Directors

Directors' Powers and Responsibilities

4 Number of Directors

4.1 The Directors shall not be less than one in number and there shall be no maximum number of Directors. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, from time to time vary the minimum and/or maximum number of Directors.

4.2 If the Company only has one Director, the sole Director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of these Articles relating to Directors' decision-making.

5 Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

6 Shareholders' reserve power

6.1 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

6.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

7 Directors may delegate

7.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:

7.1.1 to such person (who need not be a Director) or committee (comprising any number of persons, who need not be Directors);

7.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

7.1.3 to such an extent;

7.1.4 in relation to such matters or territories; and

7.1.5 on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit.

7.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

7.3 Any reference in these Articles to the exercise of a power or discretion by the Directors shall include a reference to the exercise of a power or discretion by any person or committee to whom it has been delegated.

7.4 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or in part, or alter its terms and conditions:

8 Committees

The Directors may make regulations in relation to the procedures of committees or sub-committees to whom their powers or discretions have been delegated or sub-delegated. Subject to any such regulations, the meetings and procedures of any committee or sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the meetings and procedures of Directors.

Decision-Making by Directors

9 Director decisions

The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken by Directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 10.

10 Directors' written resolutions

10.1 Any Director or the Secretary (where appointed) may propose a written resolution by giving written notice to the other Directors including Alternate Directors (if any) whose appointors are entitled to vote on such a resolution or to members of a committee formed under Article 8 for the time being entitled to vote on such a resolution, or may request the Secretary (where appointed) to give such notice.

10.2 Subject always to Article 10.3, a Directors' written resolution is adopted when a majority of the Directors (or Alternate Directors (if any) whose appointors are entitled to vote on such a resolution or the majority of the members of a committee formed under Article 8) who would have been entitled to vote on such a resolution if it had been proposed at a meeting of the Directors have:

10.2.1 signed one or more copies of it; or

10.2.2 otherwise indicated their agreement to it in writing or through any electronic voting system provided by the Company for this purpose.

10.3 A Directors' written resolution is not adopted if the number of Directors who have signed or otherwise indicated their agreement to it in accordance with Article 10.2 is less than the quorum for Directors' meetings.

10.4 Once a Directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a resolution passed at a Directors' meeting in accordance with the Articles.

10.5 A Directors' written resolution shall be deemed to be properly sent to a Director if sent in electronic form to such electronic address (if any) as may for the time being be notified by him/her or on his/her behalf to the Company for that purpose, or if it is sent to him/her personally or by word of mouth, or sent by instrument to him/her at his/her last known address or such other address (if any) as may for the time being be notified by him/her or on his/her behalf to the Company for that purpose.

11 Calling a Directors' meeting

11.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors may meet together to conduct business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. A Director may at any time, and the Secretary (where appointed) on the instruction of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Directors.

11.2 Notice of a meeting of the Board and any specific information deemed necessary shall, and any other communication may, be made available to the Directors digitally and, in particular, through the use of a secure Directors' website, which may be set up from time to time.

11.3 Notice of a meeting of the Directors (and any relevant board papers) shall be deemed to be properly sent to a Director if it is sent in electronic form to such address (if any) as may for the time being be notified by him/her or on his/her behalf to the Company for that purpose, or if it is sent to him/her personally or by word of mouth, or sent by instrument to him/her at his/her last known address or such other address (if any) as may for the time being be notified by him/her or on his/her behalf to the Company for that purpose. A Director may waive notice of a particular meeting either prospectively or retrospectively, and where such waiver is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

12 Participation in Directors' meetings

12.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors may participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, to conduct business or adjourn, or otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, provided always:

12.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and 12.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

12.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other, provided that all parties participating in the Directors' meeting can speak to and be heard by all those participating in the meeting simultaneously.

12.3 If all the Directors participating in a Directors' meeting are not in the same place, the meeting shall be deemed to take place at the registered office of the Company provided that a participating Director is present at that location or, in the circumstance where this is not the case, wherever any of the participating Directors are, as determined between them.

12.4 A Director who is unable to attend any meeting of the Directors and has not appointed an Alternate Director may authorise any other Director to vote on his/her behalf at that meeting. The voting rights of any Director being so authorised in accordance with this Article shall be cumulative, but that Director shall not be counted more than once for the purposes of the quorum. The Secretary (where appointed) shall retain a record of any written notice submitted to the Company. The authorised Director's signature on any resolution or other matter in writing of the Directors shall be as effective as the signature of the authorising Director.

