5.2 The company shall, notwithstanding the provisions of article 5.1, be entitled to make reasonable payments, in each case at a level which does not exceed what the directors reasonably consider to be the market rate, for accommodation, services and facilities (which may, without limitation, include the benefit of secondment arrangements) provided to the company by a member of the company.

6. SOLE MEMBER'S RESERVE POWER – APPOINTMENT/REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS; AND ISSUE OF DIRECTIONS TO THE BOARD

6.1 For so long as the company is a sole member company, the following provisions shall apply, subject to the provisions of article 28 (but without prejudice to the provisions of section 168 of the Companies Act 2006 which shall remain as an alternative process to that set out in this article 6.1) and, to the extent of any inconsistency, shall have an overriding effect as against all other provisions of these articles:

6.1.1 the sole member of the company (referred to in these articles as the parent) may at any time and from time to time appoint any individual (providing (a) he is not debarred by article 30 from serving as a director; and (b) he is willing so to act) to be a director or remove from office any director howsoever appointed; and

6.1.2 the parent may direct the board of directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

6.2 Any such appointment or removal of a director, or any such direction to the board of directors, shall be by way of notice in writing signed on behalf of the parent by any one of its directors or by its secretary or by some other person duly authorised for the purpose; and (subject to article 6.3) shall take effect from the date on which the notice is received, or deemed to have been received, by the company.

6.3 Where a notice issued in pursuance of clause 6.2 specifies a date - falling after the date on which the notice is received, or deemed to be received, by the company - from which it is to take effect, the notice shall take effect from the date specified in the notice.

6.4 No notice given pursuant to paragraph 6.1.2 of article 6.1 (as read with article 6.2) invalidates anything which the directors have done before such notice was received (or was deemed to have been received) by the company.

7. DIRECTORS MAY DELEGATE

7.1 Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles:

7.1.1 to such person, or to such committee consisting of two or more persons;

7.1.3 to such an extent;

7.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

7.1.5 on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit.

7.2 If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

7.3 The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7.4 In any case where the directors delegate any of their powers to a committee which includes individuals who are not directors of the company, the role of the committee shall be limited (except to the extent that the directors otherwise determine) to the issue of reports and recommendations for consideration by the board of directors.

8. COMMITTEES

8.1 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

8.2 The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

9. SECRETARY

9.1 The company shall have a company secretary. The directors shall appoint any person to be the secretary for such term and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by them. A person ceases to be secretary as soon as notification is received by the company from the secretary that the secretary is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

10. DIRECTORS TO TAKE DECISIONS COLLECTIVELY

- 10.1 The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with articles 11 or 12.

11. MAJORITY DECISIONS BY WRITTEN RESOLUTION

- 11.1 The directors may make decisions by way of resolution in writing. Each eligible director must be given a copy in writing of any proposed written resolution.
- 11.2 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when a majority of eligible directors indicate their agreement to the resolution in writing by either:
- 11.2.1 signing a copy of the resolution; or
 - 11.2.2 indicating in writing to the company secretary and/or all of the other directors their agreement to the resolution in a form satisfactory to the company secretary.
- 11.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at a directors' meeting.

12. UNANIMOUS DECISIONS

- 12.1 Without prejudice to article 11, a decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 12.2 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

13. CALLING A DIRECTORS' MEETING

- 13.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary to give such notice.
- 13.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate:
- 13.2.1 its proposed date and time; and
 - 13.2.2 where it is to take place.
- 13.3 Notice of a directors' meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.
- 13.4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

14. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 14.1 Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when:
- 14.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles; and
 - 14.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 14.2 In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 14.3 If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

15. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 15.1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.
- 15.2 The quorum for directors' meetings shall (subject to articles 15.3) be two directors.
- 15.3 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to article 20.1 to authorise a director's conflict or at which a matter of the nature referred to in article 23.1 is to be discussed, if the number of eligible directors present at the meeting (or part of a meeting) is lower than the quorum required under article 15.2, the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be the number of eligible directors present at the meeting (or part of a meeting).
- 15.4 If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision to:
- 15.5.1 request the parent to appoint further directors; or
 - 15.5.2 call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

16. APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMAN AND OTHER OFFICE-BEARERS

- 16.1 The directors shall (subject to article 16.4) elect from among themselves a chairman (referred to in these articles as the chairman), and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.
- 16.2 The chairman to be elected under article 16.1 must not be an independent director.

