PART 2 DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4. DIRECTORS' GENERAL AUTHORITY

Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

5. SHAREHOLDERS' RESERVE POWER

- 5.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.
- 5.2 No alteration of the articles and no such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the alteration was made or the passing of the resolution.

6. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

- 6.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

- (a) to such person or committee;
 - (b) by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - (c) to such an extent;
 - (d) in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - (e) on such terms and conditions,
- as they decide.

6.2 If the directors so specify, any delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

6.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. COMMITTEES

7.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

7.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

8. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

8.1 Decisions of the directors may be taken:

- (a) at a directors' meeting; or
- (b) in the form of a directors' written resolution.

8.2 But if:

- (a) the company only has one director; and
- (b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors' decision-making.

9. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

9.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give that notice. The notice need not be in writing.

9.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:

- (a) its proposed date and time;
- (b) where it is to take place; and
- (c) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

9.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director who is entitled to receive notice but it shall not be necessary to give notice to a director who is absent from the United Kingdom at the time notice of the meeting is given.

9.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company before, on or after the date on which the meeting is held. Where the notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

10.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

10.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

10.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

11. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

11.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

11.2 The quorum for directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors and unless otherwise fixed it is two.

12. MEETINGS WHERE TOTAL NUMBER OF DIRECTORS LESS THAN QUORUM

12.1 This article applies where the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum for directors' meetings.

12.2 If there is only one director, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

12.3 If there is more than one director:

- (a) a directors' meeting may take place, if it is called in accordance with the articles and at least two directors participate in it, with a view to appointing sufficient directors to make up a quorum or calling a general meeting to do so; and
- (b) if a directors' meeting is called but only one director attends at the appointed date and time to participate in it, that director may appoint sufficient directors to make up a quorum or call a general meeting to do so.

13. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

13.1 The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

13.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

13.3 The directors may terminate the chairman's appointment at any time.

13.4 If the chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within 10 minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

14. VOTING AT DIRECTORS' MEETINGS: GENERAL RULES

14.1 Subject to the articles, a decision is taken at a directors' meeting by a majority of the votes of the participating directors.

14.2 Subject to the articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

15. CASTING VOTE

15.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

15.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

16. ALTERNATES VOTING AT DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

A director who is also an alternate director has an additional vote on behalf of each appointor who is:

- (a) not participating in a directors' meeting; and
- (b) would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it.

17. SITUATIONAL CONFLICTS

17.1 The directors may, in accordance with this article, authorise a matter proposed to them which would, if not authorised, involve a director breaching his or her duty under section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 to avoid a situation in which he or she has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the company's interests.

17.2 An authorisation referred to in article 17.1 is effective only if:

- (a) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting at which the matter is considered is met without counting the director in question or any other director who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter; and
- (b) the matter is agreed to without the director in question or any other director who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter voting or would have been agreed to if their votes had not been counted.

17.3 The directors may:

- (a) authorise a matter pursuant to article 17.1 on such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions on it, as they may decide; and
- (b) vary the terms or duration of such an authorisation (including any limits or conditions imposed on it) or revoke it.

17.4 Any terms, limits or conditions imposed by the directors in respect of their authorisation of a director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest pursuant to article 17.1 may provide that:

- (a) if the director has (other than as a director) information in relation to the matter in respect of which the director owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, the director is not obliged to disclose that information to the company or to use or apply it in performing his or her duties as a director;
- (b) the director is to be excluded from discussions in relation to the matter whether at a directors' meeting or any committee of directors or otherwise;
- (c) the director is not to be given any documents or other information in relation to the matter; and
- (d) the director may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at a directors' meeting or any committee of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the matter.

17.5 A director does not infringe any duty which the director owes to the company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Companies Act 2006 if the director acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of their authorisation of that director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest given pursuant to article 17.1.

17.6 A reference in the articles to a "conflict of interest" includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

18. RETENTION OF REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

18.1 A director is not, by reason of being a director, required to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which the director derives from, or in connection with, a relationship involving a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest which has been authorised by the directors pursuant to article 17.1 or by the company in general meeting but this is subject, in each case, to any terms, limits or conditions that apply in respect of that authorisation.