13 Quorum for Directors' meetings

13.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

13.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Directors provided that all the Directors unanimously approve such quorum and, unless so fixed at any other number, shall be at least half the members of the Board plus one. In the event that the number of members of the Board is an odd number, the quorum for Directors' meetings, unless fixed at any other number as aforesaid, shall be at least half the members of the Board (rounded up to the next whole number) plus one.

13.3 Where the Company has a sole Director or only one Director is eligible to be counted in the quorum and vote on a matter, the quorum is one.

13.4 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

13.4.1 to appoint further Directors; or

13.4.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further Directors.

14 Chairing of Directors' meetings

14.1 The Directors shall appoint a Director to chair their meetings.

14.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chair.

14.3 The Directors may terminate the Chair's appointment at any time.

14.4 If the Chair is not participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating Directors may appoint one of their number to chair it.

15 Casting vote

If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chair or other Director chairing the meeting shall not have a casting vote.

16 Validity of proceedings

All acts (both written and unwritten) done by any meeting of Directors, or of any committee or sub-committee of the Directors, or by any person acting as a member of any such committee or sub-committee, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the Company be valid, notwithstanding that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or any such persons, or that any such persons were disqualified or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, or were otherwise incapacitated.

17 Record of decisions to be kept

The Directors or Secretary (where appointed) must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, of every majority decision taken by the Directors and of every Directors' written resolution for at least 10 years from the date of the decision or resolution.

18 Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the Directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to Directors.

19 Change of name

The Company may change its name by a decision of the Directors.

Directors' Interests

- 20.1 For the purposes of Section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, the Directors shall have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a Director to avoid a situation in which he/she has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company.
- 20.2 Authorisation of a matter under this Article 20 shall be effective only if:

 - 20.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question and any other interested Director (together the "Interested Directors"); and

 - 20.3.3 be terminated by the Directors at any time;
- and a Director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him/her by the Directors pursuant to any such authorisation.
- 20.4 A Director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him/her, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he/she (or a person connected with him/her) derives from any matter authorised by the Directors under this Article 20 and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating to such a matter shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.
- 20.5 This Article does not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company.

21 Permitted Interests

- 21.1 Subject to compliance with Article 21.2, a Director, notwithstanding his/her office, may have an interest of the following kind:

 - 21.1.2 where a Director (or a person connected with him/her) is a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with a Relevant Company, or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

21.1.3 where a Director (or a person connected with him/her) represents the interests of any Member whose interests may conflict, from time to time, with the interests of the Company;

21.1.4 where a Director has an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;

21.1.5 where a Director has an interest, or a transaction or arrangement gives rise to an interest, of which the Director is not aware; or 21.1.6 where a Director has any other interest authorised by ordinary resolution.

No authorisation under Article 20 shall be necessary in respect of any such interest.

21.2 A Director shall declare the nature and extent of any interest permitted under Article 21.1 and not falling within Article 21.3, at a meeting of the Directors or in such other manner as the Directors may resolve.

21.3 No declaration of an interest shall be required by a Director in relation to an interest:

21.3.1 falling within Articles 21.1.1, 21.1.3 or 21.1.5;

21.3.2 if, or to the extent that, the other Directors are already aware of such interest (and for this purpose the other Directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or

21.3.3 if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his/her service contract (as defined in Section 227 of the Companies Act 2006) that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the Directors, or by a committee of Directors appointed for the purpose under these Articles.

21.4 A Director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him/her, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he/she (or a person connected with him/her) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any Relevant Company or for such remuneration, each as referred to in Article 21.1, and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

21.5 For the purposes of this Article 21, "Relevant Company" shall mean:

21.5.1 the Company;

21.5.2 a subsidiary of the Company;

21.5.3 any holding company of the Company or a subsidiary of any such holding company;

21.5.4 any body corporate promoted by the Company; or 21.5.5 any body corporate in which the Company is otherwise interested.

22 Quorum and voting

22.1 A Director shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution in respect of any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal, in which he/she (or a person connected with him/her) has an interest, unless the interest is solely of a kind permitted by Article 21.1.

22.2 A Director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the Directors in relation to any resolution on which he/she is not entitled to vote.

