- 4.1 The company is not obliged to recognise any interest in any share except an absolute right to the registered holder of that share.
- 4.2 The company may give notice to a member requiring that member to disclose whether they are holding their interest in the company for their own benefit or for the benefit of another person and if for the benefit of another person, the required details in respect of that person.
- 4.3 A member who receives a notice must comply with that notice within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice. If a member fails to provide the information required within the prescribed timeframe, the company may place such restrictions as it thinks fit on the rights attaching to the member's interest (including, without limitation, any right to transfer the interest, any voting rights, any right to further shares in respect of the shares which the member already holds or any right to payment due to the member's interest, whether in respect of capital or otherwise) or cancel the member's interest in the company.

5. COMPANY'S LIEN ON SHARES

- 5.1 The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall have a first lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all money payable by him or his estate to the company. The company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.
- 5.2 Subject to the provisions of the Law with respect to distributions, the Board may at any time either generally or in any particular case waive any lien that has arisen or declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of article 5.1.

6. ENFORCING LIEN BY SALE

- 6.1 The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any share on which the company has a lien provided that a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within 14 clear days of notice being given to the member in accordance with article 6.2.
- 6.2 Before exercising any right of sale under a lien the company must:
- (a) serve on the member a notice in writing demanding payment of any outstanding amount due and payable on the share within 14 clear days of the date of the notice, and
 - (b) the notice must state that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold at the discretion of the Board.

6.3 To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

6.4 The net proceeds of the sale under article 6.3 shall be applied by the company in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person against whom the lien is enforced.

7. CALLS ON SHARES

7.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the shares:

- (a) the Board may make calls upon the members in respect of any money unpaid on the shares held by the members and each member shall pay to the company as required by the notice the amount called upon his shares,
- (b) a call is only valid if the Board gives the members at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made,
- (c) at the absolute discretion of the Board a call may be postponed in whole or in part, and
- (d) a member on whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him regardless of any subsequent transfer of his shares.

7.2 A call is deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.

7.3 The Board may on an issue of shares differentiate between holders as to the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

7.4 Joint holders of shares are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of those shares.

7.5 The company may charge interest on any amount that remains unpaid from the day the call became due and payable until such time as the call is paid. That interest may be fixed by the terms of the issue of the share but if no amount is fixed then it shall be 10% per annum. The company may also charge the person obliged to pay the call any costs or expenses that have been incurred by the company due to that non-payment. The Board may, at its absolute discretion, waive payment of any interest or charges under this article 7.5.

7.6 The company may receive from any member in advance any amount uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by that member and may, until the date on which the amount becomes payable pursuant to a call, pay interest on the amount at a rate agreed between the Board and the member.

- 7.7 Where a call has not been paid within the time for payment, all rights and privileges attaching to that share, including the right to vote at any general meeting, are suspended until such time as the call and any interest and expenses (if any) are paid. The Board may, in its absolute discretion, waive any suspension of rights under this article 7.7.

8. FORFEITURE OF SHARES

- 8.1 If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the Board may exercise its right to declare the share forfeit.

- 8.2 Before exercising any right of forfeiture the Board must:

- (a) serve on the member a notice in writing (a "forfeiture notice") demanding payment of any outstanding amount due and payable on the share,
- (b) the notice must name a date not less than 14 clear days after the date of the notice at which time the call must be paid,
- (c) the notice must contain a statement that if the call is not paid by the date specified in the forfeiture notice, the Board may exercise a right to declare the share forfeit, and
- (d) the notice must state the place where payment is to be made and the accepted payment methods.

- 8.3 If the member does not comply with the forfeiture notice the Board may, by resolution, declare that the share is forfeit. That forfeiture shall include all dividends, distributions or other money payable in respect of the forfeited share (including any interest which may have accrued and any expenses which may have been incurred by the company in respect thereof). The forfeiture takes effect at the time of the declaration ("the date of forfeiture").

- 8.4 Subject to the requirements of the Law a forfeited share may be:

- (a) sold, re-allotted, or transferred to such person and on such terms and in such manner as the Board may determine,
- (b) cancelled, or
- (c) held as a treasury share.

