The Board shall not grant any such consent to the extent that it considers doing so would jeopardise the integrity of any match or competition. ~~and, a~~

~~13.7 Accordingly, a~~ Any such consent granted by the Board under this Article 13 shall be subject to such conditions as the Board shall consider appropriate in all the circumstances. Without prejudice to the foregoing generality, the Board may (in its sole discretion) impose a time limit on any consent granted by it under this Article 13 and, upon the expiry of any such time limit, the Board may review its decision to grant the relevant consent and (at its sole discretion) withdraw such consent. In the event that the Board withdraws any consent granted by it under this Article 13 at any time, the club or person which is a member of, involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of, or has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of, more than one club shall take all such steps within such period of time as the Board shall require (acting reasonably) to procure that it/he is no longer a member of, involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of, or has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of, more than one club.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

- (A) Article 13.2(i) – to allow the Scottish FA Board to accept to accept an alternative to the Register of Members as evidence that the relevant person is no longer a member and that his shares have not been transferred to an associate.
- (B) Article 13.2, final paragraph – to allow the Scottish FA Board to accept an arrangement other than an irrevocable trust as demonstrating that a person cannot exercise any rights or be entitled to any privileges in respect of his shares in a club.
- (C) Article 13.3 – to require that any event which could result in a dual interest arising is notified to the Scottish FA prior to such event taking place. This is consistent with the principle in Articles 13.1 and 13.2 that a dual interest should not be allowed to arise without Board consent having first been granted.

The 3% de minimis on this reporting requirement has been removed, on the basis that no such de minimis exists in respect of a dual interest scenario being permitted, so the Board should be notified of all potential dual interest scenarios.

- (D) Article 13.4 – to extend the ability of the Scottish FA to request information and ask questions, so that the Board can be better informed before reaching a decision in respect of a dual interest scenario. Provisos inserted to require that the Scottish FA must act reasonably in exercising this right of investigation and that the right of investigation is subject to any applicable law that would prohibit them from responding.
- (E) Article 13.6 – specific wording has been added to the guidance given to the Board in this Article to refer to the integrity of any match or competition, which is consistent with the approach taken in the FIFA and UEFA Statutes in relation to dual interests.
- (F) Article 13.7 – to specifically refer to the ability of the Board to impose a time limit on any consent to a dual interest scenario granted by it. Upon the expiry of any such time limit, the Board may review its decision to grant the relevant consent and withdraw it. This is without prejudice to the Board's existing ability to impose such conditions as it thinks fit on any consent granted by it under Article 13.

him in the same manner as such original arbitrator was appointed. The provisions of Article 99.19(2)(c) shall apply to a replacement appointment by a Party with, subject to notice of the death, refusal or incapacity of the original arbitrator being substituted for the Secretary's Notice; and.~~ Arbitration Rules shall not apply.~~

The status of any third party and its rights in the procedure shall be for the Tribunal to determine. Any award or procedural decision of the Tribunal shall if necessary be made by a majority and, in the event that no majority may be formed, the Tribunal Chairman shall make his determination as if he were a sole arbitrator.

99.22~~24~~ The Tribunal may make part awards on different issues at different times.

99.23~~25~~ If, before the award is made, the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration agree on a settlement of the Football Dispute, the Tribunal shall either issue an order for termination of the reference to arbitration or, if requested by ~~both Parties~~all of the parties to the arbitration and accepted by the Tribunal, record the settlement in the form of an award on joint consent, and in such case the award shall be treated as an Arbitral award. The Tribunal shall then be discharged and the reference to arbitration concluded subject to payment by the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration of any outstanding fees and expenses of the Tribunal.

99.24~~26~~ The Tribunal shall have the power to assess and grant an award and/or damages, and interest thereon, and make such other order as it deems appropriate in its reasonable discretion.

99.25~~27~~ The Tribunal shall have the power to make such order against one or more of the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration as it considers appropriate as to the costs of the arbitration, which shall include the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and of any hearings (including any administrative costs) and the ~~Parties'~~expenses and outlays of the parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA (which shall follow the direction of the Tribunal Chairman and shall be as agreed by the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA or, failing such agreement, as determined by means of taxation, on the application of the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration or the Scottish FA to the ~~a~~Auditor of the s~~Sheriff e~~Court at Glasgow and the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA agree that the Tribunal shall have the power to order a ~~Party~~party to the arbitration to pay the costs of the taxation) in the arbitration. 99.26~~28~~ In the event of default by ~~either Party~~any party to the arbitration in respect of any procedural order of the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall have the powers provided in the Scottish Arbitration Rules.

99.2729None of the Tribunal, the Tribunal’s clerk (if any), the Secretary, ~~nor~~ or the Scottish FA shall be liable to any ~~Party~~party to the arbitration for any act or omission in connection with any arbitration in respect of a Football Dispute conducted under this Article 99, unless the act or omission is in bad faith, and any employee or agent of the Scottish FA is similarly protected from any such liability.

General provisions

99.2830Any Scottish FA Dispute or Football Dispute decided under the procedure referred to in this Article 99 shall be final and binding on the ~~Parties~~parties to the arbitration.

99.2931For the avoidance of doubt, the parties to any arbitration established pursuant to this Article 99 agree to renounce their respective rights of appeal, save in respect of the mandatory provisions of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 in respect of challenging awards, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Article 99.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

All references to Article numbers in these Explanatory Notes are to the Article numbers in the proposed amended Article 99 set out above, unless expressly stated otherwise.

