2. Liability of members

The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them

PART 2 – DIRECTORS

3. Directors' general authority

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company

4. Shareholders' reserve power

- 4.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action

- 4.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution

5. Directors may delegate

- 5.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles-

- a) to such person or committee,
- b) by such means (including by power of attorney),
- c) to such an extent,
- d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
- e) on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit

5.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated

5.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

6. Committees

6.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors

6.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

7. Borrowing powers

The directors may exercise all the powers of the company to borrow money without limit as to amount and upon such terms and in such manner as they think fit, and subject to Section 551 of the Companies Act (in the case of any security convertible into shares) to grant any mortgage, charge or standard security over its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the company of any third party

8. Directors to take decisions collectively

8.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 9

8.2 If-

- a) the company only has one director, and
 - b) no provision of the articles requires, it to have more than one director,
- the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

9. Unanimous decisions

9.1. A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter

9.2. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing

9.3. References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting

9.4. A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article, if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting

10. Calling a directors' meeting

10.1. Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice

10.2. Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate-

- a) its proposed date and time,
- b) where it is to take place, and
- c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting

- 10.3. Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing
- 10.4. Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it

11. Participation in directors' meetings

- 11.1. Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when-
 - a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and
 - b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting
- 11.2. In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 11.3. If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is

12. Quorum for directors' meetings

- 12.1. At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting
- 12.2. The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two
- 12.3. If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision-
 - a) to appoint further directors, or
 - b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors

13. Chairing of directors' meetings

- 13.1. The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings
- 13.2. The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman
- 13.3. The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time
- 13.4. If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it

14. Casting vote

- 14.1. If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, no person shall have a casting vote
- 14.2. But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

15. Conflicts of Interest

- 15.1. If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes provided that the director discloses the interest in accordance with either Section 177 or Section 182 of the Companies Act (as the case may be)
- 15.2. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a director notwithstanding his office shall not, save as he may otherwise agree, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him (as defined by section 252 of the Companies Act)) derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Companies Act

- 15.3. For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting
- 15.4. Subject to article 15.5, if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive
- 15.5. If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

16. Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors

17. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

18. Methods of appointing directors

- 18.1. Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director
 - a) by ordinary resolution, or
 - b) by a decision of the directors
- 18.2. In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director
- 18.3. For the purposes of paragraph 18.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder
- 18.4. The number of directors is not subject to any maximum, unless the company by ordinary resolution decides otherwise
- 18.5. The minimum number of directors is one

19. Termination of director's appointment

- 19.1. A person ceases to be a director as soon as-
 - a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law,
 - b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person,
 - c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts,
 - d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months,
 - e) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have,
 - f) the director leaves at the company's registered office notification that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms

20. Directors' remuneration

- 20.1. Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide
- 20.2. Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine-
 - a) for their services to the company as directors, and
 - b) for any other service which they undertake for the company
- 20.3. Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may-
 - a) take any form, and
 - b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director
- 20.4. Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors' remuneration accrues from day to day
- 20.5. Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested

21. Directors' expenses

- 21.1. The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at-
 - a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
 - b) general meetings, or
 - c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company

22. Appointment of an Alternate Director

- 22.1. Any director (the 'appointer') may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to-
 - a) exercise that director's powers, and
 - b) carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate's appointer
- 22.2. Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointer, or in any other manner approved by the directors
- 22.3. The notice must-
 - a) identify the proposed alternate, and
 - b) in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice

23. Rights and Responsibilities of Alternate Director

- 23.1. An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' decision-making process (including any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting), as the alternate's appointer
- 23.2. Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors-
 - a) are deemed for all purposes to be directors,
 - b) are liable for their own acts and omissions,
 - c) are subject to the same restrictions as their appointors, and
 - d) are not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors
- 23.3. A person who is an alternate director but not a director-
 - a) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating), and
 - b) may sign a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person's appointor)

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.
- 23.4. An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company

24. Termination of an Alternate Director

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates-

- 24.1. when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate,
- 24.2. on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director,
- 24.3. on the death of the alternate's appointor, or
- 24.4. when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates, except that an alternate's appointment as an alternate does not terminate when the appointor retires by rotation at a general meeting and is then re-appointed as a director at the same general meeting

PART 3 - SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

25. Share Capital

The share capital of the company shall be divided into ordinary shares

26. Ordinary Shares

- 26.1. Ordinary shares shall carry the right to vote
- 26.2. Ordinary shares shall carry the right to receive notice of and to attend any meeting of the shareholders of the company
- 26.3. On a winding up of the company, only to the extent that there are assets available to be distributed to the shareholders of the company and each holder of an ordinary share shall be entitled to a sum proportionate to his share of the ordinary share capital
- 26.4. The directors may pay a dividend on the ordinary shares but where a dividend is paid on any other class of share there shall not in consequence be an entitlement for the holders of the ordinary shares to require any dividend to be paid in respect of the ordinary shares