- 8.5 The holder of a share that has been forfeited ceases to be a member in respect of that share and the member's name is deemed to have been removed from the register on the date of forfeiture. The holder of the share remains liable to the company for any calls made or payable on such shares on the date of forfeiture and associated interest and expenses.

- 8.6 A declaration in writing by a director or the secretary that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered on the date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and the declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer if necessary) constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share.

9. TRANSFERS AND REGISTRATION OF SHARES

- 9.1 A transfer of shares shall be made in any form which the Board may approve and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid, by or on behalf of the transferee.
- 9.2 Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the registered office of the company, or such other place as the Board may prescribe, with the certificate (if any) of every share to be transferred and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares.
- 9.3 The Board may refuse to register a transfer of shares or may refuse to register a transfer until such information as the Board may require has been provided. The Board is not obliged to provide any reasons for a refusal under this article.
- 9.4 If the Board refuses to register a transfer of shares it shall, within a period of 2 months after the date on which the Board resolved to refuse the transfer, send to the transferor a written notice of the refusal and return the instrument of transfer to the transferor.
- 9.5 The person transferring the shares remains the holder of the shares until the transfer is registered and the name of the person to whom they are being transferred is entered in the register in respect of the shares.
- 9.6 These articles are subject to, and do not limit or restrict the company's powers to transfer shares in accordance with, the Uncertificated Securities (Enabling Provisions) (Guernsey) Law, 2005 or the Uncertificated Securities (Guernsey) Regulations, 2009.

10. SUSPENSION OF SHARE TRANSFERS BY THE BOARD

- 10.1 The registration of transfers of shares may be suspended at such times and for such a period (not exceeding in aggregate 30 days in any calendar year) as the Board may determine.

11. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 11.1 If the Board elects to issue share certificates, within 2 months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide), every member shall be entitled to receive one certificate for all of his shares or, if the member so requests, several certificates each for one or more of his shares.

11.2 Every such certificate shall be signed in accordance with the common signature, shall specify the shares to which it relates, and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares jointly held by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

11.3 If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of the expenses of the company in connection with the matter and generally upon such terms as the Board shall think fit.

12. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

12.1 Subject to the provisions of section 290 of the Law, where a member dies and that member does not own shares jointly, then the company will recognise only the personal representative of the deceased shareholder as being entitled to the deceased member's interest in the shares. Where a member dies and that member owned shares jointly, the company will recognise only the surviving joint holder or holders as being entitled to the deceased member's interest in the shares.

12.2 Where a member becomes insolvent, has his affairs declared en désastre or has a preliminary vesting order made against his Guernsey realty, becomes bankrupt, suspends payments or compounds with creditors, or is adjudged insolvent the Board shall not be obliged to register the transfer of the share to the person entitled to the shares until that person provides to the Board such information as the Board may reasonably require to establish that person's entitlement to the shares. The person so entitled may:

- (a) elect to be registered as the holder of the shares, or
- (b) subject to the Law and these articles, choose to transfer the shares to another person by giving a completed transfer form to the company.

13. DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

13.1 The Board may declare and pay such dividends as it thinks fit, provided that the Board complies with Section 304 of the Law or, to the extent such section is repealed, any other section of the Law governing the payment of dividends; and

13.2 The Board may authorise a distribution other than dividends as it thinks fit, provided that the Board complies with Section 303 of the Law or, to the extent such section is repealed, any other section of the Law governing the declaration of distributions.

13.3 Subject to the rights attaching to each share, the company is not liable to pay interest or any other penalty on any dividends or distributions paid by the company.

13.4 The Board may deduct from any dividend or distribution any sum of money which may be due from that member as a result of any unpaid call on the share, or any other debt due and owing from the member to the company.

13.5 Any dividend or distribution which has remained unclaimed for 10 years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the directors so resolve, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the company.

13.6 The Board may issue shares in lieu of dividends in accordance with section 306 of the Law.

14. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

14.1 The company shall have at least one director and may have as many directors as the shareholders by ordinary resolution approve.

