Part 4 Election to keep information on the public register

The proposed members of an LLP can agree to elect to keep certain information on the public register at Companies House, rather than keeping their own registers. Tick the appropriate box to show which information the proposed members are electing to keep on the public register. If the proposed members have not agreed to keep any of this information on the public register, go to Part 5 Consent to Act.

G1

Election to keep LLP members' register information on the public register

IMPORTANT:

If the proposed members elect to keep this information on the public register, everyone who is an individual LLP member while the election is in force will have their full date of birth available on the public record ❶

- ☐ All proposed members elect to keep LLP members' register information on the public register.

❶ If the proposed members don't make this election, only the month and year of birth will be available on the public record.

G2

Election to keep LLP members' usual residential address (URA) register information on the public register

If the proposed members elect to keep this information on the public register, the URA will not be publicly available.

- ☒ All proposed members elect to keep LLP members' URA register information on the public register.

Election to keep PSC register information on the public register

IMPORTANT:

If the proposed members elect to keep this information on the public register, everyone who is an individual PSC while the election is in force will have their full date of birth available on the public record ❷

- ☐ All proposed members elect to keep PSC register information on the public register.
- ☐ No objection was received by the proposed members from any eligible person within the notice period before making the election. ❸

❷ If the proposed members don't make this election, only the month and year of birth will be available on the public record.

❸ Eligible person
An eligible person is a person whose details would have to be entered in the LLP's PSC register