27. Issue of Shares

The directors may exercise the power to allot shares in the company, or to grant rights to subscribe for or to convert any security into shares in the company for a period of five years from the date of incorporation and afterwards in so far as this is necessary to comply with an offer or agreement made by the company before the expiry of the five-year period. The authority hereby given may at any time (subject to the said Section 551 of the Companies Act) be renewed, revoked or varied by ordinary resolution

28. Pre-emption

- 28.1. All shares which are not comprised in the share capital with which the company is incorporated and which the directors propose to issue shall first be offered pro rata to members of the company holding shares of the same class as the shares being issued in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of the existing shares held by them respectively unless the company in general meeting shall by special resolution otherwise direct
- 28.2. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a period (not being less than fourteen days) within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined
- 28.3. After the expiration of that period, those shares so deemed to be declined shall be offered in the proportion aforesaid to the persons who have, within the said period, accepted all the shares offered to them, such further offer shall be made in like terms in the same manner and limited by a like period as the original offer
- 28.4. Any shares not accepted pursuant to such offer or further offer as aforesaid or not capable of being offered as aforesaid except by way of fractions and any shares released from the provisions of this article by any such special resolution as aforesaid shall be under the control of the directors, who may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of the name to such persons, on such terms, and in such a manner as they think fit, provided that, in the case of shares not accepted as aforesaid, such shares shall not be disposed of on terms which are more favourable to the subscribers therefore than the terms on which they were offered to the members.

28.5. The provisions of Section 561 and 562 of the Companies Act do not apply to the company

29. Drag along

29.1. Any shareholder or shareholders together holding 75 per cent. or more of the ordinary shares from time to time outstanding (the "offeree shareholder") shall have the right at any time to negotiate and conclude the terms and conditions of a proposed sale of all of the shares held by all shareholders to a third party in accordance with this article 29 (a "drag along sale").

29.2. The offeree shareholder shall, within 10 business days of receipt of a bona fide written arm's length offer by an unconnected and independent third party for all of the shares, notify all the other shareholders of the offer (the "offeree shareholder's notice") and supply to the other shareholders (the "other shareholders") such information as the offeree shareholder considers reasonable in connection with the drag along sale save to the extent that any such disclosure of information would result in any breach of any confidentiality undertaking given by the offeree shareholder to the offeror (as defined below).

29.3. Any drag along sale shall be to the following specifications:

- a) a drag along sale may be by way of an offer for the shares made by a third party purchaser or group of third party purchasers (the "offeror");
- b) the consideration for the shares to be sold by the shareholders pursuant to the drag along sale and any costs of sale shall be apportioned between the shareholders pro rata and pari passu to the number of ordinary shares to be sold by them;
- c) each other shareholder shall be entitled to receive in full their respective consideration for the shares to be sold by them at the same time as the offeree shareholder; and
- d) each other shareholder shall only be required to give the same warranties, representations and indemnities in connection with the drag along sale as those given by the offeree shareholder.

29.4. The other shareholders shall thereupon become bound to accept the drag along sale and to transfer their shares to the offeror (or his nominee) with full title guarantee on the date specified by the offeree shareholder.

29.5. If any other shareholder shall not, within 5 business days of being required to do so, execute and deliver transfers in respect of the shares held by him and deliver the certificate(s) in respect of the same (or a suitable indemnity in lieu thereof), then any offeree shareholder shall be entitled to execute, and shall be entitled to authorise and instruct such person as he thinks fit to execute, the necessary transfer(s) and indemnities on the other shareholder's behalf and, against receipt by the company (on trust for such shareholder) of the consideration payable for the relevant shares, deliver such transfer(s) and certificate(s) or indemnities to the offeror (or his nominee) and register such offeror (or his nominee) as the holder thereof and, after such registration, the validity of such proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

30. All shares to be fully paid up

30.1. No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue

30.2. This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum

31. Powers to issue different classes of share

31.1. Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by special resolution or attach such rights or restrictions to existing shares.

31.2. The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are able to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares

32. Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it

33. Share certificates

33.1. The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds

33.2. Every certificate must specify-

- a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,
- b) the nominal value of those shares,
- c) that the shares are fully paid, and
- d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them

33.3. No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class

33.4. If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it

33.5. Certificates must-

- a) have affixed to them the company's common seal, or
- b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts

34. Replacement share certificates

34.1. If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is-

- a) damaged or defaced, or
 - b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed,
- that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares

34.2. A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate-

- a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,
- b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
- c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide

35. Share transfers

35.1. Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor

35.2. No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share

35.3. The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered

35.4. The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it

35.5. The directors may in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent

36. Transmission of shares

36.1. If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share

36.2. A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require-

- a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had

36.3. But transmittes do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares

37. Exercise of transmittes' rights

37.1. Transmittes who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

37.2. If the transmittes wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittes must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it

37.3. Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittes has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred

38. Transmittes bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittes is entitled to those shares, the transmittes is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittes's name has been entered in the register of members

39. Procedure for declaring dividends

39.1. The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
