Strategic report

The directors present their strategic report for the year ended 30 June 2023.

Principal activities

The company is engaged in the bottling and canning of alcoholic beverages. The directors consider both the results for the year and trading prospects are satisfactory.

Business review

Development and performance of the business of the company during the financial year and position of the company as at 30 June 2023

The development and performance of the business of the company was, for the year ended 30 June 2023, entirely dependent on the respective demands of the Diageo subsidiaries with whom it trades.

The company's main customer is Diageo Ireland, so it is indirectly mainly impacted by the consumer environment in the island of Ireland.

The company's activities are remunerated on a cost-plus basis resulting in turnover dependent on the operating costs incurred during the financial year.

Financial and other key performance indicators

Turnover increased compared to the previous year by 18% while the cost of sales increased by 17%. Turnover is determined by cost-plus basis.

Total assets increased by 15%, £8.5 million from £58.2 million in 2022 to £66.7 million in 2023, primarily driven by increase of property, plant and equipment by £15 million from £27.4 million in 2022 to £42.4 million in 2023. Trade and other receivables decreased by 20%, £5.3 million in 2023, due to decrease of amounts owed by fellow group undertakings.

Liabilities in total increased by 24%, £6 million from £25.5 million in 2022 to £31.5 million in 2023, mainly due to increase of deferred tax liabilities by £4.3 million and increase of trade and other payables by £1.4 million.

The company's net assets increased by 7%, £2.4 million from £32.7 million in 2022 to £35.1 million in 2023.

Principal and financial risks and uncertainties facing the company as at 30 June 2023

The principal risks identified by the group are disclosed on pages 88 to 93 of Diageo plc's 2023 Annual Report. The most relevant of the group risks to this entity are the ones we have selected and articulated below, together with specific considerations relating to the company's operations and environment. If any of these risks occur, the company's business, financial condition and operational results could suffer. As the company forms part of the group's financial operations, the financial risk management measures used by management to analyse the development, performance and position of the company's business are mainly similar to those facing the group as a whole. The directors consider that the following risks might impact the performance and the solvency or liquidity of the company through its intercompany financing structure.

Geopolitical and macroeconomic volatility

Geopolitical forces, primarily driven by the Russia / Ukraine conflict, coupled with macro-economic stress, increase the likelihood of international and domestic tensions, disputes and conflict that might impact the business. Macroeconomic conditions include inflationary pressures, unemployment and global trade tensions. Financial volatility risk could arise from variability in financial markets, interest rate fluctuations and currency instability. Failure to react quickly enough to changing economic and/or political conditions, e.g. inflationary pressures, currency instability, global trade tensions, heightened political protectionism, changes to customs duties and tariffs, and/or eroded consumer confidence, may impact on the freedom to operate in a market and could adversely impact financial performance. The group monitors key business drivers and performance, to prepare for rapid changes in the external environment and there is an enhanced group-level strategic analysis and scenario planning to strengthen market strategies and risk management.

The group has continued to improve long-term forecasting and planning capabilities, to better assess and respond to long-term opportunities and risks. The group has introduced a new strategic planning and performance function with a stronger governance model for financial and non-financial decision-making, which will enable closer monitoring of external volatility/risk and multi-country investment strategy with a central hedging and currency monitoring to manage volatility.

During the year ended 30 June 2023, the group introduced advanced analytics to scenario plan volume ranges over a longer time period, allowing better mitigation against changes in the external landscape. Scenario-planning has been embedded into Executive and Board meetings and integrated into the strategic planning cycle. Inflation has remained high and has reduced more slowly than expected in many countries. High levels of inflation are expected to continue in the short to medium term. Foreign exchange volatility has increased across several markets. There are dedicated cross-functional steering groups to manage acute issues including inflation and foreign exchange volatility.

Cyber and IT resilience

Cyber-attacks are becoming more prevalent, and there is an increased dependency on third-party IT services and solutions. As geopolitical tensions are growing, there is a rise in more sophisticated cyber threats affecting all organisations, therefore the risk of a cyber-attack is heightened.

The group has strong enterprise-wide cyber risk management processes and policies and next generation security technologies to tackle advanced attacks. There is an IT and Operations Technology (“OT”) disaster recovery and business continuity testing across the key systems. The group continues to enhance and deploy next generation security technologies to tackle advanced attacks and upgrade the enterprise resource planning system and associated processes to ensure they remain resilient.

Climate risk

Physical and transition climate change risks, including water stress, extreme weather events, temperature rises and increased regulation, may result in increased volatility in the supply of raw materials, production costs, capacity constraints and higher costs of compliance. In addition, the failure to meet sustainability goals could result in loss of licence to operate, financial loss and reputational damage amongst customers, consumers, investors and other stakeholders.