- 18.2 If a director has declared the nature and extent of his or her interest (to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006), the director, by reason of being a director:
- (a) is not required to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which the director derives from, or in connection with;
 - (b) being a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is directly or indirectly interested;
 - (c) acting (other than as auditor) alone or through an entity or firm in a professional capacity for the company and the director, entity or firm is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if the director was not a director; or
 - (d) being a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested in the company's subsidiaries, parent undertaking or any other body corporate in which the company is interested (and, for the purpose of this paragraph, the definition of "director" in article 2.1 does not apply).
- 18.3 A transaction or arrangement referred to in article 18.2 is not liable to be avoided on the ground of any remuneration, benefit or interest referred to in that article.
- 18.4 A director's receipt of any remuneration or other benefit referred to article 18.1 or 18.2 does not constitute an infringement of the director's duty under section 176 of the Companies Act 2006.

19. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND VOTING

If a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, and that director has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of that interest, that director is to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum purposes and the director may vote at that meeting or part of a meeting. For the purposes of this article a director shall be deemed to have disclosed the nature and extent of an interest which consists of him or her being a director, officer or employee of any parent undertaking or subsidiary undertaking of the company, or any subsidiary undertaking of any parent undertaking of the company.

20. PROPOSING DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

- 20.1 Any director may propose a directors' written resolution.
- 20.2 The company secretary (if any) must propose a directors' written resolution if a director requests.
- 20.3 A directors' written resolution is proposed by giving notice of the proposed resolution to the directors.
- 20.4 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate:
- (a) the proposed resolution; and
 - (b) the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it.
- 20.5 Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must be given in writing to each director.
- 20.6 Any decision which a person giving notice of a proposed directors' written resolution takes regarding the process of adopting that resolution must be taken reasonably in good faith.

21. ADOPTION OF DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

- 21.1 A proposed directors' written resolution is adopted when all the directors who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution at a directors' meeting have signed one or more copies of it, but only if, those directors would have formed a quorum at such a meeting.
- 21.2 It is immaterial whether any director signs the resolution before or after the time by which the notice proposed that it should be adopted.

21.3 Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles.

21.4 The directors or the company secretary (if any) must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, of all directors' written resolutions for at least 10 years from the date of their adoption.

22. CHANGE OF NAME

The company's name may be changed by:

- (a) a decision of the directors; or
- (b) by the holder or holders of more than half in nominal value of the shares giving the right to attend and vote at a general meeting of the company, giving notice to change the name in writing, and delivering such notice to the registered office of the company, a meeting of the directors or a general meeting of the company.

23. DIRECTORS' DISCRETION TO MAKE FURTHER RULES

Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they decide about how they take decisions, and about how those rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

24. METHODS OF APPOINTING DIRECTORS

24.1 Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director:

- (a) by ordinary resolution;
- (b) by a decision of the directors; or
- (c) by a notice given in accordance with article 26.

24.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

24.3 For the purposes of article 24.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

25. TERMINATION OF DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT

25.1 A person ceases to be a director as soon as:

- (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;
- (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;
- (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;
- (e) notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and that resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;
- (f) a notice given in accordance with article 26 takes effect; or

- (g) the directors resolve that the person should cease to be a director because the person and their alternate (if any) has been absent from directors' meetings for six consecutive months without the directors' permission.
- 25.2 The removal of a person as a director in accordance with article 25.1(f) or 25.1(g) is not to be taken as depriving that person of compensation or damages payable to that person in respect of the termination of their appointment as director or of any appointment terminating with that as director.
- 26. DIRECTOR'S APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL BY MAJORITY SHAREHOLDERS
 - 26.1 The holder or holders of more than half in nominal value of the shares giving the right to attend and vote at a general meeting of the company may at any time by notice to the company executed by or on behalf of the holder or holders:
 - (a) appoint any person to act as a director; and
 - (b) remove any director from office.
 - 26.2 An appointment or removal of a director under article 26.1:
 - (a) is to be sent or supplied to the company in accordance with article 64; and
 - (b) takes effect in accordance with the terms of the notice on the company's receipt of it.
- 27. DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION
 - 27.1 Directors may perform any services for the company that the directors decide.
 - 27.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors decide:
 - (a) for their services to the company as directors; and
 - (b) for any other service which they perform for the company.
 - 27.3 Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may:
 - (a) take any form; and
 - (b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, or insurance or otherwise.
 - 27.4 Unless the directors decide otherwise:
 - (a) directors' remuneration accrues from day to day; and
 - (b) directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested.
- 28. DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