14.2 If for any reason whatsoever including death, resignation, removal or unavailability, the office of a director becomes vacant or is deemed vacant pursuant to article 14.3 below, or an additional director is to be appointed to the Board, the Board may appoint as a director a person who is willing to act and who, in the opinion of the Board, is an appropriate person to be appointed.

14.3 The office of a director shall be deemed vacant if:

- (a) he has been absent, without permission, from Board meetings for more than 6 months,
- (b) he becomes otherwise ineligible or incapable of continuing to act as a director for whatever reason,
- (c) he has had his affairs declared en désastre or has a preliminary vesting order made against his Guernsey realty, becomes bankrupt, suspends payments or compounds with creditors, or is adjudged insolvent,
- (d) he is requested to resign in writing signed by all the other directors of the company (being not less than two in number), or
- (e) the members by ordinary resolution declare that he shall cease to be a director.

14.4 A director (other than an alternate director) may appoint an alternate to exercise some or all of his powers as a director for either an indefinite or a specified period. The appointment of an alternate director must be in writing and a copy of the appointment must be given to the company. The appointment may be terminated at any time by instrument in writing signed by the appointing director a copy of which must be given to the company. The company shall give the alternate director notice of Board meetings if requested to do so by the appointing director. Where an alternate director exercises the appointing director's powers the exercise is as effective as if the powers were exercised by the director. An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate if the director who appointed him ceases to be a director.

15. REMUNERATION AND EXPENSES

- 15.1 The members shall by ordinary resolution specify the directors' (and where appointed the secretary's) remuneration.
- 15.2 Each director may be paid all expenses properly incurred in connection with the discharge of his duties as a director.
- 15.3 An alternate director is entitled to be paid any expenses properly incurred in connection with the discharge of his duties as an alternate director including any fees agreed to be paid. An alternate director is not entitled to be otherwise remunerated unless the members approve such remuneration by ordinary resolution.

16. DELEGATION OF POWERS

- 16.1 The Board may delegate to a committee consisting of one or more directors, any managing director, or any person holding an executive office of the company, such of its powers as the Board considers appropriate and desirable to be exercised by such committee or officer. Any such delegation may be made on such conditions, revoked, altered, or otherwise varied as the Board thinks fit.

17. APPOINTMENT OF AGENT

- 17.1 The Board may appoint any person (including any officer or employee of the company) to act as the agent of the company for such purpose and on such conditions as it determines, including the authority for the agent to execute documents on behalf of the company or delegate all or any of his powers.

18. POWER OF ATTORNEY

- 18.1 Subject to the Law, the Board may from time to time (and at any time) by power of attorney appoint any person, firm, or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board, to be the attorney of the company for such purpose and with such of the Board's powers, authorities and discretion and for such period and subject to such conditions as it may think fit, and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Board may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion vested in him.
- 18.2 A power of attorney given by the company shall be valid if executed by the company under the common signature of the company.

19. SECRETARY

- 19.1 The members may (but are not obliged to) appoint a company secretary by ordinary resolution. For the avoidance of doubt, the members may appoint one of the directors as company secretary or appoint a person who is not a director as the company secretary.
- 19.2 Where the members do not choose to appoint a secretary the directors may (but are not obliged to) appoint one of their number to act as both a director and company secretary or a person who is not a director and is willing to act as the secretary and, in the opinion of the Board is an appropriate person to be appointed as a secretary, to act as the company secretary.

19.3 The functions of the company secretary are those listed in section 171 (a) – (e) of the Law and the company secretary has a duty to take reasonable steps to ensure these are carried out.

19.4 The company secretary may be removed in accordance with article 14.3 as if the company secretary were a director.

20. INDEMNITY

20.1 The directors, secretary and other officers or employees of the company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the company to the fullest extent permitted by the Law from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them may incur or sustain by reason of any contract entered into or any act done, concurred in or omitted, in or about the execution of their duty or supposed duty or in relation thereto.

20.2 An alternate director is entitled to be indemnified under this clause as if he were a director.

20.3 The directors may without the sanction of the company in general meeting authorise the purchase or maintenance by the company for any officer or former officer of the company of any insurance which is permitted by the Law in respect of any liability which would otherwise attach to such officer or former officer.