- (A) The definitions of “an associated person”, “Notice to Refer”, “the Parties”, “the Referring Party”, “the Respondents”, “the Secretary’s Notice”, “the Tribunal”, “the Tribunal Candidate List” and “the Tribunal Chairman” are deleted from Article 1.1 on the basis that all of the definitions relating to the arbitration process will now be contained in Article 99 and are not used elsewhere in the Articles.
- (B) Article 99.1 – the definition of “associated person” has been moved to the beginning of Article 99 for ease of reference and has been amended to specify the persons that it is intended to cover, being players, officials, referees, clubs, leagues, associations or other combinations of players, officials, referees or clubs formed with the consent of the Scottish FA under Article 18.1 and any other person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA.
- (C) Article 99.2 – the definition of “Scottish FA Dispute” has been moved to the beginning of Article 99 for ease of reference and has been amended to clarify that it refers to a dispute between or among members and/or any associated person(s) on the one hand and the Scottish FA on the other.
- (D) Article 99.3 – the definition of “Football Dispute” has been moved to the beginning of Article 99 for ease of reference and has been amended to include disputes connected with Association Football.

- (E) Articles 99.4 and 99.5 – added for clarification.
- (F) Article 99.6 – the agreement by members to submit Football Disputes and Scottish FA Disputes to arbitration under Article 99 has been clarified. The amended Article 99 shall only apply to arbitrations initiated after the 2022 Annual General Meeting and wording has been added to Article 99.6 to ensure that the current terms of Article 99 will continue to apply ongoing arbitrations that commenced prior to the date of the 2022 Annual General Meeting.
- (G) Article 99.7 – consolidates previous Articles which dealt with the application of the Scottish Arbitration Rules, other than those expressly disappplied, to any arbitration under Article 99.
- (H) Article 99.8 – amended to clarify that questions of jurisdiction and admissibility shall be resolved by the arbitral tribunal and shall not prevent the appointment of the arbitral tribunal from proceeding.
- (I) Article 99.10 – amended to clarify that a party must use any alternative process for resolution of a Football Dispute or a Scottish FA Dispute which is available to it (including the disciplinary rules of any recognised football body) before referring such Football Dispute or Scottish FA Dispute to arbitration under Article 99.
- (J) Article 99.12 – amended to clarify that any party to a proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration can refer the matter of appointment to one of the independent bodies identified in Article 99.12, failing agreement by the parties within a reasonable period of time.
- (K) Article 99.14 – new Article confirming that each member and/or associated person, together with the Scottish FA, shall submit to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal and adhere to the provisions of Article 99 where a Scottish FA Dispute has been referred to arbitration.
- (L) Article 99.15 – a new Article to deal with the participation of third parties in a Scottish FA Dispute. Such third parties may only be allowed by the Tribunal to participate if they are bound by the agreement to arbitrate in Article 99.11 or the other parties to the arbitration have agreed to its participation. Any such third party shall not be entitled to nominate an arbitrator for the purposes of the arbitration.
- (M) Former Article 99.14 – deleted on the basis that the principle of this former Article is now addressed in new Article 99.10. Retaining both Articles could cause unnecessary confusion.
- (N) Articles 99.18 and 99.21(a) – amendments made to recognise possibility of multi-party arbitrations, with more than one Referring Party and more than one Respondent, and to use consistent language to refer to submission and intimation.

- (O) Article 99.20 – wording added to allow the Scottish FA to supplement the Tribunal Candidate List from time to time, including when an arbitration is pending.
- (P) Article 99.21(b) – amendments to clarify that the default position for an arbitration shall be an arbitral tribunal of three arbitrators. The Referring Party(ies) shall appoint one of the arbitrators and the Respondent(s) shall appoint one of the arbitrators, with the arbitrators so appointed then appointing a third arbitrator as Tribunal Chairman.
- (Q) Article 99.21(c) – amendments to clarify the authority of the Secretary to appoint an arbitrator for the Referring Party(ies) and the Respondent(s) if either of them fails to nominate and appoint an arbitrator in accordance with Article 99.12(b). Further clarification of the Secretary’s authority to appoint a single arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators if both the Referring Party(ies) and the Respondent(s) fail to nominate and appoint arbitrators in accordance with Article 99.12(b).
- (R) Article 99.21(d) – clarification of process for appointing the third arbitrator if the two arbitrators appointed by the Referring Party(ies) and the Respondent(s) fail to agree the appointment of such third arbitrator.
- (S) Articles 99.21(a), (g) and (h) – the reference in Article 99.21(a) to “any other party or parties with an interest in the Dispute” has been deleted, since this could allow third parties not under the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA to become a party to an arbitration, which was not the original intention of this provision. However, to acknowledge and make provision for fact that the addition of third parties may sometimes be desirable, whilst preserving the confidentiality of the process and avoiding the introduction of third parties derailing or delaying the appointment process, Articles 99.21(g) and (h) have been inserted so that the Tribunal may allow third parties to participate in an arbitration, provided that they are bound by the agreement to arbitrate in Article 99.16 or the other parties to the arbitration have agreed to its participation. Any such third party shall not be entitled to nominate an arbitrator for the purposes of the arbitration.
- (T) Article 99.23 – amendments made to allow the arbitration to proceed by way of such combination of procedures as the Tribunal considers appropriate.

11.3 The Scottish FA shall be entitled to publish any required particulars provided to it pursuant to Article 11.1 to the extent that the club is required by law (or has otherwise elected) to keep any such required particulars available for inspection or submit them to a public register pursuant to Chapter 3 or Chapter 4 of Part 21A of the Act. For the avoidance of doubt, the Scottish FA shall not publish any such required particulars which are not otherwise generally available to the public or which are subject to protection from disclosure pursuant to section 790ZF of the Act or regulations made pursuant to section 790ZG of the Act.