 - (a) meetings of directors or committees of directors;
 - (b) general meetings; or
 - (c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

29. APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ALTERNATES

29.1 Any director (the "appointor") may appoint as an alternate any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors, to:

- (a) exercise that director's powers; and
- (b) carry out that director's responsibilities, in relation to the taking of decisions by the directors in the absence of the alternate's appointor.

29.2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the company signed by the appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors.

29.3 The notice must:

- (a) identify the proposed alternate; and
- (b) in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.

30. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

30.1 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting or directors' written resolution, as the alternate's appointor.

30.2 Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors are:

- (a) deemed for all purposes to be directors;
- (b) liable for their own acts and omissions;
- (c) subject to the same restrictions as their appointors; and
- (d) not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors.

30.3 A person who is an alternate director but not a director:

- (a) may be counted as participating for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is participating (but only if that person's appointor is not participating); and
- (b) may sign a written resolution (but only if it is not signed or to be signed by that person's appointor).

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for the purposes of article 30.3(a).

30.4 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except that part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

31. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- (a) when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
- (b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- (c) on the death of the alternate's appointor; or
- (d) when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates.

PART 3

33. POWERS TO ISSUE SHARES

- 34.2 That commission may be paid:
- (a) in cash, or in fully paid shares or other securities, or partly in one way and partly in the other; and
 - (b) in respect of a conditional or an absolute subscription.

INTERESTS IN SHARES

35. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

36. SHARE CERTIFICATES

 - (b) the nominal value of those shares;
 - (c) that the shares are fully paid; and
 - (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
- 36.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
- 36.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
- 36.5 Certificates must:
- (a) have affixed to them the company's common seal; or
 - (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.
- 37. REPLACEMENT SHARE CERTIFICATES
- 37.1 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is:
- (a) damaged or defaced; or

- that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.
- 37.2 A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with a replacement certificate:
- (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
 - (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
 - (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 38. SHARE TRANSFERS
- 38.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- 38.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 38.3 The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 38.4 The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as holder of it.
- 38.5 The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share for any reason including if:
- (a) the transfer is not lodged at the company's registered office or such other place as the directors have appointed;
 - (b) the transfer is not accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates, or such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the transferor's right to make the transfer, or evidence of the right of someone other than the transferor to make the transfer on the transferor's behalf;
 - (c) the transfer is in respect of more than one class of share; or
 - (d) the transfer is in favour of more than four transferees.

- 38.6 If the directors refuse to register the transfer of a share, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

39. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 39.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- 39.2 Nothing in these articles releases the estate of a deceased shareholder from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that shareholder.
- 39.3 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:
- (a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person; and
 - (b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.
- 39.4 But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

40. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

- 40.1 Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
- 40.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
- 40.3 Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

41. TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

- 41.1 If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

CONSOLIDATION OR DIVISION OF SHARES

42. SHARES RESULTING FROM A SUB-DIVISION

A resolution authorising the company to sub-divide its shares or any of them may decide that, as between the shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others.

43. PROCEDURE FOR DISPOSING OF FRACTIONS OF SHARES

- 43.1 This article applies where:
- (a) there has been a consolidation or division of shares; and
 - (b) as a result, holders of the shares are entitled to fractions of shares.
- 43.2 The directors may:
- (a) sell the shares representing the fractions to any person including the company for the best price reasonably obtainable;
 - (b) authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser; and

- (c) distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among the holders of the shares.
- 43.3 Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale amounts to less than a minimum figure decided by the directors, that holder's portion may be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- 43.4 The person to whom the shares are transferred is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions.
- 43.5 The transferee's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to their sale.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

44. PROCEDURE FOR DECLARING DIVIDENDS

- 44.1 The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
- 44.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
- 44.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 44.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 44.5 If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.
- 44.6 The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.
- 44.7 If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may incur by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