23 Confidential information

23.1 Subject to Article 23.3, if a Director, otherwise than by virtue of his/her position as Director, receives information in respect of which he/she owes a duty of confidentiality to a person other than the Company, he/she shall not be required:

23.1.1 to disclose such information to the Company or to the Directors, or to any Director, officer or employee of the Company; or 23.1.2 otherwise use or apply such confidential information for the purpose of or in connection with the performance of his/her duties as a Director.

23.2 Directors shall maintain in strict confidence the information (including all deliberations) from meetings of, and provided in connection with their positions on, the Board and the committees of which they are members, as appropriate. They shall refrain from disclosing (other than in the course of the proper fulfilment of their duties as Directors) the information, data, reports and background information to which they have had access in the exercise of their duties, and from using such information for their own benefit or that of a third party. Directors must also adhere to any restrictions or procedures established for the use of electronic systems, applications and similar items made available to them by the Company.

23.3 Where such duty of confidentiality arises out of a situation in which the Director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company, Article 23.1 shall apply only if the conflict arises out of a matter which has been authorised under Article 20 or falls within Article 21.

23.4 This Article 23 is without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse or release the Director from disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure may otherwise be required under this Article 23.

24 Directors' interests - general

24.1 For the purposes of Articles 20 to 24:

24.1.1 a person is connected with a Director if that person is connected for the purposes of Section 252 of the Companies Act 2006; and

24.1.2 an interest (whether of the Director or of such a connected person) of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him/her to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his/hers.

24.2 Where a Director has an interest which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, the Director may, and shall if so requested by the Directors, take such additional steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing such conflict of interest, including compliance with any procedures laid down from time to time by the Directors for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest generally and/or any specific procedures approved by the Directors for the purpose of or in connection with the situation or matter in question, including without limitation:

24.2.1 absenting himself/herself from any meetings of the Directors at which the relevant situation or matter falls to be considered; and

24.2.2 not reviewing documents or information made available to the Directors generally in relation to such situation or matter and/or arranging for such documents or information to be reviewed by a professional adviser to ascertain the extent to which it might be appropriate for him/her to have access to such documents or information.

- 24.3 The Company may by ordinary resolution ratify any contract, transaction or arrangement, or other proposal, not properly authorised by reason of a contravention of any provisions of Articles 20 to 24.

Appointment of Directors

25 Methods of appointing Directors

- 25.1 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director:

25.1.1 by ordinary resolution;

25.1.2 by a decision of the Directors; or

25.1.3 by a notice given in accordance with Article 27.

- 25.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the Company has no shareholders and no Directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a Director.

- 25.3 For the purposes of Article 25.2, where two or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

26 Termination of Director's appointment

- 26.1 A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:

26.1.1 that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

26.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

26.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

26.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

26.1.5 notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

26.1.6 a shareholder or shareholders holding in aggregate a majority of the nominal value of the shares of the Company terminates that Director's appointment by written notice to the Company;

26.1.7 the ultimate holding company (as defined under Section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006), from time to time, of the Company terminates that Director's appointment by written notice to the Company; or 26.1.8 notice of termination is served or deemed served upon the Director and that notice is given by all the other Directors for the time being.

- 26.2 If a Director holds an appointment to an executive office which automatically terminates on termination of his/her office as a Director, his/her removal from office pursuant to this Article 26 shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him/her and the Company.

27 Appointment of Director by majority shareholders

A shareholder or shareholders holding in aggregate a majority of the nominal value of the shares may, by notice to the Company, appoint any person to be a Director to fill a vacancy or to be an additional Director.

28 Directors' remuneration

Any Director who is appointed to any executive office (including for this purpose the office of Chair or deputy chair or vice-chair whether or not such office is held in an executive capacity) or who serves on any committee or who acts as trustee of a retirement benefits scheme or employees' share scheme or who otherwise performs services which, in the opinion of the Directors or any committee thereof, are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director or who makes any special exertions in going or residing abroad or otherwise in or about the business of the Company, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise as the Directors may determine.

29 Directors' expenses

- 29.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

29.1.1 meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;

29.1.2 general meetings; or

29.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

30 Appointment of executive Officers

- 30.1 The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their number to be the holder of any executive office or make any appointment by them of a Director conditional upon his/her accepting any executive office (including, where considered appropriate, the office of Chair, deputy chair or vice-chair, or chief, deputy chief or assistant chief executive whether or not such office is held in an executive capacity) and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any such Director for his/her employment by the Company or for the provision by him/her of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director. For the avoidance of doubt, the holder of an executive office need not be appointed as a Director in an executive capacity. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made on such terms and for such period as they may (subject to the Companies Acts) resolve and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may at any time revoke or vary the terms of any such appointment.