11.4 Any failure by a club to comply with its obligations under Article 11.1 shall be deemed to be a breach of these Articles and the Judicial Panel will have jurisdiction to deal with any such breach and to impose sanctions in relation to it as prescribed within the Judicial Panel Protocol.

12. Financial Records

12.1 All clubs and recognised football bodies shall keep and maintain for a minimum period of 5 years detailed financial books and records in connection with their trading activities, including details of the ground and stand admissions, members tickets, turnstile arrangements and all other related activities.

12.2 The Board may arrange for an inspection of, and may require the relevant club or recognised football body to provide copies of, all such books, records and details for any purpose, including but not limited to Club Licensing. Such inspection may be conducted by the Board, or by such authorised employees of the Scottish FA, the Scottish FA's auditors or other professional advisers duly appointed by the Board on giving to any club or recognised football body reasonable notice of its intention to do so.

12.3 All payments, benefits or consideration of any description which are to be made to a player by or on behalf of a club in respect of or in connection with that player's playing or training activities for the said club (other than re-imbursement of expenses actually incurred) must be fully recorded within a written agreement between the club and the player which must be submitted to the Scottish FA.

13. Dual Interests in Clubs

13.1 Except with the prior written consent of the Board:-

- (a) no club or nominee of a club; and
- (b) no person, whether absolutely or as a trustee, either alone or in conjunction with one or more associates or solely through an associate or associates (even where such person has no formal interest), who:-
 - (i) is a member of a club; or
 - (ii) is involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of a club; or
 - (iii) has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of a club, may at the same time either directly or indirectly:-

- (A) be a member of another club; or
- (B) be involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of another club; or 13.2 Except with the prior written consent of the Board, any person who:-

- (a) is a member of a club;
- (b) is involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of a club; or
- (c) has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of a club, may not take up any such role with another club until such time as the Scottish FA is reasonably satisfied that such person has ceased to hold such role in the first club. If this would require the relevant person to transfer his shares in the first club, the Scottish FA must be reasonably satisfied that the share transfer has been completed and that the shares have not been transferred to an associate. The criteria for assessing whether the position is satisfactory or not shall include provision to the Scottish FA of:-

- (i) a certified true copy of the register of members of the first club (or such other evidence as the Board, acting reasonably, shall accept) showing that the relevant person is no longer a member and that the shares have not been transferred to a person who is an associate; and
- (ii) a certificate from the secretary of the first club confirming that the procedures applied in the transfer of the shares by the person to whom this Article 13.2 applies complies with such club's constitution in all respects.

The Scottish FA must be reasonably satisfied about the transfer of his shares in the first club before such person can take up any such role at another club. The relevant person shall only be entitled to take up any of the aforementioned roles at another club prior to the transfer of his shares in the first club if the Scottish FA is reasonably satisfied that the shares have been placed into an irrevocable trust of which neither he nor any of his associates is a beneficiary and that he cannot exercise any rights or be entitled to any privileges in respect of such shares or such other arrangement is entered into in respect of the shares which the Scottish FA is satisfied (acting reasonably) achieves the same outcome.

13.3 Without prejudice to Article 13.1 or Article 13.2:-

- (a) any club or nominee of a club; and
- (b) any person who is a member of a club, is involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of a club, or has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of a club, shall notify the Board in writing prior to any event taking place which would result in it/him:-

- (i) becoming a member of another club;
- (ii) becoming involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of another club; or
- (iii) having any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of another club.

13.4 The Scottish FA is authorised to request:-

- (a) full disclosure of the identity of all of the shareholders of a member and details of all beneficial interests represented by any such shareholder; and
- (b) all such details and ask all such questions as it deems necessary (acting reasonably) for the purpose of establishing the involvement of a club (or its nominee) or any other person in, or its/his power to influence, any club, and all members and other relevant persons under the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA will be required to meet all such requests and to answer all such questions without delay, subject to any applicable law which it/he can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Scottish FA (acting reasonably) prohibits it/him from doing so. Failure to do so will constitute a breach of these Articles and the Judicial Panel will have jurisdiction to deal with any such breach and to impose sanctions in relation to it.

13.5 For the purposes of this Article 13:-

- (a) "club" means any club in membership of the Scottish FA and any club in membership of an association in membership of UEFA;
- (b) "person" includes any body corporate and a partnership;
- (c) "associate" means:-

- (i) if the person referred to is an individual, (1) a close relative of that individual, including that individual's spouse, common law spouse, civil partner, parent, step parent, child, stepchild, uncle, aunt, nephew or niece, or a child or stepchild of such parent or spouse, common law spouse or civil partner or anyone else of a close relationship to that individual who in the opinion of the Board is or is likely to be acting in conjunction with that individual, (2) any company of which that individual or a close relative of such individual is a director or over which that individual or a close relative of such individual is able to exercise control or influence, and (3) any individual who is an employee or partner of that individual or a close relative of any such employee or partner; and
- (ii) if the person referred to or any associate of that person is a body corporate, (1) any other body corporate associated with it either through the holding of shares in it or by reason of control by contract or other form of agreement, (2) any director or employee of that body corporate or other associated body corporate or any close relative of any such director or employee, and (3) where any person has an agreement or arrangement, whether legally binding or not, with any other person in relation to the exercise of his voting power in a club or in relation to the holding or disposal of his interest in such club, that other person; and
- (d) "member" means involvement directly or indirectly (and whether as principal, trustee, nominee, beneficiary or in any other capacity) in a club as a shareholder, holder of options over any share, holder of convertible loans or securities or any like instrument, member of a company limited by guarantee, the holder of an interest in any unincorporated voluntary association, or as possessor of any other right of ownership or control in relation to a club.

