The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

To the knowledge and belief of each of the persons who are directors at the time the report is approved:

- So far as the director is aware, there is no relevant information of which the company's auditor is unaware, and
