THE EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL TELEVISION FESTIVAL LIMITED

(COMPANY NUMBER SC135838)

THE COMPANIES ACT 2006

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES of ASSOCIATION

THE EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL TELEVISION FESTIVAL LIMITED

(Company number SC135838)

(adopted by the Company on 29 January 2024)

GENERAL

GENERAL

1 The following definitions and rules of interpretation shall apply in these articles:

1.1 Defined terms:

Board: the Directors.

Companies Act: the Companies Act 2006.

Director: a director of the Company.

Member: a shareholder of the Company.

Model Articles: the model articles for private companies limited by shares contained in Schedule 1 of the Companies (Model Articles) Regulations 2008 (SI 2008/3229), as amended prior to the date of adoption of these articles and reference to a numbered Model Article is a reference to that article of the Model Articles.

Scottish Charities Act: the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

1.2 Unless expressly provided otherwise in these articles, words and expressions which have particular meanings in the Model Articles shall have the same meanings in these articles, subject to which and unless the context otherwise requires, words and expressions which have particular meanings in the Companies Act shall have the same meanings in these articles. The final paragraph of Model Article 1 shall not apply to the Company.

- 1.3 Headings in these articles are used for convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of these Articles.
- 1.4 A reference in these articles to a numbered Article is a reference to the relevant article of these articles unless expressly provided otherwise.
- 1.5 Unless expressly provided otherwise in these articles, a reference to legislation, a legislative provision or subordinate legislation is a reference to it as it is in force from time to time, taking account of:
- (a) any subordinate legislation made under it, whether before or after the date of adoption of these articles; and
 - (b) any amendment or re-enactment, whether before or after the date of adoption of these articles and includes any legislation, legislative provision or subordinate legislation which it amends or re-enacts.

This article 1.5 shall not apply to the definition of Model Articles in article 1.1.

- 1.6 A reference to a holding company or subsidiary means a holding company or a subsidiary (as the case may be) as defined in section 1159 of the Companies Act.
- 1.7 The Model Articles shall apply to the Company, except in so far as they are modified or excluded by, or are inconsistent with, these articles.
- 1.8 Model Articles 7(2), 11(2) and (3), 12, 14(1), (2), (3) and (4), 17, 18, 19, 20, and 37 to 53 (inclusive) shall not apply to the Company.

DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

General meetings (meetings of Members)

- 2 The Board must arrange a meeting of Members (an “annual general meeting” or “AGM”) in each year.
- 3 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.
- 4 Notwithstanding article 2, an AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the Company is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the Company is formed.
- 5 The business of each annual general meeting must include:
- (a) a report by the chair on the activities of the Company;
 - (b) consideration of the annual accounts of the Company;

- (c) the election/re-election of Directors, as referred to in articles 57 to 62.
- 6 Subject to articles 2 to 4 and article 7, the Board may arrange a general meeting at any time.
- 7 The Board must convene a general meeting if there is a valid requisition by Members (under section 303 of the Companies Act) or a requisition by a resigning auditor (under section 518 of the Companies Act).

Notice of general meetings

- 8 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of a general meeting.
- 9 The notice calling a general meeting must specify the time and (subject to article 15) place of the meeting; and also:
 - (a) it must specify in general terms what business is to be dealt with at the meeting;
 - (b) if a special resolution (see article 16) (or a resolution requiring special notice under the Companies Act) is to be proposed, it must state that it is to be proposed as a special resolution (or – as applicable – as a resolution requiring special notice), and must set out the exact terms of the resolution;
 - (c) in the case of a resolution to alter the articles, it must set out the exact terms of the proposed alteration(s); and
 - (d) it must include a statement referring to the rights of a Member regarding the appointment of another person as their proxy to attend, speak and vote at the general meeting in their place.
- 10 A notice convening an annual general meeting must specify that the meeting is to be an annual general meeting.
- 11 The reference to “clear days” in article 8 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice:
 - (a) the day after the notices are posted (or sent by email), should be excluded; and
 - (b) the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.
- 12 Notice of every general meeting must be given to all the Members of the Company, and to all the Directors; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more Members or Directors will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 13 Any notice which requires to be given to a Member under these articles must be:
 - (a) sent by post to the Member, at the address last notified by them to the Company; or
 - (b) sent by email to the Member, at the email address last notified by them to the Company; or