13.6 In considering whether to give any such consent as may be required by this Article 13, the Board shall have regard to the need to promote and safeguard the interests and public profile of Association Football, its players, spectators and others concerned with the game of Association Football and shall have regard also to these Articles, the rules and regulations of the Scottish FA and to the constitution and rules of those bodies of which the Scottish FA is in membership. The Board shall not grant any such consent to the extent that it considers doing so would jeopardise the integrity of any match or competition.

13.7 Any consent granted by the Board under this Article 13 shall be subject to such conditions as the Board shall consider appropriate in all the circumstances. Without prejudice to the foregoing generality, the Board may (in its sole discretion) impose a time limit on any consent granted by it under this Article 13 and, upon the expiry of any such time limit, the Board may review its decision to grant the relevant consent and (at its sole discretion) withdraw such consent. In the event that the Board withdraws any consent granted by it under this Article 13 at any time, the club or person which is a member of, involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of, or has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of, more than one club shall take all such steps within such period of time as the Board shall require (acting reasonably) to procure that it/he is no longer a member of, involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management or administration of, or has any power whatsoever to influence the management or administration of, more than one club.

14. Prohibition on Transfer of Membership

14.1 It is not permissible for a member to transfer directly or indirectly its membership of the Scottish FA to another member or to any other entity, and any such transfer or attempt to effect such a transfer is prohibited, save as otherwise provided in this Article 14. Any member desirous of transferring its membership to another entity within its own administrative group for the purpose of internal solvent reconstruction must apply to the Board for permission to effect such transfer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Any other application for transfer of membership will be reviewed by the Board, which will have complete discretion to reject or to grant such application on such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit.

- 14.2 Any member which is in breach of the provisions of Article 14.1 shall, if required, indemnify the Scottish FA, its players, the relevant recognised football body and its members against all losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by the Scottish FA, its players, the relevant recognised football body and its members which result directly or indirectly from such breach, including any loss of income or profits from any undertaking, commercial liaison, sponsorship, or arrangement entered into by the Scottish FA, its players, the relevant recognised football body or by any of its members.

15. Suspension or Termination of Membership

- 15.1 Subject to Article 15.3 full membership may be suspended or terminated by the Judicial Panel.
- 15.2 Registered membership shall be terminated automatically on the termination of the registered member's membership of or participation in an Affiliated Association or an Affiliated National Association or any other recognised football body.
- 15.3 In respect of a Determination by a tribunal appointed from the Judicial Panel of the sanctions of suspension or termination of full membership, subject to the provisions set out below, all members will have the right to request a further appeal (following Determination by an Appellate Tribunal in terms of the Judicial Panel Protocol) against any such Determination to a freshly constituted Appellate Tribunal (a "Second Appellate Tribunal").
- (a) A request for further appeal shall be restricted to the following four grounds:- that the Appellate Tribunal constituted under the Judicial Panel Protocol (the "First Appellate Tribunal") (1) failed to give the member a fair hearing, (2) acted outwith its powers, (3) issued a Determination which it could not properly have issued on the facts of the case, or (4) made a determination of sanctions which were excessive or inappropriate.
 - (b) A member may, not less than three working days after the date on which the Determination of the First Appellate Tribunal was communicated or delivered to the member, request that First Appellate Tribunal issue reasons in respect of its Determination that the sanctions of suspension or termination of full membership be imposed.
 - (c) A member wishing to request a further appeal shall send written notice of its request (a "Request") to the Secretary, which request shall comprise the same details as required by Paragraph 15.2.1.4 of the Judicial Panel Protocol, together with a full statement of its permitted grounds of appeal and the nature and detail of each ground(s) upon which the member requests to rely. Such a Request shall be delivered to the Secretary within five working days following communication or delivery of the communication of the First Appellate Tribunal's final Determination; or, where reasons were timeously requested, within five working days following the communication or delivery of reasons (failing which the right to request a further appeal shall fall).
 - (d) The Request, and any submission to a Second Appellate Tribunal, shall only refer the question of the sanction of suspension or termination of full membership and any other sanction(s) imposed by the First Appellate Tribunal or by a preceding first instance tribunal shall not be reviewed by the Second Appellate Tribunal and shall remain effective.
 - (e) Upon receipt of a Request, the Secretary shall submit such request to the Board. The Board shall decide, in its sole discretion, whether to give leave for a further appeal in terms of this Article 15.3. The Board shall generally deliver its decision within 14 days following its receipt of the Request.

- (f) A Second Appellate Tribunal shall proceed in accordance with the same provisions of the Judicial Panel Protocol which apply to an Appellate Tribunal, save that the Request shall be deemed to be the Notice of Appeal in terms of Paragraph 15.2.1 and the Deposit shall be paid within 7 days of the date of the Board's letter giving leave for the second appeal. A member shall forfeit its right to further appeal if such member fails to pay the Deposit timeously.
- (g) For the avoidance of doubt, there shall be no further appeal from the Determination of a Second Appellate Tribunal. The Determination of a Second Appellate Tribunal will be final and binding.

