Report of the Directors

The directors present their report and unaudited Accounts for the period from 1 April 2007 to 31 December 2007.

Activities and review

The company was established to complement the activities of the ultimate parent company or of other companies in the group. The company was not involved in trading during the period and was dormant.

The company has changed its accounting reference date to 31 December 2007 to match that of its ultimate parent undertaking, Iberdrola S.A., and therefore these Accounts are prepared from the period from 1 April 2007 to 31 December 2007.

Directors

The directors who held office during the period were as follows.

Sheelagh Duffield (resigned 26 October 2007)

John Heasley

Marion Venman (appointed 26 October 2007)

John Heasley resigned his directorship on 29 February 2008 and was replaced as director by David Wark on the same day.

Directors' responsibilities

The directors are required by UK company law to prepare Accounts for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently and reasonable and prudent judgements have been made in the preparation of the Accounts for the period ended 31 December 2007. The directors also confirm that applicable accounting standards have been followed and that the Accounts have been prepared on the going concern basis.

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records and sufficient internal controls to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud or any other irregularities.

Auditors

The company is a dormant company within the meaning of Section 249AA(1) of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended) and is exempt from appointing auditors.