- (c) (subject to the Company notifying Members of the presence of the notice on the website and complying with the other requirements of section 309 of the Companies Act) by means of a website.
- 14 If Members and Directors are to be permitted to participate in a general meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) (see article 19), the notice (or notes accompanying the notice) must:
 - (a) set out details of how to connect and participate via that link or links; and
 - (b) (particularly for the benefit of those Members who may have difficulties in using a computer or laptop for this purpose) draw Members' attention to the following options:
 - (i) participating in the meeting via an audio link accessed by phone, using dial-in details (if that forms part of the arrangements);
 - (ii) appointing the chairperson of the meeting as proxy, and directing the chairperson on how they should use that proxy vote in relation to each resolution to be proposed at the meeting; and
 - (iii) (where attendance in person is to be permitted, either on an open basis or with a restriction on the total number who will be permitted to attend) attending and voting in person at the meeting.
- 15 If participation in the meeting is to be by way of audio and/or audio-visual links, with no intention for the meeting to involve attendance in person by two or more Members in any particular location, the place of the meeting shall, for the purposes of the notice calling the meeting, be taken to be the place where the anticipated chairperson of the meeting is expected to be, as at the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting; and, if it transpires that the chairperson of the meeting is at some other place as at the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be taken to have been validly adjourned to that other place.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

- 16 For the purposes of these articles, a "special resolution" means (subject to articles 43 to 46 (written resolutions)) a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 8 to 15; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the total number of votes cast in relation to the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or Members absent from the meeting.

- 17 In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Companies Act allow the Company, by special resolution,
- (a) to alter its name;
 - (b) to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.
- 18 For the purposes of these articles, an “ordinary resolution” means (subject to articles 43 to 46 (written resolutions)) a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes against), at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 8 to 15.

Procedure at general meetings

- 19 The Board may if they consider appropriate (and must, if that is required under article 20) make arrangements for Members and Directors to participate in general meetings by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting, providing:
- (a) the means by which Members and Directors can participate via those link(s) are not subject to technical complexities, significant costs or other factors which are likely to represent, for all or a significant proportion of the membership, a barrier to participation;
 - (b) the notice calling the meeting (or notes accompanying the notice) contains the information required under article 14; and
 - (c) the manner in which the meeting is conducted ensures, so far as reasonably possible, that those Members and Directors who participate via an audio or audio-visual link are not disadvantaged with regard to their ability to contribute to discussions at the meeting, as compared with those Members and Directors (if any) who are attending in person (and vice versa).
- 20 If restrictions arising from public health legislation or guidance are likely to mean that attendance in person at a proposed general meeting would not be possible or advisable for all or a significant proportion of the membership, the Board must make arrangements for Members and Directors to participate in that general meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting; and on the basis that the requirements set out in paragraphs (a) to (c) of article 19 will apply.
- 21 A general meeting may involve two or more Members or Directors participating via attendance in person while other Members and/or

- Directors participate via audio and/or audio-visual links; or it may involve participation solely via audio and/or audio-visual links.
- 22 References in articles 14 to 15 and articles 19 to 21 to Members should be taken to include proxies for Members.
- 23 The quorum for a general meeting shall be 3 Members, present in person or represented by proxy.
- 24 An individual participating in a general meeting via an audio or audio-visual link which allows them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting will be deemed to be present in person (or, if they are not a Member, will be deemed to be in attendance) at the meeting.
- 25 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a general meeting was due to start, or if a quorum ceases to be present during a general meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and (subject to article 29) place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 26 The chair of the Company should act as chairperson of each general meeting.
- 27 If the chair of the Company is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the Directors present at the meeting must elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 28 The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting to such time and (subject to article 29) place as the chairperson may determine.
- 29 Article 15 shall apply in relation to the requirement under articles 25 and 28 for the chairperson to specify the place of an adjourned meeting.