16. Cessation of Membership

- 16.1 Except with the prior written consent of the Board, subject to the terms of Article 4.4 and further on such terms as specified by the Board, no full member shall resign, retire or cease for whatever reason to be a member of the Scottish FA unless it shall have given a minimum of 2 full seasons' prior written notice of its intention to do so and such member does not owe any money to the Scottish FA or to any other member, or player or recognised football body on the expiry of such notice. The prior written notice required from the member, as aforesaid, shall be irrevocable. In the event that subsequent to providing such written notice the member intimates a desire not to resign, retire or cease for whatever reason to be a member of the Scottish FA, the written notice shall nonetheless remain extant and if the member wishes to continue in membership of the Scottish FA, it shall be required to apply for membership of the Scottish FA in accordance with Article 6.
- 16.2 Any full member which is in breach of the provisions of Article 16.1 shall, if required, indemnify the Scottish FA and its members, players and recognised football bodies against all losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by the Scottish FA and its members, players and recognised football bodies which result directly or indirectly from such breach, including any loss of income or profits from any undertaking, commercial liaison, sponsorship, or arrangement entered into by the Scottish FA or by any of its members.
- 16.3 A club or association ceasing to be a member for whatever reason shall thereupon forfeit all privileges of membership, save that liability as provided for in the Memorandum shall nevertheless continue. Any club or association ceasing to be a member for whatever reason shall nevertheless remain liable for and shall pay to the Scottish FA, its members, the players and recognised football bodies all monies which at such time may be due by such club or association to the Scottish FA, its members, the players and recognised football bodies.

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Scottish FA there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed amongst the members but shall be given or transferred to some other society, institution or organisation having objects similar to the objects of the Scottish FA and which shall prohibit the distribution of its income and property among its members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Scottish FA under or by virtue hereof, such a society, institution or organisation to be determined by the full members of the Scottish FA at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision then to some charitable object.

GENERAL MEETINGS AND VOTING

36. Annual General Meeting

The Scottish FA shall hold a general meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Board, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.

37. General Meetings

General Meetings shall also be convened on requisition in terms of Article 37.2 or in default may be convened by such requisitionists as provided in Sections 303 to 305 of the Act.

37.2 General meetings can be held solely by any means of electronic communication which permits the members who are present at the general meeting to communicate with each other and references in these Articles to the "place" of a general meeting shall be deemed to include holding such general meeting by any such means.

37.3 In determining whether members are present at a general meeting, including for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present, as prescribed in Article 42.1, it is not necessary for members to be in the same place at the same time. The Board may make whatever arrangements it considers appropriate to enable those members who are present at a general meeting, whether in person or by other means, to exercise their rights to speak or vote at such general meeting, including by any means of electronic communication which permits the members who are present at the general meeting to communicate with each other.

- 37.4 In addition to any right conferred on members by the Act, the Board shall, upon receiving a requisition in writing: (i) appealing against the suspension or expulsion of a member and signed by full members having not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all such members, or (ii) questioning an act or omission of the Board and signed by 10 or more full members of the Scottish FA, convene a General Meeting. - 39.2 If, on receipt of a proposal submitted in accordance with Article 39.1, the Board is of the opinion (acting reasonably) that the addition(s) and/or alteration(s) proposed to be made to these Articles and/or the Challenge Cup Competition Rules do(es) not take account of all additions and alterations which would be required to be made to these Articles and the Challenge Cup Competition Rules in consequence of the adoption of such proposal, the full member or the Director lodging such proposal shall be required to work in conjunction with the Secretary and his staff to notify the Board in writing of all such consequential additions and alterations within three weeks of being notified of the requirement so to do by the Secretary. If the Board is not satisfied (acting reasonably) that all such consequential additions and alterations have been notified to it within the time period specified, then the Board will not be required to take any further action in respect of the proposal, which will be deemed to have fallen.

- 46.5 Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:-
- (a) granting the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 46.6 On a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting, every proxy present who has been duly appointed by one or more members entitled to vote on the resolution has one vote, save that a proxy has one vote for and one vote against the resolution if:-

- (a) the proxy has been duly appointed by more than one member entitled to vote on the resolution; and
 - (b) the proxy has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more other of those members to vote against it.
- 46.7 The appointment of a proxy to vote on a matter at a general meeting authorises the proxy to demand, or join in demanding, a poll on that matter.
- 46.8 On a poll taken at a general meeting, the voting rights of a member may be exercised by any proxy present who has been duly appointed by such member in relation to the resolution in respect of which the poll is taken.
- 46.9 A member which is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Scottish FA by or on behalf of that member.
- 46.10 An appointment made under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Scottish FA a notice given by or on behalf of the member by or on behalf of which the proxy was given.

97. Failure to Pay a Fine

In the event that any fine imposed upon any recognised football body, club, official, Team Official or other member of Team Staff, player, Intermediary, referee, Team Scout or any other person under the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA is not paid by or on behalf of such person, in accordance with the direction(s) of the Judicial Panel, pursuant to the Judicial Panel Protocol, the Scottish FA will be entitled to offset such outstanding fine from and against the relevant amount of any monies held by the Scottish FA by or on behalf of such person or owed by the Scottish FA to such person. In the case of an official, Team Official or other member of Team Staff or player or Team Scout, the Scottish FA will be entitled to effect offset in the context of monies otherwise due to the club with which such official, Team Official or other member of Team Staff or player or Team Scout is associated.

98. Application of Suspensions

A suspension imposed on a player, Team Official or other member of Team Staff or official or other person by an Affiliated National Association and which applies for a period of time shall, on notification to the Scottish FA, be deemed to apply to all Association Football in Scotland, save for competitions organised by FIFA or UEFA. During such period of suspension, a player, Team Official or other member of Team Staff or official or other person shall be prohibited from taking any part in Association Football in Scotland, save for competitions organised by FIFA or UEFA. Any other suspension imposed by an Affiliated National Association or other body shall apply only to matches immediately within its jurisdiction, unless such other suspension has been notified to, and confirmed by, the Scottish FA.

RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BETWEEN MEMBERS

99. Arbitration

Definitions

- 99.1 An “associated person” in this Article 99 shall mean a (i) player, (ii) official, (iii) referee, (iv) club, (v) league, association or other combination of players, officials, referees or clubs formed with the consent of the Scottish FA under Article 18.1 and (vi) any other person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the Scottish FA.
- 99.2 A “Scottish FA Dispute” in this Article 99 shall be any dispute or difference between or among members and/or any associated person(s) on the one hand and the Scottish FA on the other (with the exception of a matter which falls within the supervisory jurisdiction of the Court of Session, and with the exception of any matter for which the Judicial Panel or tribunals appointed therefrom have jurisdiction under these Articles).
- 99.3 A “Football Dispute” in this Article 99 shall be a dispute between or among members and/or any associated person(s) arising out of or relating to Association Football (with the exception of a matter which falls within the supervisory jurisdiction of the Court of Session, and with the exception of any matter for which the Judicial Panel or tribunals appointed therefrom have jurisdiction under these Articles).
- 99.4 Other definitions shall have the meanings ascribed to them elsewhere in the Articles.

- 99.5 For the purposes of this Article 99, references to the Secretary shall also include such other employee or officer of the Scottish FA as the Secretary may nominate to carry out his functions under this Article 99.

General

- 99.6 This Article 99 comprises an agreement by members and associated persons to submit Football Disputes and Scottish FA Disputes to arbitration. The terms of this Article 99 shall apply to any arbitration in respect of which the Notice to Refer is served on or after the date of the 2022 Annual General Meeting. The terms of Article 99 which applied immediately prior to that date shall continue to apply to any arbitration in respect of which the Notice to Refer was submitted before that date.
- 99.7 In any arbitration under this Article 99, the following shall also apply:- the provisions of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 (“the 2010 Act”), including the Scottish Arbitration Rules which form Schedule 1 to the 2010 Act (with the exception of Rules 11, 22, 26, 41, 43 and 46 of the Scottish Arbitration Rules, which are hereby disapplied), and any other mandatory statutory or other provisions applicable to the conduct of an arbitration in Scotland. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Article 99 and any of the default rules of the Scottish Arbitration Rules which have not been expressly disapplied by this Article 99, the terms of this Article 99 shall prevail.
- 99.8 Arbitrations under this Article 99 provide for resolution by an independent arbitral tribunal (“the Tribunal”). The role of the Secretary arises (in disputes other than Scottish FA Disputes) in respect of the appointment of arbitrators under Article 99.21(c). In respect of any jurisdictional or admissibility matter, which cannot be agreed between the parties to a proposed arbitration under this Article 99, such matters shall be determined by the Tribunal, who shall have available the powers provided to them in this Article 99 and in the 2010 Act or otherwise by the law of Scotland. The Secretary may point out to the parties to a proposed arbitration any jurisdictional, admissibility, conflict or other issues as he shall think fit. Insofar as a party to a proposed arbitration does not agree with the Secretary in such circumstances, then the appointment of the Tribunal shall proceed and the Tribunal shall resolve the matter. Where the Secretary has raised such a matter with a party to a proposed arbitration and such party declines to take a step suggested by the Scottish FA, a Tribunal may take this into consideration in any award of costs.
- 99.9 In respect of all arbitrations conducted under this Article 99, the law governing the arbitration shall be the law of Scotland and the seat of the arbitration shall be Scotland.
- 99.10 Where a party to a Football Dispute or a Scottish FA Dispute has available to it an alternative process for resolution of the matter which is the subject of such Football Dispute or Scottish FA Dispute (as the case may be) pursuant to the rules of any recognised football body, including (without limitation) the disciplinary rules and/or processes of any recognised football body which is a party to the relevant Football Dispute or Scottish FA Dispute (as the case may be), then it shall avail itself of such process before it refers the relevant Football Dispute or Scottish FA Dispute (as the case may be) to arbitration under this Article 99. Any appeal to the Scottish FA against the outcome of such a process shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 14 of the Judicial Panel Protocol. Similarly, appeals against Determinations of a Disciplinary Tribunal, disciplinary committee or a Club Licensing determination shall proceed in accordance with the relevant provisions of Paragraph 14 of the Judicial Panel Protocol. Where such a right of appeal exists to the Judicial Panel or tribunals appointed therefrom, then such matters shall not be referred to arbitration under this Article 99.

Scottish FA Dispute Arbitrations

- 99.11 The fact of membership of the Scottish FA and/or the submission to the jurisdiction of the Articles and/or association with a member by an associated person shall constitute an agreement by a member and/or an associated person and/or the Scottish FA that such member and/or associated person and/or the Scottish FA shall settle a Scottish FA Dispute by arbitration conducted in accordance with Articles 99.12 to 99.15, 99.30 and 99.31.
- 99.12 Failing agreement between or among the Scottish FA and the member(s) and/or associated person(s) which are party to a proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration within a reasonable period of time, any of the parties to the proposed arbitration may request in writing that a sole arbitrator shall be selected and appointed by any of the following:
- (i) the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Scottish Branch);
 - (ii) the President or Vice President of the Law Society of Scotland; or
 - (iii) the Executive Director or the Chairman of Sports Resolutions (UK) (a trading name of Sports Dispute Resolution Panel Limited, company no. 03351039, registered at 1 Salisbury Square, London, EC4Y 8AE) (“Sport Resolutions”).

Where appointment is by Sport Resolutions, Sports Resolution’s Arbitration Rules, as amended by Sports Resolutions from time to time (https://www.sportresolutions.co.uk/uploads/related-documents/D_3_-_Arbitrations_Rules.pdf), shall apply, save that (1) all such arbitrations shall follow the Full Arbitration Procedure; and (2) their provisions regarding the seat, applicable law, and statutory regime shall be deleted, so that the law governing the arbitration shall be the law of Scotland and the seat of the arbitration shall be Scotland, and the 2010 Act (as amended from time to time), shall apply.

