Save as aforesaid, Members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
20. At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands of those qualified to vote unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the Chairman or by at least three Members present in person.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands of those qualified to vote been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against such resolution.
21. Except as provided in Article 23, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

 - (a) in case the Company shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Company shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as is allowed by law having regard to such trusts;
 - (b) the Company shall not support with its funds any object, or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its members or others, any regulation, restriction or condition which if an object of the Company would make it a Trade Union; and
 - (c) in relation to any property which may come into the hands of the Company as trustees under any other trust (whether established by any trust deed or any scheme approved by the Court of Session or made in pursuance of any enactment relating to educational endowments or war charities or otherwise) nothing herein shall authorise the Company to deal therewith otherwise than in accordance with the terms of such trust and with any law relevant thereto, nor shall the incorporation of the Company affect the liability as an individual of any member of the Executive Board of the Company who may be a party to such dealings.

- 5.1 The income and property of the Company, whencesoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set forth in this Memorandum of Association; no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the Members of the Company: Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of reasonable and proper remuneration to any officer or servant of the Company or to any Member of the Company, nor prevent the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent above the Bank of Scotland base rate for the time being on money lent by any Member to the Company, or reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any Member to the Company, but except as provided in Clause 5.2 so that no member of the Executive Board shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Company or any office of the Company paid by fees, and that no remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth shall be given by the Company to any member of the Executive Board except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and interest at the rate aforesaid on money lent, or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Company:

- 5.2 Nothing contained in Clause 5.1 shall apply to or prohibit the appointment of a member of the Executive Board to any salaried office of the Company or any office of the Company paid by fees if such appointment shall be resolved by the Executive Board to be in the best interests of the Company having regard to the experience and qualifications of the member of the Executive Board so appointed provided always that the member of the Executive Board so appointed shall be excluded from and shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting (or the relevant part of any meeting, as the case may be) of the Executive Board at which shall be considered or resolved his appointment, renewal of appointment, or termination of appointment or any matter relating thereto; declaring further that nothing contained in Clause 5.1 shall apply to or prohibit any payment to any company in which any member of the Executive Board holds not more than one one-hundredth part of the capital, and such member shall not be bound to account for any share of profits he may receive in respect of any such payment.
- 5.3 For the purposes of Clauses 5.1 and 5.2 the term "Member of the Executive Board" includes an alternative Member appointed in terms of the Articles.
6. The liability of the Members is limited.
7. Every Member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up during the time that he is a Member, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before the time at which he ceases to be a Member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the same, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves such amount as may be required not exceeding one pound (£1).
8. True accounts shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, of all sales and purchases of goods by the Company and of the property, assets and liabilities of the Company. Such accounts shall be open to any member of the Executive Board of the Company for inspection at all reasonable times, and to any other Member of the Company to the extent permitted by the provisions of the Articles. Once at least in every year the Accounts of the Company shall be examined or audited in compliance with the relevant statutory requirements.

9. Upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company, its debts and liabilities shall be satisfied exclusively out of the assets of the Company other than the Vessel and the Pier Site (in so far as forming part of the assets of the Company). After satisfaction of its debts and liabilities the assets including the Vessel and the Pier Site (in so far as forming part of the assets of the Company) shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company or returned to donors but shall be given or transferred to the local authority at the time having statutory responsibility for the provision of Museum services in the local government area in which is situated the Pier Site whereby the Vessel and the Pier Site (in so far as forming part of the assets of the Company) shall be integrated with the existing collections of the said authority or maintained as a separate collection on terms consistent with the provision of Clause 3 hereof, at the option of the said authority, and the other assets likewise to be added to the existing funds held for the maintenance and development of the existing collections of the said authority or to be held separately for the maintenance of the Vessel and of the Pier Site, provided that:
- (a) the said authority shall in turn be empowered to give or transfer all or part of the assets of the Company and any money subsequently realised therefrom on the same terms and with the same powers (including the power of subsequent gift or transfer) under which they were received by the said authority, to such other institution (whether established as a local authority company or trust) having objects (whether its sole objects or part only of its objects) consistent with the provisions of Clause 3 hereof and which, if a company or trust, shall prohibit the distribution of its income and assets among its members or beneficiaries to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company under or by virtue of Clause 5 as may be determined by the Executive Board: and
 - (b) if the said authority shall not accept the assets of the Company, the same shall be given or transferred to another institution as described in proviso (a) above, on the same terms and with the same powers (including the power of subsequent gift or transfer of all or any part of the assets) as the said authority would have had as may be determined by the Members of the Company with (if requisite) the written approval of the Lord Advocate or the authority of any court having jurisdiction over the distribution of the assets of the Company, whether before, at or after the date of winding up or dissolution of the Company:

Declaring that if at any time the institution holding the assets of the Company or any part thereof desires to give or transfer all or any part of the same to another institution, the institution to which such gifts or transfer is intended to be made shall, as a condition of its receipt of the assets undertake that the said other assets shall be applied only for charitable purposes;

And if and insofar as effect cannot at any time be given to the aforesaid provisions, the assets of the Company shall be applied for charitable purposes only.