Voting at general meetings

- 30 Every Member shall have one vote, which (whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot) may be given either personally or by proxy (subject to article 38).
- 31 Any Member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting):
- (a) shall lodge with the Company, at the Company's registered office, a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the Board require), signed by them; or
 - (b) shall send by email to the Company, at the email address notified to the Members by the Company for that purpose, an instrument of proxy (in such form as the Board require); providing (in either case), the instrument of proxy is received by the Company at the relevant address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting).

- 32 An instrument of proxy which does not conform with the provisions of article 31, or which is not lodged or sent in accordance with such provisions, shall be invalid.
- 33 A Member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.
- 34 A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a Member shall have the same right as the Member who appointed them to speak at the meeting and need not be a Member of the Company.
- 35 A vote given, or ballot demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a ballot had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such ballot, unless notice of such termination was received by the Company at the Company's registered office (or, where sent by email, was received by the Company at the address notified by the Company to the Members for the purpose of email communications) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the ballot demanded.
- 36 If there are an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote.
- 37 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson (or by at least two persons present in person at the meeting and entitled to vote (whether as Members or proxies for Members)); a secret ballot may be demanded either before the show of hands takes place, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared.
- 38 Where Members are participating in a meeting via an audio or audio-visual link, they may cast their vote on any resolution orally, or by way of some form of visual indication, or by use of a voting button or similar, or by way of a message sent electronically; and providing the Board have no reasonable grounds for suspicion as regards authenticity, any such action shall be deemed to be a vote cast personally via a show of hands.
- 39 If a secret ballot is demanded, it shall be taken at the meeting and shall be conducted in such manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
- 40 Where Members are participating in a meeting via audio and/or audio-visual links, the chairperson's directions regarding how a secret ballot is to be conducted may allow those Members to cast their votes on the secret ballot via any or all of the methods referred to in article 38, providing reasonable steps are taken to preserve anonymity (while at the same time, addressing any risk of irregularities in the process).

- 41 The principles set out in articles 38 and 40 shall also apply in relation to the casting of votes by an individual in their capacity as proxy for a Member.

Technical objections to remote participation in general meetings

- 42 These articles impose certain requirements regarding the use of audio and/or audio-visual links as a means of participation and voting at general meetings; providing the arrangements made by the Board in relation to a given general meeting (and the manner in which the general meeting is conducted) are consistent with those requirements:
- (a) a Member cannot insist on participating in the general meeting, or voting at the general meeting, by any particular means;
 - (b) the general meeting need not be held in any particular place;
 - (c) the general meeting may be held without any particular number of those participating in the meeting being present in person at the same place (but notwithstanding that, the quorum requirements, taking account of those participating via audio and/or audio-visual links, must still be met);
 - (d) the general meeting may be held by any means which permits those participating in the meeting to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting;
 - (e) a Member will be able to exercise the right to vote at the general meeting (including where a secret ballot is to be held) by such means as is determined by the chairperson of the meeting (consistent with the arrangements made by the Board) and which permits that Member's vote to be taken into account in determining whether or not a resolution is passed.

Written resolutions by Members

- 43 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by email) by the required majority (see article 46) of the Members who would have been entitled (as at the date on which it is circulated) to vote on it if it had been proposed at a general meeting will (subject to article 45) be as valid as if it had been passed at a general meeting; and the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last Member agreed to it.
- 44 A copy of any proposed resolution under article 43 must be sent (in writing or by email; and at the same time, so far as reasonably possible) to all those Members entitled to vote on it; and it must be accompanied in each case by a statement:
- (a) informing the Member of the ways in which they can give their agreement to the resolution; and

- (b) notifying the Member of the date when the resolution would lapse if the required majority of the Members have not given their agreement by that date (see paragraph (a) of article 45).
- 45 In order for a resolution to be valid under article 43:
 - (a) it must be agreed to by the required majority of the Members within 28 days after it is circulated among the Members;
 - (b) in the case of a special resolution, the resolution must state specifically that it is being proposed as a special resolution.
- 46 For the purposes of articles 43 and 45, “required majority” means:
 - (a) in the case of a special resolution - 75% or more;
 - (b) in the case of an ordinary resolution – more than 50%;and on the basis that (if all Members have voting rights) these percentages are to be applied to the total membership of the Company at the time.

