Statutory provision for appropriation of results

Following the decision of the shareholders of the Company, Article 13 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company that governs the appropriation of results states that

- 1 Out of the net profit five percent shall be placed into a legal reserve account. The requirement ceases to be compulsory when the reserve amounts to ten percent of the share capital of the Company. The profits after the transfer to the legal reserve account shall be at the disposal of the general meeting.
- 2 The Company may make distributions to shareholders and other persons entitled to profits that qualify for distribution only to the extent that the shareholders' equity exceeds the paid-up and called capital plus the reserves which must be maintained by law or under these articles of incorporation
- 3 The shareholders may decide to pay interim dividends on the basis of a statement of accounts prepared by the managers showing that sufficient funds are available for distribution. The amount to be distributed may not exceed profits realised since the end of last fiscal year increased by any profits carried forward and distributable reserves but decreased by losses carried forward and sums to be allocated to a reserve to be established by law or by these articles of incorporation.
- 4 Profits may be distributed after formation and adoption of the annual accounts showing that the distribution is permitted
- 5 The Company shall not receive dividends for shares which are held by itself

Appropriation of the result

Management proposes to charge the profit for the year ended 20 June 2014 to other reserves

Auditor's opinion

The Company avails itself of the possibility to be exempted from the obligation to have the annual report reviewed by an external auditor, as provided by art 2 396 6 Dutch Civil Code As a consequence thereof, no auditor's opinion is appended to the annual report
