DIRECTORS' REPORT

The Directors are pleased to present their annual report together with the financial statements for the year ending 31 March 2021 (which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a directors' report and financial statements for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006).

OBJECTIVES & ACTIVITIES

The principal object for which the charitable company is established is to assist rural communities in Scotland to relieve poverty by alleviating rural homelessness, poor housing conditions, other housing needs and related problems. For the purpose of furthering the attainment of its objectives, the charitable company shall have and may pursue all or any of the following activities:

- support rural communities to work in partnership with local and national government and their agencies, housing associations, voluntary bodies and the private sector;
- provide advice, support and information to rural communities and individuals on housing issues and problems;
- establish and support networks linking individuals and groups with an interest in rural housing issues;
- provide information on rural housing issues to increase understanding amongst policy decision makers;
- carry out and publish research projects which increase understanding of rural housing issues and which pilot innovative ways of tackling them;
- seek opportunities for influencing public policy on relevant matters, and advocating on behalf of rural communities.

ACHIEVEMENTS & PERFORMANCE

Rural Housing Scotland exists to support rural communities take action to tackle local housing problems and to highlight and develop solutions to rural housing need.

Despite the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic and much of the financial year taking place during various degrees of lockdown, we have been able to continue our work with rural communities. Movement restrictions have meant that we have had to adapt our way of working with more of our support activity taking place remotely. However this has had benefits with increased contact and work with remoter communities including Uist in the Western Isles, North Ronaldsay in Orkney and Tiree in Argyll & Bute.

These three islands were the focus of work we undertook for the Scottish Government Island team on an initiative to tackle depopulation: Smart Clachan. Smart Clachan are a 21st Century revival of the clachan, a traditional island township consisting of a few houses and crofts. Smart Clachan take the build form of a clachan and utilise community led/cooperative housing models to create modern affordable homes. The community/cooperative ethos is fostered through a range of shared services and facilities to enhance community and connectivity, including a community work hub to enable households to establish their own business or work remotely for local, national and international companies.

Our work involved the development of a toolkit to enable communities and organisations to deliver Smart Clachan in a variety of locations and we are progressing projects in Tiree, Uist and North Ronaldsay in collaboration with community organisations on the islands.

The pandemic also meant that we were unable to hold our Conference, however this year we curated an online Rural Housing Summit with the United Nations Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT). The week long programme of events attracted 1,400 unique bookings from across the world to hear 60 speakers from the UK, USA, Canada, Norway and Kenya. Our Chief Executive was also invited to speak at an webinar organised by the National Alliance to End Rural and Remote Homelessness in Canada looking at International Perspectives on Rural and Remote Homelessness.

We are grateful to our funders for their continued support through the difficult months on the pandemic, particularly The Robertson Trust who gave permission for the unrestricted use of their grant funding.

RURAL HOUSING SCOTLAND DIRECTORS' REPORT (CONTD)

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

In the coming year we are looking forward to bringing to fruition many of the projects currently being investigated by rural communities to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the Rural Housing Fund and Island Housing Fund. We also hope to realise our Smart Clachan initiative on Uist and to pursue additional innovative solutions to rural housing issues.

We will further develop our membership and our wider communications to raise awareness of rural housing issues and the work of Rural Housing Scotland to alleviate them. We will continue to work to secure appropriate investment in rural housing. We will engage with national and local government to ensure that housing policy meets the needs of rural communities. We will highlight innovation and good practice at our national conference and work in partnership to ensure that the housing needs of rural communities are met and that community led housing delivery plays a major role in this.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with "Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective January 2015)" (Charities SORP FRS 102); the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102); with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; with the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended); with the Companies Act 2006 and with the company's Memorandum and Articles of Association. The company constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. There are no material uncertainties about the company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Income recognition

All income is recognised once the company has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of income receivable can be measured reliably. Any income such as annual grants received in advance, is included as deferred income within creditors. Income earned from contracts is included when it is receivable. Where donations or grants, including capital grants, are received for a specific purpose, they are included within restricted income and any unexpended portion is carried forward as a restricted fund. Assets or gifts in kind received by the company are recognised as income when received and are included at market value or at an estimate of their value where market value is not readily known.

Expenditure recognition

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the company to that expenditure, it is probable that settlement will be required and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings appropriate to the company's circumstances.

Computer equipment

Annual rate

33%

The company operates a defined benefit pension scheme for eligible employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company. Deficits under the scheme are recognised in the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of FRS 102, based on the company's share of the scheme assets and liabilities, as reported by the scheme actuary. Accordingly the company's share of the scheme deficit is recognised in full on the Balance Sheet. Further information is given in note 9 to the financial statements. The annual contributions payable by the company are included within expenditure in the Statement of Financial Activities.