Minutes of general meetings

- 47 The Board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all general meetings, and that a proper record is kept of all resolutions agreed to in writing or by email under articles 43 to 46.
- 48 Minutes of general meetings must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 49 The records of resolutions kept under article 47 must include confirmation that each resolution was passed as a special resolution (or, as applicable, an ordinary resolution); and should be signed by the chair of the Company.

Issue of new shares

- 50 The Board shall not exercise any power of the Company to allot shares or other securities in, or to grant rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares or other securities of, the Company unless it is approved by a special resolution. Without limitation, the powers of the directors under section 550 of the Companies Act are limited accordingly.

DIRECTORS

Number of Directors

- 51 The maximum number of Directors is 12.
- 52 The minimum number of Directors is 3.

Eligibility

- 53 A person who has served as a Director for a period of 6 years shall automatically vacate office on expiry of that 6-year period and shall then not be eligible for re-election until at least a further year has elapsed.
- 54 For the purposes of article 53:
- (a) the period from the date of the formation of the Company to the first annual general meeting shall be deemed to be a period of one year, unless it is of less than six months' duration in which case it shall be disregarded
 - (b) the period between the date of appointment of a Director and the annual general meeting which next follows shall be deemed to be a period of one year, unless it is of less than six months' duration in which case it shall be disregarded
 - (c) the period between one annual general meeting and the next shall be deemed to be a period of one year
 - (d) if a Director ceases to hold office but is re-appointed as a Director within a period of six months, they shall be deemed to have held office as a Director continuously.
- 55 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the Board if they are:
- (a) disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Scottish Charities Act; or
 - (b) an employee of the Company.

Initial Directors

- 56 The individuals who were named as prospective Directors in the incorporation documents automatically hold office as Directors with effect from the time when the Company was incorporated; but they will be deemed, for the purposes of these articles, to have been appointed under article 58 with effect from that time.

Election, retiral, re-election

- 57 At each AGM, the Members may elect any person (subject to articles 51 and 55, and providing they are willing to act) to be a Director.
- 58 The Board may at any time appoint any person (subject to articles 51 and 55, and providing they are willing to act) to be a Director.
- 59 At each annual general meeting (other than the first)
- (a) any Director appointed under article 58 during the period since the preceding annual general meeting shall retire from office
 - (b) out of the remaining Directors, one third (to the nearest round number) shall retire from office.

- 60 The Directors to retire under paragraph (b) of article 59 shall be those who have been longest in office since they were last elected or re-elected; as between persons who were last elected/re-elected on the same date, the question of which of them is to retire shall be determined by some random method.
- 61 A Director who retires from office under article 59 shall be eligible (subject to article 53) for re-election and shall submit such information as may be requested by the Board in support of such re-election.
- 62 A Director retiring at an AGM will be deemed to have been re-elected unless:
- (a) they advise the Board prior to the conclusion of the AGM that they do not wish to be re-appointed as a Director; or
 - (b) an election process was held at the AGM and they were not among those elected/re-elected through that process.

Termination of office

- 63 A Director shall automatically vacate office if:
- (a) they cease to be a Director through the operation of any provision of the Companies Act or become prohibited by law from being a Director;
 - (b) they become disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Scottish Charities Act;
 - (c) they become incapable for medical reasons of fulfilling their duties as a Director, but only if that has continued (or is expected to continue) for a period of more than six months;
 - (d) they become an employee of the Company;
 - (e) they give the Company a notice of resignation (either in writing or by email);
 - (f) they are absent (without good reason, in the opinion of the Board) from more than one Board meeting in any calendar year, but only if the Board resolve to remove them from office;
 - (g) they are removed from office by resolution of the Board on the grounds that they are considered to have committed a serious breach of the code of conduct for Directors in force from time to time (as referred to in article 90); or
 - (h) they are removed from office by ordinary resolution (special notice having been given) in pursuance of section 168 of the Companies Act.
- 64 A resolution under paragraph (g) of article 63 shall be valid only if:

- (a) the Director concerned is given reasonable prior notice (in writing or by email) of the grounds upon which the resolution for their removal is to be proposed;
- (b) the Director concerned is given the opportunity to address the Board meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and
- (c) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the Directors then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of Directors

- 65 The Board must keep a register of Directors, setting out full details of each Director, including the date on which they became a Director, and also specifying the date on which any person ceased to hold office as a Director; the Board must also keep a register of Directors' residential addresses.
- 66 The register of Directors must be made available for inspection in compliance with section 162 of the Companies Act.

Office-bearers

- 67 The Board must elect (from among themselves) a chair who will serve for such period as the Board may determine from time to time.
- 68 In addition to the office-bearers required under article 67, the Board may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.
- 69 A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office:
 - (a) if they cease to be a Director; or
 - (b) if they give to the Company a notice of resignation from that office (either in writing or by email).

Powers of Board

- 70 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and these articles, and subject to any directions given by special resolution under article 72:
 - (a) the Company (and its assets and undertaking) shall be managed by the Board; and
 - (b) the Board may exercise all the powers of the Company.
- 71 A meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Board.
- 72 The Members may, by special resolution, direct the Board to take any particular step or direct the Board not to take any particular step; and the Board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Directors' general duties

- 73 Each of the Directors shall, in exercising their functions as a Director of the Company, act in the interests of the Company; and, in particular, must:
- (a) seek, in good faith, to ensure that the Company acts in a manner which is in accordance with its objects;
 - (b) act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
 - (c) in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the Company and any other party:
 - (i) put the interests of the Company before that of the other party, in taking decisions as a Director; or
 - (ii) where any other duty prevents them from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the Company and refrain from participating in any discussions or decisions involving the other Directors with regard to the matter in question.

Conflicts of interest involving Directors - general

- 74 The Board shall use every effort to ensure that conflicts of interest involving Directors (including those which relate to individuals or bodies connected with Directors) are identified at the earliest opportunity and appropriately managed; the following provisions of these articles are of particular relevance in that regard:
- (a) articles 76 to 81 (reflecting similar provisions contained in the Companies Act) require Directors to declare any personal interest which they (or an individual or body connected with them) may have in any transaction or other arrangement with the Company;
 - (b) article 108 prohibits a Director with a personal interest of this nature from voting on the question of whether the Company should enter into that arrangement;
 - (c) articles 82 to 85 refer to the duty on Directors under the Companies Act to avoid any conflict of interest situation, and outline the process by which the Board may authorise a conflict of interest situation if they consider that to be appropriate (note: this does not apply to a conflict of interest relating to a transaction or other arrangement with the Company);
 - (d) article 86 (reflecting similar provisions contained in the Scottish Charities Act) set out restrictions and conditions which would apply to any arrangement under which remuneration would be paid to a Director (or where the Director might benefit from remuneration paid to a connected party).
- 75 In addition to complying with the articles referred to in article 74:

- (a) the Board must maintain a register of Directors' interests;
- (b) the chairperson of each Board meeting must invite declarations of interest, shortly after the commencement of the meeting;
- (c) the minutes of each Board meeting must record any conflicts of interest which have been declared at the meeting, and must set out in detail how any such conflicts of interest have been managed.