The group conducted a detailed climate change risk assessment (CCRA) and scenario analysis to evaluate short- and long-term impacts from physical and transition risks. The group operates a cross-functional Climate Risk Steering Group that sets the strategy for ongoing climate risk assessment, and manages associated opportunities and risks, while continuing to develop the approach to climate change risk reporting. CCRA review found that, with respect to the group, risks related to acute weather events, high temperature, water stress, rising sea level hazards are projected to significantly increase in the future and cause interruption to operations, however they are unlikely to have a significant financial impact on the group.

Resource-scarcity issues have been identified and mitigated, especially within agricultural ingredient sourcing, and manufacturing, water and energy. Physical risk exposures have been identified for sites assessed in North America and Scotland, Africa, Mexico, India, Turkey Latin America and Caribbean, Asia Pacific, and Europe, and being built into site and category risk footprints. ‘Society 2030: Spirit of Progress’ ambition was launched in 2022 that continued to deliver against key targets and longer-term goals. (Details are disclosed on pages 57-60 of Diageo plc’s Annual Report). Water blueprint was defined and operationalised in water-stressed locations. Communication programmes are in place to share impact, strengthen reputation and support advocacy platform. Carbon pricing is being assessed as an internal mechanism to drive deeper understanding of the impact of energy choices. The group TCFD modelling and mitigation plans incorporate the risk of a 4-5°C climate change scenario, which may arise as a result of collective climate action failure.

The group have further increased resource dedicated to the mitigation of climate impact within our sustainability, sourcing, and finance teams.

Further information on the group's risk assessment and risk management measures in relation to climate change is disclosed on pages 71-87 of Diageo plc's 2023 Annual Report.

Financial risk management

The company’s funding, liquidity and exposure to foreign exchange rate risk are similar to those facing the Diageo group (“the group”) as a whole and are managed by the group’s treasury department. The treasury department uses a range of financial instruments to manage these underlying risks.

Currency risk

The company publishes its financial statements in sterling and conducts some of its business in foreign currencies. As a result, it is subject to foreign currency exchange rate risk due to exchange rate movements, which will affect the company’s transactions.

Liquidity risk

In order to maintain liquidity to ensure that sufficient funds are available for ongoing operations and future developments, the company has access to group funding.

Credit risk

The company's credit risk is primarily attributable to fellow group undertakings. The amounts presented in the balance sheet are net of allowances for doubtful receivables. The company sets credit limits for, and monitors its exposure to, its counterparties via their credit ratings (where applicable).

Statement on Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006

Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006 requires the directors to promote the success of the company for the benefit of the members as a whole, having regard to the interests of stakeholders in their decision making. In making decisions, the directors consider what is most likely to promote the success of the company for its shareholders in the long term, as well as the interests of the group's stakeholders. The directors understand the importance of taking into account the views of stakeholders and the impact of the company's activities on local communities, the environment, including climate change, and the group's reputation.

The company is a member of the group of companies (the "group") whose ultimate holding company is Diageo plc ("Diageo"). In accordance with the requirements of UK company law, the company has included in its Annual report and financial statements on page 9 a statement as to how the directors of the company have had regard to the matters set out in Section 172 of the Companies Act 2006.

In order to ensure consistency in how the group operates with regard to its wider stakeholders, the group has adopted an internal Code of Business Conduct alongside a comprehensive framework of global policies and standards that are designed to ensure, amongst other things, that all companies throughout the group, including the company, have regard to its wider stakeholders in a consistent manner.

The company has therefore had regard to the matters set out in Section 172 of the Act in a manner that is consistent with the approach adopted by Diageo, while at the same time ensuring the directors of the company are fulfilling their duties.

Directors' report

The directors are pleased to submit their annual report, together with the audited financial statements for the financial year ended 30 June 2023.

Future developments

The company does not foresee any major changes in the operation of the business.

Going concern

The company's business activities, together with the factors likely to affect its future development and position, are set out in the strategic report on pages 2-6. The company is engaged in the bottling and canning of alcoholic beverages. The company's main customer is Diageo Ireland. The production is entirely dependent on the respective demands of the Diageo subsidiary with whom the company trades. The company's activities are remunerated on a cost-plus basis resulting in the turnover dependent on the operating costs incurred during the financial year. Based on that the company is expected to continue to generate profit on its own account and to remain in a positive net asset position for the foreseeable future. The company participates in the group's centralised treasury arrangements. The directors have no reason to believe that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern. On the basis of their assessment, the company's directors have a reasonable expectation that the company will be able to continue in operational existence for a period of at least 12 months from the date the financial statements are approved and signed. The directors have also considered the going concern of Diageo Ireland in making their going concern assessment of the company. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

Decisions taken by Directors, and by the Company's executive management team, are informed by the interests of its wider stakeholders, including suppliers, customers and others in a business relationship with the Company, as guided by, amongst other things, the Code of Business Conduct and framework of policies and standards, as well as reviews, reports and proposals presented to the Board or executive management team for approval.

