DIRECTORS STATEMENT

Accounts for shareholders (utilising the accounting exemptions and audit exemptions available to a small company)

The director:

1. confirm that for the year to 31 March 2001 the company was entitled to the exemption under subsection (1) of section 249A
2. confirm that no notice requiring an audit had been deposited under section s 249B (2) in relation to the accounts for the financial year; and
3. acknowledge their responsibility for:
 - (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221.
 - (b) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by Part I of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985, applicable to small companies in the preparation of the accounts, and has done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to the benefit of those exemptions as a small company.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Accounting Convention

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention.

b) Deferred Taxation

The directors decided that no adjustment to the deferred tax account was necessary, as it is not thought probable that a deferred tax liability will crystallise.

c) Cash Flow

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No. 1 from providing cash flow statements on the grounds that it is a small company.