Conflicts of interest relating to transactions/arrangements with the Company

- 76 A Director who has a personal interest (directly or indirectly) in any transaction or other arrangement which the Company is proposing to enter into, must declare that interest (including details of the nature and extent of the Director's interest) at a Board meeting.
- 77 Any declaration under article 76 must be made before the discussion at the Board meeting on the question of whether the transaction or other arrangement should be entered into.
- 78 A Director who has a personal interest in any transaction or other arrangement which the Company is proposing to enter into will be debarred under article 108 (unless the special circumstances outlined in article 110 apply) from voting on the question of whether or not the Company should enter into that arrangement.
- 79 Where a transaction or arrangement has already been entered into by the Company and a Director has a personal interest in that arrangement, that Director must (unless they declared their interest in advance of the Company entering into the arrangement, in accordance with articles 76 and 77) declare the nature and extent of their interest at a Board meeting or by way of a notice to the Directors.
- 80 For the purposes of articles 76, 78 and 79, a Director shall be deemed to have a personal interest in an arrangement if:
 - (a) an individual who is "connected" with the Director under section 68(2) of the Scottish Charities Act (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc) has an interest in that arrangement; or
 - (b) a body in relation to which they are an employee, director, Member of the management committee, officer or elected representative (or a body in relation to which they are a major shareholder or have some other significant financial interest) has an interest in that arrangement.
- 81 Provided they have declared their interest, and have not voted on the question of whether or not the Company should enter into the arrangement, a Director will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the Company in which they have a personal interest where that is not prohibited under article 86 or 87; and (subject to article 87), they may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.

Conflict of interest situations

- 82 Section 175 of the Companies Act imposes a duty on every Director to avoid any situation (referred to below as a "Conflict Situation") in which they have, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the Company, unless the matter has been authorised by the Board (as referred to in article 85).
- 83 For the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act, conflict of interest is taken to include a conflict of interest and duty, and a conflict of duty.
- 84 The duty referred to in article 82 does not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company; any conflict of interest of that kind should be addressed in accordance with the provisions set out or referred to in articles 76 to 81, and the code of conduct referred to in article 90.
- 85 The Board may, if they consider it appropriate to do so, pass a resolution (in accordance with the provisions of section 175 of the Companies Act), authorising any particular Conflict Situation; the Board may give authorisation subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances, and may amend or vary any such authorisation.

Remuneration and expenses

- 86 No Director may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the Company, and no Director may be given any remuneration by the Company for carrying out their ordinary duties as a Director.
- 87 Where a Director provides services to the Company or might benefit from any remuneration paid to a connected party for such services, then:
- (a) the maximum amount of the remuneration must be specified in a written agreement and must be reasonable;
 - (b) the Board must be satisfied that it would be in the interests of the Company to enter into the arrangement (taking account of that maximum amount); and
 - (c) less than half of the Directors must be receiving remuneration from the Company (or benefit from remuneration of that nature).
- 88 The Directors may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with their attendance at Board meetings, general meetings, or meetings of committees, or otherwise in connection with the carrying-out of their duties.
- 89 The Company may also enter into an arrangement with a Member who is not a Director (or with a person or body connected with them) under which that Member (or the connected person or body) receives payment for goods or services provided by them to the Company, but only if:
- (a) the terms and conditions (including the amount of the payment(s)) are at least as good (from the Company's point of view) as those which would be expected if the goods or services had been sourced on the open market; and

- (b) the Board are satisfied, after careful consideration, that the arrangement is in the best interests of the Company; and the same principles will apply in relation to any arrangement under which a Member (or a person or body connected with a Member) lets premises to the Company or makes a loan to the Company.

Code of conduct for Directors

- 90 Each of the Directors shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the Board from time to time.
- 91 For the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of Directors contained in these articles of association; and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

DECISION-MAKING BY THE DIRECTORS

Notice of Board meetings

- 92 Any Director may call a meeting of the Board or may ask the secretary to call a meeting of the Board.
- 93 At least 7 days' notice must be given of each Board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.
- 94 If Directors are to be permitted to participate in a Board meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s), the Directors must, in advance of the meeting, be provided with details of how to connect and participate via that link or links; and (particularly for the benefit of those Directors who may have difficulties in using a computer or laptop for this purpose) the Directors' attention should be drawn to the following options:
 - (a) participating in the meeting via an audio link accessed by phone, using dial-in details (if that forms part of the arrangements);
 - (b) (where attendance in person is to be permitted, either on an open basis or subject to a restriction on the total number who will be permitted to attend) the ability to attend the meeting in person.