All supplier related activity is managed in line with the Group's Partnering with Suppliers Standard which is adhered to by the Company. The Company ensures that by working with suppliers, we not only deliver high-quality products marketed responsibly, but improve our collective impact, ensuring sustainable supply chains, reducing our environmental impact and making positive contributions to society.

The Board considers that it is important that the Group remains a trusted partner for suppliers, with the relationship enhanced through fair contract and payment terms and through compliance with the Group's Partnering with Suppliers Standard. Other methods used by the Company to ensure that it responds to the needs of its suppliers include direct resolution processes, access to a confidential, independent whistleblowing helpline and website, regional supplier awards, supplier financing, supplier performance measurement and reviews with two-way feedback, standards assessments through independent bodies.

In relation to the Company's customers and indirectly its consumers, the Board believes that the business of the Company can only be sustained by a deep understanding of its customer base, both large and small, on-trade and off-trade, digital and e-commerce, their behaviours and motivations. The Board aims to ensure the Company nurtures mutually beneficial relationships that deliver joint value and the best outcome for all its customers and indirectly its consumers. Consistent with the Group's processes, the Company uses a variety of ways to ensure that these business relationships are maintained including through a broad portfolio of choices across categories and price points, best practice sales analytics and technology to support distributors and retail, ongoing dialogue and account management support, physical and virtual sales calls, development of joint business plans, regular business updates, training, webinars and unique offerings such as the Diageo Bar Academy, and the provision of responsible advertising tools and materials in compliance with the Diageo Marketing Code.

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have prepared the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards, comprising FRS 101 "Reduced Disclosure Framework", and applicable law).

Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- state whether applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards, comprising FRS 101, have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent auditors' report to the members of Diageo Global Supply IBC Limited

Report on the audit of the financial statements

Opinion

In our opinion, Diageo Global Supply IBC Limited's financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 June 2023 and of its profit for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards, comprising FRS 101 "Reduced Disclosure Framework", and applicable law); and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

We have audited the financial statements, included within the Annual Report and Financial Statements, which comprise:

- the balance sheet as at 30 June 2023;
  - the statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
  - the statement of changes in equity for the year then ended; and
  - the notes to the financial statements, which include a description of the significant accounting policies.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) ("ISAs (UK)") and applicable law. Our responsibilities under ISAs (UK) are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We remained independent of the company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, which includes the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

Conclusions relating to going concern

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

However, because not all future events or conditions can be predicted, this conclusion is not a guarantee as to the company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Reporting on other information

The other information comprises all of the information in the Annual Report and Financial Statements other than the financial statements and our auditors' report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion or, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in this report, any form of assurance thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify an apparent material inconsistency or material misstatement, we are required to perform procedures to conclude whether there is a material misstatement of the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report based on these responsibilities.

With respect to the Strategic report and Directors' Report, we also considered whether the disclosures required by the UK Companies Act 2006 have been included.

Based on our work undertaken in the course of the audit, the Companies Act 2006 requires us also to report certain opinions and matters as described below.

Strategic report and Directors' Report

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit, the information given in the Strategic report and Directors' Report for the year ended 30 June 2023 is consistent with the financial statements and has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we did not identify any material misstatements in the Strategic report and Directors' Report.

Responsibilities for the financial statements and the audit

Responsibilities of the directors for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable framework and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. The directors are also responsible for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Our audit testing might include testing complete populations of certain transactions and balances, possibly using data auditing techniques. However, it typically involves selecting a limited number of items for testing, rather than testing complete populations. We will often seek to target particular items for testing based on their size or risk characteristics. In other cases, we will use audit sampling to enable us to draw a conclusion about the population from which the sample is selected.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud, is detailed below.

