Trustees' Annual Report

The trustees are pleased to present their report together with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2018.

The financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), the Companies Act 2006, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Charitable Purposes

The company was registered as a charity on the Scottish Charity Register on 25 November 2014.

The charitable purposes are:

- 1. the prevention or relief of poverty by tackling the causes of fuel poverty and reducing energy bills for residents in Fife (the operating area);
- 2. to promote and support the reduction of the carbon footprint of Fife;
- 3. to advance environmental protection and improvement by improving energy efficiency within Fife;
- 4. to advance education on environmental issues and energy efficiency, particularly among the residents and businesses of Fife; and
- 5. the provision of recreational facilities within Fife, or the organisation of recreational activities within Fife, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the residents and businesses of Fife.

Review of the activities, achievements and future developments

The main activity of the charity is still the Energy Advice Project which dealt with over 700 households this year. This program not only promotes the reduction of the carbon footprint within the area but also tackles the causes of fuel poverty. The emphasis is on home visits where the tailored advice is given to the client helping them reduce their energy usage and their energy costs. Through the Cosy Kingdom Partnership, referrals are made to Citizens Advice and Rights Fife for income maximisation.

The arrangement made last year, between Transition University of St Andrews, St Andrews Botanic Garden Trust and St Andrews Environmental Network to set up a Community Hub on the site at the back of St Andrews Botanic garden has continued. The Kernel, which has become the focus of the carbon reduction elements of our work, has developed into a well-used community space.

The charity developed, and has continued to update, a Climate Change Awareness series of presentations which were delivered to 5th year students at Madras College. The subjects covered were Climate Change, Energy, Waste, Food & Water, Travel and Transport. The students pledged behavioural changes which resulted in a reduction of their own carbon footprint.

As part of our efforts to promote and support the reduction of the carbon footprint of the area, StAnd Reuse Town, which provided a collection service for unwanted items to students leaving private rented accommodation at the end of the academic year, was continued. The service was expanded to include some residents of the town. These goods were then sorted and stored over the summer months and given away to students during freshers' week.

St Andrews Environmental Network was engaged by BID St Andrews to deliver the Clean & Green project within the BID area. This project focuses on the appearance of the town and deals with the issues of waste management, waste reduction and environmental clean ups.

Future plans

The charity will continue to deliver and develop the services it provided this year while looking to further increase its activities on waste reduction.

The charity will develop a programme for the Kernel site to allow for the delivery of energy advice and low carbon workshops from the hub.

StAnd Reuse has the potential to be extended to increase collections and then items could be given away through the voluntary network to those in need as well as to students. Two staff members were trained as PAT testers and the expansion of the project will take place during the next financial year.

The schools project will be further developed next year with Madras College and the charity will look to roll it out to other schools should funding become available. As funding did not become available for the financial year to 31st March 2019, funding will be sought for 2019-2020. Once a successful secondary school programme is in place, material will be developed for the primary school sector.

Two gaps in our provision need to be addressed over the coming years: growing spaces and food. The charity has been looking into possible allotment sites and will continue the search in the hope of providing this facility for the residents of St Andrews in the future.

The barrier to developing a food element to our projects is the lack of suitable premises and this will have to be resolved over the next few years. Kitchen facilities would allow us to provide food waste reduction sessions to residents within the area. We are hoping to partner North East Fife Community Hub in this project once they have premises.

Collaborative working has been very successful both with the Cosy Kingdom Partnership and the partnership with Transition University of St Andrews and St Andrews Botanic Garden. The charity will continue to work in these partnerships while exploring other partnerships with like-minded organisations to deliver a variety of projects.

Financial position and review of the year

The net expenditure for the year was £30,356 (2017 net income £5,797) including grants and donations of £235,233 (2017 £224,133). Within grants were sums received from Keep Scotland Beautiful, Greener Kirkcaldy, Fife Council and BID St Andrews. The reserves carried forward at the year end were £27,740 (2017 £58,096) including tangible fixed assets in use of £5,500 (2017 £6,034). The reserves were made up of unrestricted funds of £27,740 (2017 - £55,196) and restricted funds of £Nil (2017 - £2,900).

Reserves Policy

The trustees have set a policy of holding a minimum of £20,000 in reserve. Reserves are monitored closely throughout the year and this policy will be reviewed annually.

Risk Management

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those relating to the operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the charity's exposure to the major risks. Risk assessments address all key areas of the charity's activities.

The main risk to which the charity is exposed remains its dependence on grant funding. Ways of income generation are under consideration for the long term and, in the interim, the charity will move away from being reliant on one or two major funders.

Investment policy

The trustees do not hold funds for investment.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements (continued)

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the balance sheet date and of its income and expenditure for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees should follow best practice and:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- · make sound judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Small Company Exemptions

The trustees have prepared this report in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Henry Paul, (Trustee)

ST ANDREWS ENVIRONMENTAL NETWORK LIMITED (Limited by Guarantee) Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2018 which are set out on pages 6 to 12.

Respective Responsibilities of the Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine and report on the accounts under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

This report is made to the trustees, as a body, in accordance with the terms of my engagement. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the trustees for my work or for this report.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

Dane Paul

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention:

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