- 30.2 The appointment of any Director to the office of Chair or chief executive shall automatically terminate if he/she ceases to be a Director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him/her and the Company.
- 30.3 The appointment of any Director to any other executive office shall not automatically terminate if he/she ceases to be a Director for any reason, unless the contract or resolution under which he/she holds office shall expressly state otherwise, in which event such termination shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him/her and the Company.

Alternate Directors

31 Alternate Directors

- 31.1 Any Director (the "appointor") may at any time appoint any person (including another Director) to be his/her alternate (the "Alternate" or the "Alternate Director") and may at any time terminate such appointment.
- 31.2 The appointment or termination of appointment of an Alternate Director must be made by notice in writing signed by the appointor or in any other manner approved by the Directors, or in accordance with Article 31.4.
- 31.3 The notice must identify the proposed Alternate and, in the case of an appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed Alternate stating that the proposed Alternate is willing to act as the Alternate of the Director giving the notice.
- 31.4 The appointment of an Alternate Director shall terminate:
 - 31.4.1 when the appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company specifying when it is to terminate;
 - 31.4.2 on the occurrence in relation to the Alternate of any event which if it happened to the Alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a Director;
 - 31.4.3 on receipt by the Company of notice in writing by the Alternate of his/her resignation from such appointment;
 - 31.4.4 on the death of the Alternate's appointor; or
 - 31.4.5 if his/her appointor ceases to be a Director.
- 31.5 An Alternate Director shall be entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Directors and of any committee of the Directors of which his/her appointor is a member and shall be entitled to attend and vote as a Director at any such meeting and be counted in the quorum at any such meeting at which his/her appointor is not personally present and generally at such meetings to perform all functions of his/her appointor as a Director. For the purposes of the proceedings at such meetings, the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if the Alternate Director (instead of his/her appointor) were a Director.

- 31.6 If an Alternate is himself/herself a Director or shall attend any such meeting as an Alternate for more than one Director, his/her voting rights shall be cumulative but he/she shall not be counted more than once for the purposes of the quorum.
- 31.7 If his/her appointor is for the time being temporarily unable to act through ill health or disability an Alternate's signature to any resolution in writing of the Directors shall be as effective as the signature of his/her appointor.
- 31.8 This Article 31 shall also apply (with such changes as are necessary) to such extent as the Directors may from time to time resolve to any meeting of any committee of the Directors of which the appointor of an Alternate Director is a member.
- 31.9 An Alternate Director shall not (except as otherwise provided in this Article 31) have power to act as a Director, nor shall he/she be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of these Articles, nor shall he/she be deemed to be the agent of his/her appointor.
- 31.10 An Alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent as if he/she were a Director.
- 31.11 An Alternate shall not be entitled to receive remuneration from the Company in respect of his/her appointment as Alternate Director except to the extent his/her appointor directs the Company to pay to the Alternate some of the remuneration otherwise payable to that Director.

Secretary

32 Secretary

- 32.1 If the Directors so resolve, a Secretary shall be appointed on such terms as the Directors think fit. Any Secretary so appointed may at any time be removed from office by the Directors, but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him/her and the Company.
- 32.2 The Secretary shall be responsible for performing the typical duties of a company secretary which shall include (but not be limited to) ensuring compliance with the relevant provisions of the Companies Acts and all matters of corporate governance.

Part 3 Shares and Distributions

Shares

33 All shares to be fully paid up

- 33.1 No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the Company in consideration for its issue.
- 33.2 This does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the Company by the subscribers to the Company's memorandum.

34 Pre-emption rights

The directors may allot equity securities as if Section 561 of the Companies Act 2006 (Existing shareholders' rights of pre-emption) did not apply to the allotment.

35 Powers to issue different classes of share

35.1 Subject to the Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution (or, if the Company does not so determine, as the Directors may determine in accordance with section 550 of the Companies Act 2006).

35.2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the Directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

36 Trusts

The Company shall be entitled, but shall not be bound, to accept and, in case of acceptance, shall be entitled to record in such manner as it may think fit, notices of any trusts in respect of any of the shares. Notwithstanding any such acceptance and/or the making of any such record, the Company shall not be bound to see to the execution, administration or observance of any trust, whether expressed, implied or constructive in respect of any shares, and shall be entitled to recognise and give effect to the acts and deeds of the holders of such shares as if they were absolute owners thereof. For the purpose of this article, "trust" includes any right in respect of any shares other than an absolute right thereto in the holder thereof for the time being or such other rights in case of transmission of shares as are set out in the Articles.

