Notes

(forming part of the financial statements)

1 Accounting policies

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the company's financial statements.

Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

Cash flow statement

The company has taken advantage of the exemption conferred by Financial Reporting Standard 1: 'Cash flow statements' not to prepare a cash flow statement on the grounds that the company is a wholly owned subsidiary.

Group accounts

The company is exempt by virtue of s400 of the Companies Act 2006 from the requirement to prepare group accounts as it and its subsidiary undertakings are included in the consolidated financial statements of its parent. These financial statements present information about the company as an individual undertaking and not about its group.