- 99.13 A member, an associated person and/or the Scottish FA shall not take a Scottish FA Dispute to a court of law, except with the prior approval of the Board, provided that this Article 99.12 shall not prevent a member, associated person and/or the Scottish FA from raising proceedings for time bar purposes, subject to such proceedings being sisted at the earliest opportunity for resolution in accordance with this Article 99.
- 99.14 Where a Scottish FA Dispute has been referred to arbitration, each member and/or associated person involved in such Scottish FA Dispute, together with the Scottish FA, shall submit to the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal and shall adhere to the provisions in this Article 99.
- 99.15 A party which is not the Scottish FA, a member or an associated person may only participate in a proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration if it is bound by the agreement to arbitrate referred to in Article 99.11 or if it and the other parties to the arbitration agree to its participation in writing. If the Scottish FA, a member or an associated person wishes such a third party to participate in the arbitration, it shall give notice of the proposed third party and the reasons for their participation to the Secretary and all other parties to the proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration. Provided that either the proposed third party is bound by the agreement to arbitrate referred to in Article 99.11 or it and the other parties to the arbitration have agreed in writing to its participation, the proposed third party shall be entitled to participate in the proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration. The status of any third party and its rights in the procedure shall be for the Tribunal to determine. The third party shall not in any circumstances be entitled to nominate an arbitrator for the purposes of the arbitration nor shall a notification by the Scottish FA, a member or an associated person of a proposed third party postpone the appointment of the arbitrator(s) for the proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration under Article 99.12 and the proposed third party may not challenge the formation of the Tribunal for the proposed Scottish FA Dispute arbitration on the ground that it, the third party, did not have the opportunity to participate in the nomination of the arbitrator(s).

Football Dispute Arbitrations

- 99.16 The fact of membership of the Scottish FA and/or the submission to the jurisdiction of the Articles and/or association with a member by an associated person shall constitute an agreement by a member and/or an associated person that such member and/or associated person shall settle a Football Dispute by arbitration conducted in accordance with Articles 99.17 to 99.31.
- 99.17 A member or an associated person shall not take a Football Dispute to a court of law, except with the prior approval of the Board, provided that this Article 99.17 shall not prevent a member or associated person from raising proceedings for time bar purposes, subject to such proceedings being sisted at the earliest opportunity for resolution in accordance with this Article 99.
- 99.18 The submission of a Football Dispute to arbitration by a member or associated person or a group of members and/or associated persons (each “a Referring Party” and together “the Referring Parties”) shall be done by submitting to the Secretary and, at the same time, intimating to the other member(s) and/or associated person(s) who are party to the Football Dispute (each “a Respondent” and together “the Respondents”) of a written notice to refer to arbitration (“a Notice to Refer”), which notice shall include:-
- (i) the nature and a brief description of the dispute and of the name and address of the Respondent(s);
 - (ii) details of where and when the dispute has arisen; and
 - (iii) the nature of the redress which is sought.
- The last date on which the Notice to Refer is intimated to the Respondent(s) and submitted to the Secretary shall be deemed to be the date on which the arbitral proceedings are commenced.
- 99.19 Where a Football Dispute has been referred to arbitration, each such member and/or associated person involved in the Football Dispute shall submit to the jurisdiction of the Tribunal and shall adhere to the provisions in this Article 99.
- 99.20 The Scottish FA shall maintain a list of qualified candidates (“the Tribunal Candidate List”) to sit as arbitrators in tribunals to determine Football Disputes referred in accordance with this Article 99. The Tribunal Candidate List can be supplemented by the Scottish FA at any time and from time to time, including whilst an arbitration is pending under this Article 99. The Secretary is authorised by the Board to appoint members of the Tribunal Candidate List for the purposes of this Article 99.
- 99.21 Any Football Dispute referred to arbitration in accordance with this Article 99 shall be conducted pursuant to the following provisions:-
- (a) Upon receipt of a Notice to Refer by the Secretary, the Secretary shall send notice (“the Secretary’s Notice”) to the Referring Party or the Referring Parties (as the case may be) and to the Respondent or the Respondents (as the case may be), which Secretary’s Notice shall include (i) a copy of the Notice to Refer; (ii) a list of the component members of the Tribunal Candidate List; (iii) a copy of the provisions of this Article 99; and (iv) an invitation to the Referring Party(ies) and the Respondent(s) to nominate or agree to the appointment of arbitrators in accordance with this Article 99.21.
 - (b) Subject to Article 99.21(c) and (e), the Tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Each of (i) the Referring Party (or the Referring Parties jointly, if they are multiple) and (ii) the Respondent (or the Respondents jointly, if they are multiple) shall nominate and appoint an individual from the Tribunal Candidate List as its/their arbitrator, and the two arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third arbitrator who shall be or has been a solicitor or advocate or member of the judiciary (Sheriff Court or Court of Session) of not less than 10 years' standing (including cumulatively in a combination of the said functions) and who shall act as chairman of the Tribunal ("the Tribunal Chairman"). The Tribunal Chairman shall generally be a suitable person appointed from the Tribunal Candidate List, but may, where appropriate, be a solicitor or advocate, or member of the judiciary (Sheriff Court or Court of Session) of not less than 10 years' standing (including cumulatively in a combination of the said functions) who is not included in the Tribunal Candidate List.