45. CALCULATION OF DIVIDENDS

- 45.1 Except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, all dividends must be:
 - (a) declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares on which the dividend is paid; and
 - (b) apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid.
- 45.2 Except as otherwise provided by the articles or the rights attached to shares, a dividend or other sum which is a distribution may be declared and paid in any currency decided by the directors. The directors may decide the rate of exchange for any currency conversions that may be required and how any costs involved are to be met.
- 45.3 If any share is issued on terms providing that it ranks for dividend as from a particular date, that share ranks for dividend accordingly.
- 45.4 For the purposes of calculating dividends, no account is to be taken of any amount which has been paid up on a share in advance of the due date for payment of that amount.

46. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

46.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

- (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
- (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post:
 - (i) to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient's registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share); or
 - (ii) (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide;
- (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person (by post to that person) at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
- (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide.

46.2 In the articles, "distribution recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

- (a) the holder of the share;
- (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
- (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee.

47. NO INTEREST ON DISTRIBUTIONS

The company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

- (a) the terms on which the share was issued; or
- (b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company.

48. UNCLAIMED DISTRIBUTIONS

48.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

- (a) payable in respect of shares; and
- (b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed.

48.2 The payment of such a dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it.

48.3 If:

- (a) 12 years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and
- (b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company.

49. NON-CASH DISTRIBUTIONS

49.1 Subject to the terms of issue of a share, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of the share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including shares or other securities in any company).

49.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they decide, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

- (a) fixing the value of any assets;
- (b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value to adjust the rights of recipients; and
- (c) vesting any assets in trustees.

50. WAIVER OF DISTRIBUTIONS

Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect. But if:

- (a) the share has more than one holder; or
- (b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

51. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

51.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

- (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts; and
- (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

51.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

- (a) on behalf of the persons entitled; and
- (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

51.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

51.4 A capitalised sum which has been appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

51.5 Subject to the articles the directors may:

- (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 51.3 and 51.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
- (b) make such arrangements as they decide to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and

- (c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article.

PART 4
DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS
ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

52. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 52.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 52.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
 - (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - (b) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not those resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 52.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 52.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 52.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

53. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETINGS

No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

54. CHAIRING GENERAL MEETINGS

- 54.1 If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman is entitled to chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 54.2 If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within 10 minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:
 - (a) the directors present; or
 - (b) (if no directors are present), the meeting,must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.
- 54.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as "the chairman of the meeting".

55. ATTENDANCE AND SPEAKING BY DIRECTORS AND NON-SHAREHOLDERS

- 55.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.
- 55.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not:
 - (a) shareholders of the company; or
 - (b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

56. ADJOURNMENT

- 56.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.
- 56.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- (a) the meeting consents to an adjournment; or
 - (b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 56.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 56.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:
- (a) either specify the time, date and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time, date and place to be fixed by the directors; and
 - (b) have regard to any directions as to the time, date and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 56.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given; and
 - (b) containing the same information which the notice is required to contain.
- 56.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

57. VOTING: GENERAL

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

58. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

- 58.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 58.2 An objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

59. POLL VOTES

- 59.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:
- (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or
 - (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 59.2 A poll may be demanded by:
- (a) the chairman of the meeting;
 - (b) the directors;

- (c) at least two persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
 - (d) a person or persons representing not less than 10 percent of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.
- 59.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
- (a) the poll has not yet been taken; and
 - (b) the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
- 59.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.
60. CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES
- 60.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
- (a) states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy;
 - (b) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - (c) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may decide; and
 - (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 60.2 The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 60.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 60.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
 - (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
61. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES
- 61.1 A notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (each a "proxy notification address") at which the company will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or (unless the directors decide otherwise in relation to a specific general meeting) electronic form.
- 61.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
- 61.3 A proxy notice must be delivered to a proxy notification address before the start of the general meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 61.4 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given to a proxy notification address.
- 61.5 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 61.6 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

62. AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

62.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

- (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may decide); and
- (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

62.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

- (a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and
- (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

62.3 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

APPLICATION OF RULES TO CLASS MEETINGS

63. CLASS MEETINGS

The provisions of the articles relating to general meetings apply, with any necessary modifications, to meetings of the holders of any class of shares.

PART 5