21. BOARD MEETINGS

21.1 The directors may regulate their proceedings as they think fit and may determine amongst themselves any matter relating to the proceedings of Board meetings including:

- (a) the number and frequency of meetings,
- (b) the quorum required for the holding of meetings,
- (c) the appointment and removal of a Chairman of the Board, and
- (d) the establishment of committees of the Board.

21.2 Unless the directors otherwise resolve under article 21.1(b) the quorum for a Board meeting shall be two directors unless the company has a single director. In that case the single director alone is deemed to be a quorum.

21.3 Where a director and his alternate director are present, the alternate director shall not be counted as part of any quorum nor shall he be entitled to vote.

21.4 Questions arising at any Board meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. Each director is entitled to cast a single vote. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

21.5 The Board may pass a resolution without convening a Board meeting if all directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign and date a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document (a "circulating resolution"). The circulating resolution may be executed by each director in counterpart. The circulating resolution is passed when the last director entitled to vote signs the circulating resolution.

22. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

22.1 A director must, immediately after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction or proposed transaction with the company, disclose to the Board the nature and extent of his interest.

22.2 article 22.1 shall not apply if:

- (a) the transaction or proposed transaction is between the director and the company; and
- (b) the transaction or proposed transaction is or is to be entered into in the ordinary course of the company's business and on usual terms and conditions.

22.3 A general disclosure to the Board to the effect that a director has an interest (as director, officer, employee, member or otherwise) in a party and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may after the date of the disclosure be entered into with that party is sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.

22.4 Nothing in articles 22.1 to 22.3 above applies in relation to:

- (a) remuneration or other benefit given to a director;
- (b) insurance purchased or maintained for a director in accordance with Section 158 of the Law; or
- (c) qualifying third party indemnity provision provided for a director in accordance with Section 159 of the Law.

22.5 A director who is interested in a transaction entered into, or to be entered into, by the company, may:

- (a) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;
- (b) attend a meeting of directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the directors present at the meeting for the purpose of a quorum;

- (c) sign a document relating to the transaction on behalf of the company; and
- (d) do any other thing in his capacity as a director in relation to the transaction, as if the director were not interested in the transaction.

22.6 Subject to article 22.7, a director of the company is interested in a transaction to which the company is a party if the director:

- (a) is a party to, or may derive a material benefit from, the transaction;
- (b) has a material financial interest in another party to the transaction;
- (c) is a director, officer, employee or member of another party (other than a party which is an associated company) who may derive a material financial benefit from the transaction;
- (d) is the parent, child or spouse of another party who may derive a material financial benefit from the transaction; or
- (e) is otherwise directly or indirectly materially interested in the transaction.

22.7 A director is not interested in a transaction to which the company is a party if the transaction comprises only the giving by the company of security to a third party which has no connection with the director, at the request of the third party, in respect of a debt or obligation of the company for which the director or another person has personally assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee, indemnity or security.

22.8 A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the company (other than Auditor) in conjunction with his office of director on such terms and for such period as the Board may determine. No director or intending director shall be disqualified by his office contracting with the company as vendor, purchaser or otherwise nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the company in which any director is in any way interested be liable to be avoided nor shall any such contracting director be liable to account to the company for any profits realised by any such contract or arrangement of such director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established.

22.9 Any director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the company (other than as Auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director.

22.10 Any director may continue to be or become a director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any company in which the company may be interested and (unless otherwise agreed) no such director shall be accountable to the company for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as director, managing director, manager or other officer or member of any such other company.

23. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 23.1 A general meeting of the company (other than an adjourned meeting) must be called by notice of at least 10 days or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Law from time to time. A general meeting may be called by shorter notice than otherwise required if all of the members entitled to attend and vote so agree.
- 23.2 Notice of a meeting may be sent in electronic form or published on a website in accordance with section 208 and Schedule 3 to the Law.
- 23.3 Notice of a general meeting of the company must be sent to:
- (a) every member; and
 - (b) every director.
- 23.4 Notice of a general meeting of the company must:
- (a) state the time and date of the meeting;
 - (b) state the place of the meeting;
 - (c) contain any information required under section 176(6) in respect of an ordinary resolution which is to be proposed at the meeting;
 - (d) contain any information required under section 178(6)(a) in respect of a resolution which is to be proposed as a special resolution at the meeting;
 - (e) contain any information required under section 179(6)(a) in respect of a resolution which is to be proposed as a waiver resolution at the meeting;
 - (f) contain any information required under section 180(3)(a) in respect of a resolution which is to be proposed as a unanimous resolution at the meeting; and
 - (g) state the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting.
- 23.5 In every notice calling a meeting of the company, there must appear a statement informing the member of:
- (a) his rights to appoint a proxy under these articles and section 222 of the Law; and
 - (b) the right to appoint more than one proxy.
- 23.6 A member present, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the company or of the holders of any class of shares in the company is deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purpose for which it was called.

24. EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

- 24.1 All general meetings save those called under section 199 of the Law shall be called "Extraordinary General Meetings".

25. GENERAL MEETINGS

- 25.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present. The quorum for a general meeting shall be:

- (a) if the company only has one member, one qualifying person present at the meeting; or
- (b) in any other case, two qualifying persons holding 5% of the total voting rights of the company between them.

For the purposes of these articles, a "qualifying person" means (i) a person who is a member of the company or (ii) a person appointed as proxy of the member in relation to the meeting.

- 25.2 If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. If otherwise convened, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or such day, time and place as the Chairman may determine and, if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within five minutes from the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, those members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

- 25.3 A member participating by telephone or other communication, so that each member participating in the communication can hear or read what is said or communicated by the others, shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and shall be counted in a quorum and entitled to vote. Such meeting shall be treated as a validly held meeting of the members and shall be deemed to have been held in the place where the Chairman is present.

- 25.4 The chairman of any general meeting shall be either:

- (a) the chairman of the Board,
- (b) in the absence of the chairman, or if the Board has no chairman, then the Board shall nominate one of their number to preside as chairman,
- (c) if neither the chairman of the Board nor the nominated director are present at the meeting then the directors present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be the chairman,
- (d) if only one director is present at the meeting then he shall be chairman of the general meeting, or

- (e) If no directors are present at the meeting then the members present shall elect a chairman for the meeting by an ordinary resolution.

25.5 The Chairman of the general meeting shall conduct the meeting in such a manner as he thinks fit and may adjourn the meeting from time to time from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. In addition the Chairman may limit the time for members to speak.

25.6 A director of the company shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the company regardless of whether that director is a member of the company or of the relevant class of shares.

25.7 The Board may determine that a list of the names and addresses of all members shall not be available for inspection at meetings of the company.

26. ELECTION AND POWERS OF CHAIRMAN

26.1 The Chairman of any general meeting shall be either:

- (a) the Chairman of the Board,
- (b) in the absence of the Chairman, or if the Board has no Chairman, then the Board shall nominate one of their number to preside as Chairman,
- (c) if neither the Chairman of the Board nor the nominated director are present at the meeting then the directors present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be the Chairman,
- (d) if only one director is present at the meeting then he shall be Chairman of the general meeting, or
- (e) if no directors are present at the meeting then the members present shall elect a Chairman for the meeting by an ordinary resolution.

26.2 The Chairman of the general meeting shall conduct the meeting in such a manner as he thinks fit and may adjourn the meeting from time to time from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. In addition the Chairman may limit the time for members to speak.

27. RIGHT OF DIRECTORS TO SPEAK

27.1 A director of the company shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the company regardless of whether that director is a member of the company or of the relevant class of shares.

