STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the company's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

OBJECTIVES

The charity is constituted as a company limited by guarantee, and is therefore governed by a memorandum and articles of association.

"The Mission of the Centre is to contribute to the building up of integrated human beings capable of taking their place as members of the family and society."

This mission will be achieved by

- providing a service of the highest quality.
- ensuring that the needs of clients are addressed professionally, sensitively and expeditiously.
- maximising efficiency and effectiveness by ensuring that all resources are used to best advantage, thus guaranteeing maximum value for money.
- reviewing and assessing the training and development needs of staff on a regular basis.

ORGANISATION

The Centre is organised into two units; one dealing with children aged from three to twelve, the other for adolescents and young adults.

The Board of Directors meets four times per year and has one committee, the finance committee, to enable it to achieve the objectives of the company.

The company has successfully pursued its policy of establishing contracts on a purchaser-provider basis with its main customers in the public sector. This represents the main body of the work of the Centre.

Additional work has been undertaken in the private sector for schools and other organisations, and for the legal profession.

While working with individuals is the primary activity of the Centre, there has been significant growth in the area of consultancy and training.

DEVELOPMENT, ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

During the year, 544 clients came to the Centre for assessment and therapy; of these, 268 were taken on during the year and 276 continued their therapeutic programme from the previous year. Of the clients whose therapy was completed during this year, 49% completed their therapy in less than 1 year, 39% within 1-2 years and the remainder 3+ years. 22 clients were adults; of the remaining 522, only 28% lived with their 2 natural parents.

In addition to this work, staff continued to provide talks, seminars, workshops, supervision and consultative services to a variety of establishments. Training placements were offered to one care worker trainee and one student undertaking teacher training. Play therapy observational sessions were offered throughout the year to several nurse therapists and other personnel working with young children. Psychological assessments were also carried out for two schools in the independent sector. The Post-graduate Certificate in Play Therapy was accredited by Strathelyde University and validated by the Play Therapy Association. The course commenced in October 1998 with 9 students. In April 1998 a bereavement project commenced supported by a grant from Children-in-Need of £14,000 over 3 years. This project provides a quick response service to children and young people coping with loss and grief. In total around 384 appointments have been offered and in addition many parents/ carers have been given advice over the telephone. A pilot project commenced in September funded by the Greater Glasgow Health Board Child Protection Services. This project provides support to children suffering from abuse and who have been deemed after a forensic to be in need of therapy of any kind. An increasing number of staff are involved in providing in-service training for staff from statutory agencies.

STAFF CHANGES

There were a number of staff changes during the course of the year. In May Mrs Alison Caskie, referral secretary resigned. In August three new members of staff took up post – Diane Day, Clerical Assistant, Vanessa McCormack, Social Worker and David Murray, Psychologist. We also secured the service of a music therapist, Jane Bowler one day per week from September.

REFERRALS/FUNDING

Our main source of referrals continues to be from education, social work and health.

A total of 6 health boards now refer young people to the Centre; Argyll & Clyde, Ayrshire and Arran, Forth Valley, Tayside, Greater Glasgow and Lanarkshire. Greater Glasgow continues to provide the highest level of funding at £79,000. This has now been considered as payment rather than a grant.

A total of 8 education authorities mainly in the West of Scotland now refer young people with the level of funding being around £204,000.

Some 12 social work departments across Scotland refer young people which generates income of around £100,000.

FINANCIAL POSITION

The financial position of the company is as shown in the attached accounts. The directors are satisfied with the improvement shown in the accounts from the previous year. This has been achieved by a re-costing of the service and the development of costed treatment packages. It is still hoped that the company will be able to be self-financing by the year 2000.

The Sisters of Notre Dame provide members of staff who work for the Centre at no cost. They also allow the Centre the use of their premises at no charge. The equivalent costs to the Centre would have been £80,000 and £10,000 respectively.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

Report of the Auditors to the Members of The Notre Dame Centre

We have audited the financial statements on pages six to eleven which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page eight.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described on page two the company's directors, who also act as trustees for the charitable activities of The Notre Dame Centre, are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on the financial statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinior

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the charitable company's state of affairs as at 31 March 1999 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, in the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
