Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the financial statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and show a true and fair view of the profit or loss of the company for the year and the state of the company's affairs at the end of the year.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- comply with any applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and are such to disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