28. VOTING AND POLLS

- 28.1 A quorum of members shall be that number of members set out in section 213 of the Law save as provided in article 25.1.
- 28.2 Unless the Board directs otherwise, the rights of a member to vote at a general meeting are suspended if that member has failed to pay any sum due and owing on his share whether that sum is due as a result of a failure to pay a call or otherwise.
- 28.3 Voting on any resolution proposed at a general meeting shall be done on the basis of a show of hands unless a poll is demanded. Where a member is participating in a general meeting under section 217 of the Law, the Chairman shall determine how that member's vote on a show of hands shall be counted.
- 28.4 A poll may be demanded in accordance with section 216 of the Law and may be demanded by:
- (a) the Chairman,
 - (b) at least two members having the right to vote on the resolution, or
 - (c) a member or members representing not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all members having the right to vote on the resolution.
- 28.5 Subject to the provisions of the Law a poll shall be taken as the Chairman directs and he may:
- (a) appoint scrutineers (who need not be members),
 - (b) fix a time and place for the poll and for the declaration of the results of the poll provided that neither shall take place any later than 30 days following the general meeting, and
 - (c) if necessary adjourn the general meeting to enable a poll to be organised.
- 28.6 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other questions shall be taken either immediately or at such day, time and place as the Chairman directs, not being more than 30 days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 28.7 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the day, time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the day time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

29. PROXIES

29.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, executed by or on behalf of the member and shall be in the form approved by the Board. The Board may resolve to permit instruments appointing proxies to be received by facsimile or email.

29.2 An instrument appointing a proxy is only valid if it is:

- (a) sent to the company's registered office, or
- (b) sent by facsimile to the telephone number nominated by the Board if the Board resolves to accept proxy appointments by facsimile, or
- (c) sent by email to the email address nominated by the company if the Board resolves to accept proxy appointments by email.

29.3 If the Board resolves under article 29.2(b) or (c) to accept proxy appointments by facsimile or email then the notice of general meeting must contain the nominated facsimile number and email address.

30. BODIES CORPORATE ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES

30.1 Any body corporate which is a member of the company may appoint such other person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the company or of any class of members of the company and exercise the member's powers accordingly.

31. NOTICE

31.1 A notice or other communication may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by prepaid post addressed to such member at his registered address (or, subject to article 31.2, in electronic form) or if he desires that notices shall be sent to some other address or person to the address or person nominated for such purpose.

31.2 All members are deemed to have agreed to accept communication from the company by electronic means unless the members notify the company otherwise. Notice under this article 31.2 must be in writing and signed by the member and delivered to the company's registered office or such other place as the Board directs.

31.3 Any notice or other document, if served by post (including registered post, recorded delivery service or ordinary letter post), shall be deemed to have been served on the second day after the day on which such notice or document was posted to an address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and, in any other case, on the third day after the day of posting, excluding in each case any day which is not a working day, provided that, if at any time the Law provides for any different period of deemed service, the latter shall apply in place of the relevant period set out in this article 31.3.

31.4 Service of a document sent by post shall be proved by showing the date of posting, the address thereon and the fact of prepayment.

- 31.5 Any notice or other document, if transmitted by electronic communication, facsimile transmission or other similar means which produce or enable the production of a document containing the text of the communication, shall be regarded as served immediately after it was transmitted, unless the contrary is shown.
- 31.6 A notice may be given by the company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the Register in respect of the share.
- 31.7 Any notice or other communication sent to the address of any member shall, notwithstanding the death, disability or insolvency of such member and whether the company has notice thereof, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any share registered in the name of such member as sole or joint holder and such service shall, for all purposes, be deemed a sufficient service of such notice of document on all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in any such share.
- 31.8 Every person who becomes entitled to a share shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share which, before his name is entered in the register of members, has been duly given to a person from which he derives his title.

32. OMISSION OR NON-RECEIPT OF NOTICE

- 32.1 The accidental failure to provide notice of a meeting, or to send any other document, to a person entitled to receive such notice or document shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting or call into question the validity of any actions, resolutions or decisions taken.

33. COMMON SIGNATURE

- 33.1 The common signature of the company may be either:
- (a) the registered name of the company with the addition of the signature(s) of one or more officer(s) of the company authorised generally or specifically by the Board for such purpose, or such other person or persons as the Board may from time to time appoint, or
 - (b) if the Board resolves that the company shall have a common seal, the common seal of the company affixed in such manner as these articles may from time to time provide.

34. SEAL

- 34.1 If the Board elects to have a common seal, the Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal which shall only be used pursuant to a resolution passed at a meeting of the Board and every instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed in accordance with part (a) of the common signature as set out in article 33.1.