Procedure at Board meetings

- 95 No valid decisions can be taken at a Board meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for Board meetings is 3 Directors, present in person.

- 96 An individual participating in a Board meeting via an audio or audio-visual link which allows them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting will be deemed to be present in person (or, if they are not a Director, will be deemed to be in attendance) at the meeting.
- 97 If at any time the number of Directors in office falls below the number stated as the quorum in article 95, the remaining Director(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a general meeting, but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.
- 98 The chair of the Company should act as chairperson of each Board meeting.
- 99 If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the Directors present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of the meeting.
- 100 Every Director has one vote, which must be given personally (subject to article 106).
- 101 All decisions at Board meetings will be made by majority vote.
- 102 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 103 The Board may, if they consider appropriate (and must, if this is required under article 104) allow Directors to participate in Board meetings by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s) which allow them to hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting, providing:
- (a) the means by which Directors can participate in this manner are not subject to technical complexities, significant costs or other factors which are likely to represent, for all, or a significant proportion, of the Directors, a barrier to participation; and
 - (b) the manner in which the meeting is conducted ensures, so far as reasonably possible, that those Directors who participate via an audio or audio-visual link are not disadvantaged with regard to their ability to contribute to discussions at the meeting, as compared with those Directors (if any) who are attending in person (and vice versa).
- 104 If restrictions arising from public health legislation or guidance are likely to mean that attendance in person at a proposed Board meeting would not be possible or advisable for one or more of the Directors, the Board must make arrangements for Directors to participate in that Board meeting by way of audio and/or audio-visual link(s); and on the basis that:
- (a) the requirements set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of article 103 will apply; and
 - (b) the Board must use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that all Directors have access to one or more means by which they may hear and contribute to discussions at the meeting.

- 105 A Board meeting may involve two or more Directors participating via attendance in person while other Directors participate via audio and/or audio-visual links; or it may involve participation solely via audio and/or audio-visual links.
- 106 Where a Director or Directors are participating in a Board meeting via an audio or audio-visual link, they may cast their vote on any resolution orally, or by way of some form of visual indication, or by use of a voting button or similar, or by way of a message sent electronically.
- 107 The Board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend (whether in person or by way of an audio or audio-visual link) and speak at a Board meeting, notwithstanding that they are not a Director, but on the basis that they must not participate in decision-making.
- 108 A Director must not vote at a Board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution concerning a matter in which they have a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the Company; they must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 109 For the purposes of article 108:
- (a) an interest held by an individual who is "connected" with the Director under section 68(2) of the Scottish Charities Act (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc) shall be deemed to be held by that Director;
 - (b) a Director will (subject to article 110) be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which they are an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative (or a body in relation to which they are a major shareholder or have some other significant financial interest) has an interest in that matter.
- 110 Where a subsidiary of the Company has an interest in a particular matter which is to be considered by the Board, a Director of the Company who is also a director of that subsidiary will not be debarred from voting on that matter (unless they have a different personal interest in that matter, unrelated to their position as a director of that subsidiary).
- 111 The Company may, by ordinary resolution, suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in relation to any particular matter, the provisions of articles 108 and 109.
- 112 The principles set out in article 42 (technical objections to remote participation) shall apply in relation to remote participation and voting at Board meetings, as if each reference in that article to a Member were a reference to a Director and each reference in that article to a general meeting were a reference to a Board meeting.

Board resolutions agreed in writing or by email

- 113 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by email) by a majority of the Directors then in office shall (subject to articles 114 and 115) be as valid as if duly passed at a Board meeting.
- 114 A resolution under article 113 shall not be valid unless a copy of the resolution was circulated to all of the Directors, along with a cut-off time (which must be reasonable in the circumstances) for notifications under article 115.
- 115 If a resolution is circulated to the Directors under article 114, any one or more Directors may, following receipt of a copy of the resolution, notify the secretary that they consider that a Board meeting should be held to discuss the matter which is the subject of the resolution; and if any such notification is received by the Director and/or the secretary prior to the cut-off time:
- (a) the secretary and/or the Director if there is not a secretary, must convene a Board meeting accordingly, and on the basis that it will take place as soon as reasonably possible;
 - (b) the resolution cannot be treated as valid under article 113 unless and until that Board meeting has taken place; and
 - (c) the Board may (if they consider appropriate, on the basis of the discussions at the meeting) resolve at that Board meeting that the resolution should be treated as invalid, notwithstanding that it had previously been agreed to in writing (or by email) by a majority of the Directors then in office.