Based on our understanding of the company and industry, we identified that the principal risks of non-compliance with laws and regulations related to:

- laws and regulations that have a direct effect on the determination of material amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, including United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, the Companies Act 2006 and taxation legislation; and
- those laws and regulations which do not have a direct effect on the determination of material amounts and disclosures in the financial statements but where the consequences of non-compliance could have a material effect on amounts or disclosures in the financial statements, for instance through the imposition of fines or litigation. We identified the following areas as those most likely to have such an effect: data protection, health & safety legislation, food safety & hygiene legislation and certain aspects of company legislation and we considered the extent to which non-compliance might have a material effect on the financial statements. Auditing standards limit the required audit procedures to identify non-compliance with these laws and regulations to enquiry of the directors and other management and inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any. Therefore, if a breach of operational regulations is not disclosed to us or evident from relevant correspondence, an audit will not detect that breach.

We evaluated management's incentives and opportunities for fraudulent manipulation of the financial statements (including the risk of override of controls), and determined that the principal risks were related to management bias in accounting estimates and the posting of fraudulent journal entries. Audit procedures performed by the engagement team included:

- Consideration of fraud risk as part of our audit planning process;
- Identification of potential risk factors through consideration of the company's business strategies and risks. This includes meetings with management as well as the those charged with governance and staff regarding their perspectives on fraud and compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- Evaluation of the company's programs and controls designed to address fraud risk;
- Responding to the risk identified by designing appropriate audit procedures;
- Maintaining professional scepticism throughout the audit;
- Implementing specific procedures to address risks associated with the management override of controls, including close examination of journal entries and other adjustments, accounting estimates, identifying indicators of possible management bias and significant unusual transactions;
- Incorporating unpredictability into our audit process;
- Implementing specific procedures to address risks associated with non-compliance with laws and regulations; and
- Careful evaluation of the amount and quality of audit evidence obtained at all stages of the audit.

There are inherent limitations in the audit procedures described above. We are less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations that are not closely related to events and transactions reflected in the financial statements. Also, the risk of not detecting a material misstatement due to fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting one resulting from error, as fraud may involve deliberate concealment by, for example, forgery or intentional misrepresentations, or through collusion.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the FRC's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditors' report.

Use of this report

This report, including the opinions, has been prepared for and only for the company's members as a body in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and for no other purpose. We do not, in giving these opinions, accept or assume responsibility for any other purpose or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come save where expressly agreed by our prior consent in writing.

Other required reporting

- adequate accounting records have not been kept by the company, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or

In preparing these financial statements, the company applies the recognition, measurement and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the EU (IFRS), but makes amendments where necessary in order to comply with Companies Act 2006 and sets out below where the FRS 101 disclosure exemptions have been taken.

These financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention, except that certain financial instruments are stated at their fair value.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with FRS 101 requires the use of certain accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the company's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in the 'Critical accounting estimates and assumptions' paragraph of this note.

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Diageo plc and is included in the consolidated financial statements of Diageo plc which are publicly available.

The following amendments to the accounting standards, issued by the IASB and endorsed by the UK and EU, have been adopted by the group and therefore by the company from 1 July 2022 with no impact on the company's results, financial position or disclosures:

Going concern

The company's business activities, together with the factors likely to affect its future development and position, are set out in the strategic report on pages 2-6. The company is engaged in the bottling and canning of alcoholic beverages, its main customer is Diageo Ireland. The production is entirely dependent on the respective demands of the Diageo subsidiary with whom the company trades. The company's activities are remunerated on a cost-plus basis resulting in the turnover dependent on the operating costs incurred during the financial year. Based on that the company is expected to continue to generate profit on its own account and to remain in a positive net asset position for the foreseeable future. The company participates in the group's centralised treasury arrangements. The directors have no reason to believe that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern. On the basis of their assessment, the company's directors have a reasonable expectation that the company will be able to continue in operational existence for a period of at least 12 months from the date the financial statements are approved and signed. The directors have also considered the going concern of Diageo Ireland in making their going concern assessment of the company. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

Turnover

Turnover comprises income from the sale of goods and services. Revenue from the sale of goods includes excise and other duties which the company pays as principal but excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties, such as value added tax. Turnover is recognised as or when performance obligations are satisfied by transferring control of a good or service to a customer. The transfer of control of goods occurs on delivery. Provision is made for returns where appropriate. Sales are stated net of price discounts. Generally, payment of the transaction price is due within credit terms that are consistent with industry practices, with no element of financing.

Pensions and other post employment benefits

The employees of the company are members of the Diageo UK pension plans, which are defined benefit schemes.

It is not possible to allocate the assets and liabilities of the pension plans on a consistent and reasonable basis between individual companies and therefore the company accounts for the plans as defined contribution schemes. Contributions payable in respect of the pension plans in respect of leave in employees are charged to operating profit as incurred. The assets and liabilities of the pension plans are reported by the sponsoring employer, Diageo plc.

