PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

Artspace continues to provide therapeutic day opportunities to children, young adults and adults with learning disabilities, many of these service users present with very complex behavioural and mental health needs and require this support to enable them to live as successfully as they possibly can within the community environment.

Service users attending artspace may live at home with aging parents or live in supported living facilities, this daily support is invaluable to maintain this living arrangement.

We provide structured programmes for up to 25 adults daily, we offer multisensory opportunities for up to 30 adults and children daily on a sessional basis. Children and young adults attend the Multisensory facilities from throughout the Northwest of the province and North Donegal.

Artspace has grown year on year therefore we required larger premises which we intend to take up in October 2018, these premises will allow us to develop on our mission statement by developing our service user base by 100%, we have significant refurbishment work to complete to make the premises fit for purpose.

(If applicable, please just state "A social audit report covering these points is attached").