- (c) If either of the Referring Party (or the Referring Parties jointly, if they are multiple) or the Respondent (or the Respondents jointly, if they are multiple) fail to nominate an arbitrator within 14 days of receiving the Secretary's Notice, such arbitrator(s) shall be appointed from the Tribunal Candidate List by the Secretary. If both of the Referring Party (or the Referring Parties jointly, if they are multiple) and the Respondent (or the Respondents jointly, if they are multiple) fail to nominate an arbitrator within 14 days of receiving the Secretary's Notice, the Secretary shall have the power in his sole discretion to appoint a single arbitrator or a panel of three arbitrators from the Tribunal Candidate List.
- (d) If the two arbitrators nominated under Articles 99.21(b) or (c) fail to agree upon the appointment of a third arbitrator within 14 days of the appointment of the second arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the President or Vice President of The Law Society of Scotland at the written request of a Referring Party or a Respondent. The Referring Party or the Respondent so requesting shall initially bear the nomination fee, but the Tribunal shall in its sole discretion have the power to order that the nomination fee is reimbursed in full or in part by any party or parties to the arbitration as it sees fit.
- (e) The Referring Party (or Referring Parties) and the Respondent (or Respondents) may agree to appoint jointly a single arbitrator.
- (f) If any nominated or appointed arbitrator shall die, refuse to act or become incapacitated from acting prior to the making of an award, a further arbitrator shall be appointed to replace him in the same manner as such original arbitrator was appointed. The provisions of Article 99.21(c) shall apply to a replacement appointment, subject to notice of the death, refusal or incapacity of the original arbitrator being substituted for the Secretary's Notice.
- (g) A third party (which, for the purposes of this Article 99, means a person not listed as a Referring Party or a Respondent in the Notice to Refer) may only participate in the arbitration if it is bound by the agreement to arbitrate referred to in Article 99.16 or if it and the other parties to the arbitration agree to its participation in writing.
- (h) If a Referring Party or a Respondent wishes a third party to participate in the arbitration, it shall give notice of the proposed third party and the reasons for their participation to the Secretary and all other parties listed as a Referring Party(ies) or a Respondent(s) in the Notice to Refer. Provided that either the proposed third party is bound by the agreement to arbitrate referred to in Article 99.16 or it and the other parties to the arbitration have agreed in writing to its participation, the Secretary shall send a copy of the Secretary's Notice to the third party and the Tribunal may allow the proposed third party to participate in the proposed Football Dispute arbitration. The third party shall not in any circumstances be entitled to nominate an arbitrator for the purposes of the arbitration. A notification by a Referring Party or a Respondent of a proposed third party shall not postpone the commencement of the Secretary's power of appointment under Article 99.19(c) and a third party may not challenge the formation of the Tribunal on the ground that it, the third party, did not have the opportunity to participate in the nomination of the arbitrators.

- 99.22 As soon as practicable after it has been convened, the Tribunal may convene a meeting with the parties to the arbitration or their representatives.
- 99.23 The Tribunal may adopt such procedures as it considers appropriate for the resolution of the Football Dispute to ensure its just, expeditious, economic and final determination, and may proceed by way of any combination of oral hearing and/or by written submission and/or by such manner of evidence as it considers appropriate. The status of any third party and its rights in the procedure shall be for the Tribunal to determine. Any award or procedural decision of the Tribunal shall if necessary be made by a majority and, in the event that no majority may be formed, the Tribunal Chairman shall make his determination as if he were a sole arbitrator.
- 99.24 The Tribunal may make part awards on different issues at different times.
- 99.25 If, before the award is made, the parties to the arbitration agree on a settlement of the Football Dispute, the Tribunal shall either issue an order for termination of the reference to arbitration or, if requested by all of the parties to the arbitration and accepted by the Tribunal, record the settlement in the form of an award on joint consent, and in such case the award shall be treated as an Arbitral award. The Tribunal shall then be discharged and the reference to arbitration concluded subject to payment by the parties to the arbitration of any outstanding fees and expenses of the Tribunal.
- 99.26 The Tribunal shall have the power to assess and grant an award and/or damages, and interest thereon, and make such other order as it deems appropriate in its reasonable discretion.
- 99.27 The Tribunal shall have the power to make such order against one or more of the parties to the arbitration as it considers appropriate as to the costs of the arbitration, which shall include the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and of any hearings (including any administrative costs) and the expenses and outlays of the parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA (which shall follow the direction of the Tribunal Chairman and shall be as agreed by the parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA or, failing such agreement, as determined by means of taxation, on the application of the parties to the arbitration or the Scottish FA to the Auditor of the Sheriff Court at Glasgow and the parties to the arbitration and the Scottish FA agree that the Tribunal shall have the power to order a party to the arbitration to pay the costs of the taxation) in the arbitration. For the avoidance of doubt, the whole costs, expenses and outlays of the arbitration, including the Tribunal's fees and outlays and any reasonable fees and outlays incurred by the Scottish FA, shall be borne by the parties to the arbitration.
- 99.28 In the event of default by any party to the arbitration in respect of any procedural order of the Tribunal, the Tribunal shall have the powers provided in the Scottish Arbitration Rules.
- 99.29 None of the Tribunal, the Tribunal's clerk (if any), the Secretary or the Scottish FA shall be liable to any party to the arbitration for any act or omission in connection with any arbitration in respect of a Football Dispute conducted under this Article 99, unless the act or omission is in bad faith, and any employee or agent of the Scottish FA is similarly protected from any such liability.

General provisions

- 99.30 Any Scottish FA Dispute or Football Dispute decided under the procedure referred to in this Article 99 shall be final and binding on the parties to the arbitration.
- 99.31 For the avoidance of doubt, the parties to any arbitration established pursuant to this Article 99 agree to renounce their respective rights of appeal, save in respect of the mandatory provisions of the Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010 in respect of challenging awards, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Article 99.
