SHARE CAPITAL

5. [Not used]
6. The Company may at its sole discretion recognise and record the holding of a share by a person on trust, or in the names of trustees, but unless specifically recognised by the Company as such a holding, the Company shall not be bound by, or obliged to recognise, any interest in any share except for the absolute rights of the holder named in the register of members.
7. Subject to any direction to the contrary which may be given by ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting, the Directors are unconditionally authorised to allot, issue, grant options or rights over, or otherwise deal with, or dispose of, any unissued share, including any redeemable share, to such persons, including any Director, on such terms, at such time or times and for such consideration as they think fit, provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount. The maximum nominal amount of share capital which the Directors may allot or otherwise dispose of in accordance with this Article shall be the nominal amount of relevant securities at the date of incorporation of the Company or the aggregate nominal amount of the unissued shares in the share capital of the Company from time to time during the duration of this authority.
8. The authority conferred on the Directors by the Article preceding shall remain in force for a period of 5 years from the date of incorporation of the Company. Notwithstanding the terms of this Article, the Company may vary or revoke the authority granted, to the Directors at any time and may renew the authority in general meeting in accordance with section 80 of the Act. The Company may make any offer or enter any agreement before the expiry of the authority which will, or may, require relevant securities to be allotted after the expiry of that authority. In those circumstances, the Directors shall be entitled to allot those relevant securities pursuant to any such offer or agreement, notwithstanding the expiry of that authority.

9. Pursuant to Section 91 of the Act, the provisions of Sections 89(1) and 90(1) to 90(6) (inclusive) of the Act shall not apply to the Company, and the Directors shall be entitled to allot equity securities in accordance with section 95 of the Act.

LIEN

10. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares registered in the name of any person, whether solely or jointly with others, for all moneys owing to the Company from that person, or that person's estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, whether as a member, or not, and whether such moneys are presently payable, or not. The Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or partly exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to any amount payable in respect of it.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

11. The Directors may, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason, decline to register any transfer of any share whether or not it is a fully paid share.
12. Subject to any restrictions on the transfer of shares in these Articles, any member holding shares may transfer any or all of those shares in any usual or common written form, or in any other manner which the Directors may approve. The instrument of transfer shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, except where the share is fully paid, the transferee.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

13. If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for a general meeting, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day and at such time and place as the Directors determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
14. Where the Company has only a single member, the quorum shall be one.
15. A resolution in writing signed by all the members who would be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at a general meeting at which such resolution was to be proposed, or by their attorneys, proxies, or other duly appointed representatives, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in materially the same form, each signed by one or more of the members or their attorneys, proxies or other duly appointed representatives. In the case of a corporation which is a member of the Company, a signature by a Director or its secretary or by a duly appointed and authorised attorney or representative shall be sufficient.
16. It shall not be necessary for any written resolution passed in terms of the preceding

Article to be referred to or approved by the Company's auditors and it shall be effective on the date it is signed by all the relevant members or where there are several documents, on the date the last such member signs the resolution.

17. On a show of hands or on a poll, votes may be given either personally or by proxy, or if a corporation, by its duly authorised representative.

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

18. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution of the Company, the number of Directors shall not be subject to any maximum and the minimum number of directors shall be one.
19. A Director shall not be required to hold any share in the Company in order to qualify for office as a Director. A Director, whether or not the Director holds any share in the Company, shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting, or any meeting of any class, of the members of the Company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

20. Any Director, other than an alternate Director, may appoint any other Director or may appoint any other person approved by the Directors, to be that Director's alternate and may remove from office such an alternate Director immediately but shall intimate the removal to the Directors without delay.
21. Where an alternate Director is also a Director, or acts as an alternate Director for more than one Director, such alternate Director shall have one vote for every Director represented by that Director in addition to that Director's own vote.
22. Where two or more Directors are required to constitute a quorum, an alternate Director, notwithstanding that that Director may be the alternate Director for a number of Directors, shall not, alone, constitute a quorum, and shall only act in conjunction with, at least, one Director or another alternate Director.
23. Where a Director appoints a person as that Director's attorney under a general power of attorney or under a written limited power of attorney which specifically permits that attorney to act as a Director, that attorney shall be entitled to act as a Director subject to the appointment of that attorney being notified in writing to the Directors. On the written intimation of the appointment of such an attorney, that attorney shall be deemed to act as an alternate Director, subject to the terms of these Articles.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

24. The Directors shall not be subject to retirement by rotation and any reference in the Regulations to such retirement shall be construed accordingly.
25. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director.
26. The Directors may appoint any person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director.
27. There shall be no age limit for Directors of the Company.

DIRECTORS' EXPENSES

28. The Directors may repay to any Director, including any alternate Director, all reasonable expenses as that Director may properly incur in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or of any committee of the Directors or general meetings of the Company or any class of members of the Company, or otherwise in or about the business of the Company. In the event of any Director necessarily performing or rendering any special duties or services to the Company outside any ordinary duties as a Director, the Directors may, if so authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, pay such Director special remuneration, by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise as may be approved.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

29. A sole Director shall have and may exercise all the powers of, and the full authority conferred on, the Directors in terms of these Articles, and all references to the Directors in the Articles and Regulations shall be construed accordingly.
30. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors but unless so fixed shall be two, except in the case of a sole Director, when the quorum shall be one. A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall, if the appointing Director is not present, be counted in the quorum.
31. Any Director, including an alternate Director, may participate in a meeting of the Directors or a committee of Directors by means of a conference telephone or other conference communication facility by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear and speak with each other. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute the presence of a Director in person at such meeting, entitling him to be counted in the quorum and to vote accordingly. A telephone conference meeting shall be deemed held at the place where the largest number of Directors is present, or, where there is no such gathering, where the chairman is present.
32. Subject to such disclosure as is required by the Regulations, or the Act, a Director shall be entitled to vote at, and be counted in the quorum of, a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which the Director has, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company.

THE SEAL

33. The Company shall not have a seal.

34. Any notice to be given to any person under these Articles shall be given in legible written form by facsimile ("fax"), by first class recorded delivery or registered post ("post") or by delivery including courier delivery ("delivery"), to the contact address last notified to the sender. Any notice served shall be deemed to have been received as follows:

except where the day of receipt of such a notice is not a Working Day at the place of delivery or is a Working Day but delivery is deemed to occur after 18.00 hours on that day, in either of which events, notice shall be deemed to be received at 09.30 hours on the next Working Day.

INDEMNITY

- 35. Subject to the provisions of the Act and, in particular, section 310 of the Act, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a Director may otherwise be entitled, every Director, alternate Director, secretary, auditor or other officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company against all losses and liabilities sustained or incurred by that officer in the execution or discharge of that officer's duties or in the exercise of that officer's powers or otherwise in connection with that officer's office including, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, any liability incurred by that officer in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in that officer's favour, or in which that officer is acquitted or which are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on that officer's part, or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to that officer by any court from liability in respect of any act or omission done or alleged to have been done as an officer or employee of the Company.

INSURANCE

- 36. The Directors shall be entitled to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any persons who are or have at any time been Directors, officers, employees or auditors of the Company or any Company which is its holding Company or its subsidiary.