- 16.3 The appointments under article 16.1 shall (subject to article 16.4) be made at meetings of directors.
- 16.4 The parent shall be entitled, immediately following the passing of the resolution adopting these articles of association, to appoint one of the directors as the chairman by way of notice in writing signed on behalf of the parent by any one of its directors or by its secretary or by some other person duly authorised for the purpose; and he shall then hold office as chairman (subject to article 16.6) until his period of office expires under article 16.5 or (if any other period of office is so specified) until the expiry of the period of office specified in the notice appointing him as chairman.
- 16.5 Each office shall be held (subject to article 16.6) until the conclusion of the third accounts sign-off board meeting which follows the date of appointment of an individual to the relevant office; a director whose period of office expires under this article may be re-appointed to that office under article 16.1 (providing he is willing to act).
- 16.6 The appointment of any director as chairman, or as holder of any other office under article 16.1, shall terminate if:
- 16.6.1 he ceases to be a director; or
 - 16.6.2 he resigns from that office by notice to the company; or
 - 16.6.3 (in the case of a chairman appointed under article 16.1) he is removed from office as chairman prior to the expiry of the period of office applicable under article 16.5, by way of a notice in writing to that effect, signed on behalf of the parent by any one of its directors or by its secretary or by some other person duly authorised for the purpose.
- 16.7 If the appointment of a director to any office under article 16.1 terminates, subject to article 16.4, the directors shall appoint another director to hold the office in his place.

17. CHAIRING OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 17.1 The chairman shall chair directors' meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 17.2 If there is no chairman in office, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair a directors' meeting or is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

18. CASTING VOTE

- 18.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

- 18.2 Article 18.1 shall not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

19. ATTENDANCE AT DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

- 19.1 The directors shall be entitled to allow any person to attend and speak (but not vote) at any meeting of the directors.
- 19.2 A person invited to attend a meeting of the directors under article 19.1 shall not be entitled to exercise any of the powers of a director, and shall not be deemed to be a director for the purposes of the Companies Acts or any provision of these articles.

20. CONFLICT OF INTEREST SITUATIONS

- 20.1 For the purposes of section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 (s.175), the directors shall have the power to authorise any matter proposed to them in accordance with these articles which would, if not so authorised, involve a breach of the duty of a director under s.175 to avoid a situation in which he has, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the company.
- 20.2 Any authorisation of a matter under article 20.1 may be given on such terms as the directors may determine. Such authorisation may be given subject to any conditions or limitations the directors impose, whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently, but such authorisation is otherwise given to the fullest extent permitted. A director shall comply with any obligations imposed upon him or undertakings given by him pursuant to such authorisation. The directors may vary or terminate any such authorisation at any time.
- 20.3 Without prejudice to articles 20.1 and 20.2, a director of the company may be a director or employee of the parent and/or of any member of the parent's group; the duty of directors under s.175 to avoid situations under which they have, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the company shall not extend to any such relationship with the parent or any such member of the parent's group, and the directors need not authorise any such matter under article 20.1.
- 20.4 Without prejudice to the provisions of the 2005 Act, a director shall not, in the absence of agreement by him to the contrary, be accountable to the company for any profit, remuneration or other benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any matter authorised by the directors in accordance with article 20.1 and (without prejudice to the provisions of the 2005 Act) any contract, transaction or arrangement relating thereto shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such profit, remuneration or benefit.

21. TRANSACTIONS OR OTHER ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE COMPANY

21.1 Subject to sections 177(5) and 177(6) and sections 182(5) and 182(6) of the Companies Act 2006 and to sections 67 and 68 of the 2005 Act, and provided he has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company:

21.1.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

21.1.2 may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the company (otherwise than as auditor) and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a director;

21.1.3 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the company is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested or which is a subsidiary undertaking of the company, a parent undertaking of the company or a subsidiary undertaking of any such parent undertaking; and

21.1.4 shall not, save as he may otherwise agree (and in any event subject to the provisions of the 2005 Act), be accountable to the company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him (as defined in section 252 of the Companies Act 2006)) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate; and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of his duty under section 176 of the Companies Act 2006.

21.2 The directors shall procure that a register of directors' interests is maintained in accordance with the provisions in this regard contained in the code of conduct for directors referred to in article 22.4

22. CONDUCT OF DIRECTORS

22.1 It is the duty of each director of the company to take decisions (and exercise his other powers and responsibilities as a director) in such a way as he considers, in good faith, will be most likely to promote the success of the company in achieving its objects (as set out in article 4.1) and will be in the interests of the company, and irrespective of any office, post, engagement or other connection which he may have with any other body which may have an interest in the matter in question.

22.2 Without prejudice to the principle set out in article 22.1, each of the directors shall have a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the company; and, in particular, must:

22.2.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the company acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;

22.2.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;

22.2.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the company and any party responsible for the appointment of that director:

(a) put the interests of the company before that of the other party; or

(b) where any other duty prevents him from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the company and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other directors with regard to the matter in question;

22.2.4 ensure that the company complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the 2005 Act.

22.3 In addition to the duties outlined in article 22.2, all of the directors must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for the purpose of ensuring:

22.3.1 that any breach of any of those duties by a director is corrected by the director concerned and not repeated; and

22.3.2 that any director who has been in serious or persistent breach of those duties is removed as a director.

22.4 Each of the directors shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board of directors from time to time; for the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of directors contained in these articles of association, and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.

23. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST – PARTICIPATION IN DECISION-MAKING

23.1 Subject to article 23.3, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he has, directly or indirectly, a personal interest or duty (unless immaterial) which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.

23.2 For the purposes of the preceding article:

- 23.2.1 an interest of a person who is taken to be connected with a director for any purpose of the 2006 Act shall be treated as a personal interest of the director; and
