signed on its behalf by an authorised officer of that body; on receipt of the notice by the company, it shall cease to be a member.

Register of members

- 21 The directors shall procure that a register of members is maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Act and shall ensure that the appropriate entries in the register of members are made immediately after any change in the membership of the company occurs.

General meetings

- 22 The directors shall convene an annual general meeting in each year.
- 23 Not more than 15 months shall elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.

- 28 A notice calling a meeting shall specify the time, date and place of the meeting; it shall (a) indicate the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting; (b) if a special resolution (see article 47) or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act is to be proposed, state that fact, giving the exact terms of the resolution; and (c) contain a statement informing members of their right to appoint a proxy.
- 29 A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify that the meeting is to be an annual general meeting.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 31 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present; one person present and entitled to vote (being a proxy for a member or a duly authorised representative of a member which is a corporate body) shall be a quorum.
- 32 If the quorum required under article 31 is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 33 The Chair of the company shall (if present and willing to act) preside as chairperson of the meeting; if the Chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Vice Chair shall act as chairperson of the meeting.
- 34 If neither the Chair nor the Vice Chair is present and willing to act as chairperson of the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their number to act as chairperson of the meeting or, if there is only one director present and willing to act, he/she shall be chairperson of the meeting.
- 35 Each of the directors shall, notwithstanding that he/she is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 36 The chairperson of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting at which a quorum is present (and must, if the meeting requests him/her to do so), adjourn the meeting but not for a period in excess of thirty days; no notice need be given of an adjourned meeting.
- 37 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before the show of hands, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared, a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson of the meeting or by any person present at the meeting and entitled to vote (whether as proxy for a member or as the representative of a member which is an incorporated body).
- 38 If a secret ballot is demanded in accordance with the preceding article, it shall be taken at once and shall be conducted in such manner as the chairperson of the meeting may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

- 39 Every member shall have one vote, which may be given either via its duly authorised representative present at the meeting or by proxy.

40 A member which wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on its behalf at any meeting:-

40.1 shall lodge with the company, at the company's registered office, a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require), signed by an appropriate officer of the member; or

40.2 shall send by electronic means to the company at such electronic address as may have been notified to the members by the company for that purpose, an instrument of proxy (in such form as the directors require) providing (in either case) the instrument of proxy is received by the company at the relevant address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting); for the avoidance of doubt, in calculating the 48-hour period referred to in the preceding provisions of this article 40, no account shall be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day.

41 An instrument of proxy which does not conform with the provisions of article 40, or which is not lodged or sent in accordance with such provisions, shall be invalid.

42 A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.

43 A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member which appointed him/her to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the company.

44 A member which is an incorporated body may authorise an individual to act as its representative at any general meeting of the company, providing particulars of the individual so authorised and of the body which he/she is to represent are received by the company prior to the commencement of the general meeting; the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the member which he/she represents as that incorporated body could exercise if it were an individual member.

45 A vote given by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a member which is an incorporated body shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting had terminated prior to the giving of such vote unless notice of such termination was received by the company at the company's registered office (or, where contained in an electronic communication, was received by the company at the address notified by the company to the members for the purpose of electronic communication) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given.

46 The chairperson of a meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote if an equality of votes arises in relation to any resolution.

- 48 In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the company, by special resolution:-

- 48.2 to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.
- 49 For the purposes of these articles, an “ordinary resolution” means a resolution of the members, which is either (a) passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes cast against), at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 26 to 30; or (b) passed by members representing a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members, when passed by way of a written resolution in accordance with articles 50 to 53.