Financial assets and liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are initially recorded at fair value including, where permitted by IFRS 9, any directly attributable transaction costs. For those financial assets that are not subsequently held at fair value, the company assesses whether there is evidence of impairment at each balance sheet date. The company classifies its financial assets and liabilities into the following categories: financial assets and liabilities at amortised cost, financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit and loss and financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Trade and other receivables are initially recognised at fair value less transaction costs and subsequently carried at amortised costs less any allowance for discounts and doubtful debts. Trade receivables arise from contracts with customers, and are recognised when performance obligations are satisfied, and the consideration due is unconditional as only a passage of time is required before payment is received. Allowance losses are calculated by reviewing lifetime expected credit losses using historical and forward-looking data on credit risk.

Amounts owed by other group companies are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently reported at amortised cost. Allowance for expected credit losses are made based on the risk of non-payment taking into account ageing, previous experience, economic conditions and forward-looking data. Such allowance is measured as either 12-months expected credit losses or lifetime expected credit losses depending on changes in the credit quality of the counterparty.

Cash and cash equivalents Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand and deposits which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value and have an original maturity of three months or less at acquisition, including money market deposits, commercial paper and investments.

Trade and other payables are interest free and are stated at their nominal value.

Amounts owed to other group companies are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently reported at amortised cost. Interest free trade payables are stated at their nominal value as they are due on demand.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less depreciation.

Land and buildings are stated at cost less depreciation.

Returnable packaging represents assets (kegs, bottles and crates) that are expected to be used multiple times across more than one financial year.

Assets under construction include costs incurred on all fixed assets that have not yet been completed and have not yet started to be depreciated. Assets under construction are transferred to other fixed assets categories upon completion and at that point depreciation is started in accordance with the Group Accounting Policy.

Freehold land is not depreciated. Right-of-use assets are depreciated over the term of the lease. Other property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis to estimated residual values over their expected useful lives, and these values and lives are reviewed each year. Subject to these reviews, the estimated useful lives fall within the following ranges:

Buildings	10 to 50 years
Plant and equipment	5 to 25 years
Returnable Packaging	5 to 10 years

Reviews are carried out if there is an indication that assets may be impaired, to ensure that property, plant and equipment are not carried at above their recoverable amounts. Profit or loss on the sale of a property is the difference between the disposal proceeds and the net book value.

Leases

Where the company is the lessee, all leases are recognised on the balance sheet as right of use assets and depreciated on a straight-line basis with the charge recognised in cost of sales. The liability, recognised as part of net borrowings, is measured at a discounted value and any interest is charged to finance charges. The company recognises services associated with a lease as other operating expenses. Payments associated with leases where the value of the asset when it is new is lower than $5,000 (leases of low value assets) and leases with a lease term of twelve months or less (short term leases) are recognised as other operating expenses.

A judgement in calculating the lease liability at initial recognition includes determining the lease term where extension or termination options exist. In such instances any economic incentive to retain or end a lease are considered and extension periods are only included when it is considered reasonably certain that an option to extend a lease will be exercised.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes raw materials, direct labour and expenses, and an appropriate proportion of production and other overheads, but not borrowing costs. Cost is calculated at the weighted average cost incurred in acquiring inventories.

Provisions

Provisions are liabilities of uncertain timing or amount. A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the company has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are calculated on a discounted basis. The carrying amounts of provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

Taxation

Current tax is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit is different from accounting profit due to temporary differences between accounting and tax treatments, and due to items that are never taxable or tax deductible. Tax benefits are not recognised unless it is probable that the tax positions are sustainable. Once considered to be probable, tax benefits are reviewed each year to assess whether a provision should be taken against full recognition of the benefit on the basis of potential settlement through negotiation and/or litigation. Tax provisions are included in current liabilities. Penalties and interest on tax liabilities are included in operating profit and finance charges, respectively.

Full provision for deferred tax is made for temporary differences between the carrying value of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their value for tax purposes. The amount of deferred tax reflects the expected manner of recovery or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using the basis of taxation enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are not recognised where it is more likely than not that the asset will not be realised in the future.

Dividends paid

Interim dividends are included in the financial statements in the year in which they are approved by the directors, and the final dividend in the year in which it is approved by shareholders.

Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

The directors make estimates and assumptions concerning the future of the company. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equate to actual results. The company's directors are of the opinion that there are no estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing material adjustment to the carrying value of the assets and liabilities for the company within the next financial year due to the nature of the business.

The critical accounting policies, which the directors consider are of greater complexity and/or particularly subject to the exercise of judgements, are set out in detail in the relevant accounting policies.
