replace have no effect for any purpose until the consolidation

66 Replacement certificates

66.1 If a certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder must:

- (66.1.1) give notice of the loss, theft or destruction to the Company;
- (66.1.2) make a statement, which is sworn, signed and verified, that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed;
- (66.1.3) give notice to the Company of the date on which a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares

66.2 The person who gives notice as required by 66.1 must be issued with such a replacement certificate:

- (66.2.1) if the certificate is lost or destroyed, only if it is to be issued with a single certificate; or
- (66.2.2) if the certificate is stolen, only if it is to be issued with a single certificate or the share certificate shall be replaced to the Company if it is damaged or destroyed.

66.2.3 The directors may make such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of costs as they see fit and as the directors decide.

67 Share warrants

67.1 The directors may from time to time in respect of any fully paid share:

67.2 Issue share warrants which:

67.2.1 Issued in such form; and

67.2.2 Executed in such manner;

As the directors decide;

67.3 A share represented by a share warrant may be transferred by delivery of the warrant representing it;

67.4 The directors may make provision for the payment of dividends in respect of any share represented by a share warrant;

67.5 Subject to the conditions, the directors may decide the conditions on which any share warrant is issued. In particular they may:

67.5.1 Decide the conditions on which new warrants are to be issued in place of warrants which are damaged or defaced, or said to have been lost, stolen or destroyed;

67.5.2 Decide the conditions on which bearers of warrants are entitled to attend and vote at general meetings;

67.5.3 Decide the conditions on which bearers of warrants may surrender their warrants;

67.5.4 Decide the date of issue of any warrant from time to time;

And the bearers of warrants are to be bound by the conditions and procedures set forth in relation to them either of them or by the directors decided, or specified before the warrant was issued;

67.6 Subject to the conditions, if the warrants are issued from time to time, bearers of share warrants have the same rights and privileges as they would if their names had been included in the register of members of the company represented by their warrants;

67.7 No person shall be entitled to any dividend or to recognise any interest in a share represented by a share warrant unless he has the absolute right of the bearer of that warrant to that warrant.

68 UNPAID CALLS ON SHARES

68 Company's right to call for unpaid calls

68.1 The Company may from time to time call for payment of any sum payable by or for any shareholder in respect of any share which is partly paid for any part of its nominal value.

68.1.1 The call may be made in whole or in part; and 68.1.2 The call may be made on shares of any class or classes issued.

The call may be made on any share which has not been paid for to the Company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future. Notice in writing of the call shall be sent in respect of it.

68.2 The Company's lien on shares shall:

68.2.1 take priority over any third party's interest in that share; and

68.2.2 extend to any dividend or other money payable by the Company in respect of that share until the call has been paid and the share is sold by the Company; the proceeds of sale of that share.

68.3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the Company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part.

69 Enforcement of the Company's lien

69.1 The directors may, if the sum payable is not paid:

69.1.1 send a written demand and notice has been given in respect of a share; and

69.1.2 the shareholder to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it.

The Company may then sell the share in such manner as the directors decide.

69.2 The lien shall extend to the sum:

69.2.1 payable by or for the shareholder in respect of a share which is subject to the Company's lien, and which has not been paid by the shareholder due and due the payment of that sum has been demanded;

69.2.2 payable by or for the shareholder;

69.2.3 payable by or for the shareholder; and

69.2.4 payable by or for the shareholder within 14 days of the notice;

and the Company may sell the share or any part of the share or to a person entitled to any part of the proceeds of the sale of the share or any part of the share.

- 69.3 The purchaser shall be bound to see to the sale of the share if the seller is not complied with the requirements of the preceding articles.
- 69.4 The purchaser shall be bound to execute an instrument in writing in favour of the Company of the share sold by a person nominated by the purchaser; and the purchaser shall be bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the purchaser's liability shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process relating to the sale.
- 69.4 The net proceeds of any such sale, after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien, must be applied:
- 69.4.1 first in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice;
 - 69.4.2 secondly to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the Company for cancellation, or an indemnity in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors has been given for any lost certificates, and subject to a lien equivalent to the Company's lien for any money payable (whether payable immediately or at some date in the future) as existed over the shares before the sale in respect of all shares registered in the name of that person (whether as the sole registered holder or as joint or several holders) after the date of the lien enforcement notice.
- 69.5 A statutory declaration by a director or the Company secretary that the declaration is a director or the Company secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the Company's lien on a specified date:
- 69.5.1 shall be admissible evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;
 - 69.5.2 shall be conclusive evidence that any other formalities of transfer required by law have been complied with and that the purchaser has a good title to the share.

70 Calls and notices

- 70.1 Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, all calls and notices are enforceable and effective if payable by a notice (call notice) signed by a director or secretary and sent to pay the Company a specified sum of money (call) which is payable in respect of shares when that member holds at the date when the directors or secretary so direct.

(c) If the person is not a director or officer of the Company or an associated company, he shall, if he is a trustee of an occupational pension scheme, be entitled to a maximum of £10,000 and may, in the members so occurring, be so engaged by the Company (or any associated company) as director (whether or not he is also a director or other officer), to the extent he acts in his capacity as auditor).

11.1.1 The directors must ensure that the relevant director remain insured, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of the relevant director in respect of any relevant loss.

11.1.2 In this Article:

12.1 "relevant director" means a director of the relevant company or the parent company of the relevant company, who is a director of the relevant company or an associated company of the relevant company, who is a trustee of an occupational pension scheme as defined in section 237(1) of the 2006 Act;

12.2 "relevant loss" means a loss suffered by a relevant director which has been or may be suffered by the relevant director as a result of the relevant director's duties as a director of the relevant company or an associated company, or as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme as defined in section 237(1) of the 2006 Act;

12.3 "relevant company" means the relevant company or the parent company of the relevant company, or an associated company of the relevant company, or a subsidiary of the relevant company.