Minutes of Board meetings

- 116 The Board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all Board meetings and meetings of sub-committees; and that a proper record is kept of all resolutions agreed to (in writing or by email) by the Directors under article 113.
- 117 The minutes to be kept under article 116 must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 118 The records of resolutions kept under article 116 must include the names of those Directors who agreed to the resolution (as well as the names of any Directors who stated that they disagreed with the resolution); and should be signed by the chair of the Company.

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

- 119 The Board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one Director, but other members of a sub-committee need not be Directors.

- 120 The Board may also delegate to the chair of the Company (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
- 121 When delegating powers under article 119 or 120, the Board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the Board).
- 122 Any delegation of powers under article 119 or 120 may be revoked or altered by the Board at any time.
- 123 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the Board.

Operation of bank accounts

- 124 The Board should ensure that the systems of financial control adopted by the Company in relation to the operation of the Company's bank accounts (including online banking) reflect the recommendations made from time to time by the Company's auditors (or independent examiners) or other external accountants.

Secretary

- 125 The Board may appoint a company secretary, and on the basis that the term of the appointment, the remuneration (if any) payable to the company secretary, and the conditions of appointment shall be as determined by the Board; the company secretary may be removed by them at any time.

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 126 The Board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 127 The Board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; and:
 - (a) if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the Board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the Board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor;
 - (b) if an audit is not carried out, the Board must ensure that an independent examination of the accounts is carried out by a qualified independent examiner.
- 128 No Member shall (unless they are a Director) have any right of inspecting any accounting or other records, or any document of the Company, except as conferred by statute or as authorised by the Board or as authorised by ordinary resolution of the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS

Notices

- 129 Any notice, notification, request or other document which requires to be given to a Member under these articles shall be given either in writing or by email (or, in the case of a notice of general meeting, by way of a website, subject to the Company notifying Members of the presence of the notice on the website, and complying with the other requirements of section 309 of the Companies Act).
- 130 Any notice or other document may be given personally to the Member or may be sent by post in a pre-paid envelope addressed to the Member at the address last notified by that Member to the Company or (in the case of a Member who has notified the Company of an address to be used for the purpose of email communications) may be given to the Member by way of email.
- 131 Any application, confirmation, notice, notification or other document which requires to be given to the Company under these articles (where it is sent by email) must be sent to the email address used by the Company for communications of that nature, as intimated by the Company from time to time.
- 132 Any notice or other document, if sent by post, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 24 hours after posting; for the purpose of proving that any notice was given, it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.
- 133 Any notice or other document sent by email shall be deemed to have been given at the expiry of 24 hours after it is sent; for the purpose of proving that any notice sent by email was indeed sent, it shall be sufficient to provide any of the evidence referred to in the relevant guidance issued from time to time by the Chartered Institute of Secretaries and Administrators.

Indemnity

- 134 Every Director or other officer or auditor of the Company shall be indemnified (to the extent permitted by sections 232, 234, 235, 532 and 533 of the Companies Act) out of the assets of the Company against any loss or liability which they may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of their office.
- 135 The indemnity for officers and auditors of the Company under article 134 may include (but only to the extent permitted by the sections of the Companies Act referred to in that article):
- (a) any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgement is given in their favour or in which they are acquitted; and

- (b) any liability in connection with an application in which relief is granted to them by the court from liability for negligence, default or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.

136 The Company shall be entitled to purchase and maintain for any director insurance against any loss or liability which any Director or other officer of the Company may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of their office; and such insurance may extend to liabilities of the nature referred to in section 232(2) of the Companies Act (negligence etc. of a director).