Written resolutions

- 50 A written resolution can be passed by the members of the company (having been proposed by either the members or the directors in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act) and will have effect as if passed by the members of the company in general meeting; a written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it by sending to the company (in hard copy or electronic form) an authenticated document which identifies the resolution to which it relates and which indicates the member’s agreement to it.
- 51 For the purposes of the preceding article: -
- 51.1 the reference to “eligible members” is to those members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution (which is either (a) the date on which copies of the written resolution are sent or submitted to the members in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act; or (b) if copies are sent or submitted to members on different days, the first of those dates);

- 51.2 the reference to “required majority” is to the majority required to pass an ordinary or a special resolution under the Act, as follows: -
- 51.2.1 in order to pass an ordinary resolution by way of written resolution, it must be passed (in accordance with article 50) by members representing a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible members;
- 51.2.2 in order to pass a special resolution by way of written resolution, it must be passed (in accordance with article 50) by members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible members and the resolution must specifically state that it was proposed as a special resolution.
- 52 For the avoidance of doubt, a resolution to remove a director (under section 168 of the Act) or a resolution to remove an auditor (under section 510 of the Act) cannot be proposed as a written resolution under article 50.
- 53 For the purposes of article 50, a proposed written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before the end of a period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date (as defined in article 51) and the agreement of any member to a written resolution will be ineffective if signified after the expiry of that period.

- 76 Each office shall be held (subject to article 77) until the conclusion of the annual general meeting which follows the date of appointment of an individual to the relevant office; a director whose period of office expires under this article may be reappointed to that office under article 73 (providing he/she is willing to act).
- 77 The appointment of any director as Chair, Vice Chair, Chair of the Audit Committee or as holder of any other office under article 73, shall terminate if he/she ceases to be a director or if he/she resigns from that office by notice to the company.
- 78 If the appointment of a director to any office under article 73 terminates, the directors shall appoint another director to hold the office in his/her place.

Directors' interests

- 79 Subject to the provisions of the Act and of article 8 (as read with article 9) and provided that he/she has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of any personal interest which he/she has (unless immaterial) and has complied with the code of conduct (as referred to in article 87), a director (notwithstanding his/her office):-
- 79.1 may be a party to, or have some other personal interest in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or any associated company;
- 79.2 may be a party to, or have some other personal interest in, any transaction or arrangement in which the company or any associated company has an interest;
- 79.3 in the case of the Executive Director, may be employed by the company;

- 79.4 may be a director or secretary of, or employed by, or have some other personal interest in, any associated company;
- 79.5 shall not, because of his/her office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he/she derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such company;
- and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be treated as void on the ground of any such interest or benefit.
- 80 For the purposes of the preceding article, an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him/her to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his/hers; the references to “associated company” shall be interpreted as references to any subsidiary of the company or any other company in which the company has a direct or indirect interest.
- 81 Without prejudice to article 82, a director may be an elected representative of Glasgow City Council; the duty of directors under section 175 of the Act to avoid situations under which they have, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the company shall not extend to any such relationship with Glasgow City Council.
- 82 In addition to the authorisation given by article 81, the directors shall be entitled, for the purposes of section 175 of the Act, to authorise (by way of resolution to that effect) any Conflict Situation that may arise (such that the duty of the director concerned, under that section, to avoid conflicts of interest is not infringed) and to amend or vary any such authorisation; the directors may give such authorisation subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 83 For the avoidance of doubt, articles 81 and 82 shall not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company; any conflict of interest of that nature shall be governed by the provisions of articles 79, 80 and 108 to 113 and the code of conduct referred to in article 87.
- 84 The directors shall procure that a register of directors’ interests is maintained in accordance with the provisions in this regard contained in the code of conduct for directors referred to in article 87.

or other connection which he/she may have with any other body which may have an interest in the matter in question.

- 86 Without prejudice to the principle set out in article 85, each of the directors shall have a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the company; and, in particular, must:-

86.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;

86.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the company and any party responsible for the appointment of that director

86.3.1 put the interests of the company before that of the other party;

86.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the company and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other directors with regard to the matter in question;

86.4 ensure that the company complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

- 87 Each of the directors shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board of directors from time to time; for the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of directors contained in these articles of association, and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

- 109 For the purposes of the preceding article:-
- 109.1 an interest of a person who is taken to be connected with a director for any purpose of the Act, shall be treated as a personal interest of the director; and
- 109.2 a director shall (subject to article 110) be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which he/she is an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.