37 Share certificates

37.1 The Company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.

37.2 Every certificate must specify:

37.2.1 the number and class of shares to which it relates;

37.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;

37.2.3 that the shares are fully paid; and

37.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

37.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

37.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

37.5 Certificates shall be executed by the Company in such manner as the Directors may decide.

38 Replacement share certificates

38.1 A shareholder who has separate certificates in respect of shares of one class may request in writing that it be replaced with a consolidated certificate. The Company may comply with such request at its discretion.

- 38.2 A shareholder who has a consolidated share certificate may request in writing that it be replaced with two or more separate certificates representing the shares in such proportions as he/she may specify. The Company may comply with such request at its discretion.
- 38.3 If a share certificate is damaged or defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Member shall be issued a new certificate representing the same shares upon request.
- 38.4 No new certificate will be issued pursuant to this Article 38 unless the relevant shareholder has:
- 38.4.1 first delivered the old certificate or certificates to the Company for cancellation; or
 - 38.4.2 complied with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the Directors may think fit; and
 - 38.4.3 paid such reasonable fee as the Directors may decide.
- 38.5 In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, any request pursuant to this Article 38 may be made by any one of the joint holders.

39 Authorisation for share buy back out of cash

- 39.1 Subject to the Companies Act 2006, but without prejudice to any other provision of these Articles, the Company may purchase its own shares out of capital otherwise than in accordance with Chapter 5 of Part 18 of the Companies Act 2006, up to an aggregate purchase price in a financial year of the lower of:
- 39.1.1 £15,000; or
 - 39.1.2 the nominal value of 5% of its fully paid share capital as at the beginning of the financial year.

40 Share transfers

- 40.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer executed by or on behalf of the transferor. Such instrument of transfer must be in hard copy form but may otherwise be in any usual form or any other form approved by the Directors.
- 40.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
- 40.3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 40.4 The transferor remains the holder of the shares concerned until the transferee's name is entered in the register of Members in respect of those shares.
- 40.5 The Directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of the refusal unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

41 Transmission of shares

- 41.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the Company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.
- 41.2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the Directors may reasonably require:

41.2.1 may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, provided that the Directors shall, in any case, have the same right to decline registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the relevant Member before the occurrence of the transmission event, and

41.2.2 subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

41.3 A transmittee does not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which it is entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless it becomes the holder of those shares.

42 Exercise of transmittees' rights

42.1 A transmittee who wishes to become the holder of shares to which it has become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.

42.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in hard copy form in respect of it.

42.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article 42 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

43 Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of Members.

Dividends and Other Distributions

44 Procedure for declaring dividends

44.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the Directors may decide to pay dividends (whether final or otherwise).

44.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the Directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.

44.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.

44.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or Directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

44.5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.

44.6 The Directors may pay fixed dividends on any class of shares carrying such a dividend expressed to be payable on fixed dates on the dates prescribed for payment if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

- 44.7 If the Directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of a fixed or interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

45 Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 45.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

45.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the payee either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide;

45.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the payee by post to the payee at the payee's registered address (if the payee is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the payee either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide;

45.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the payee has specified either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide; or 45.1.4 any other means of payment as the Directors agree with the payee either in writing or by such other means as the Directors decide.

- 45.2 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to the rights attaching to any shares, any dividend or other sum payable on or in respect of a share may be paid in such currency as the Directors may resolve, using such exchange rate for currency conversions as the Directors may select.

- 45.3 In the Articles, the "payee" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

45.3.1 the holder of the share; or

45.3.2 if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of Members; or

45.3.3 if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmittee; or 45.3.4 such other person or persons as the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, all of them) may direct.

46 No interest on distributions

- 46.1 The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:

46.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued; or

46.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company.

47 Unclaimed distributions

- 47.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

47.1.1 payable in respect of shares; and

47.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

47.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

47.3 The Company shall be entitled to cease sending dividend warrants and cheques by post or otherwise to a Member if those instruments have been returned undelivered to, or left uncashed by, that Member on at least two consecutive occasions, or, following one such occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish the Member's new address. The entitlement conferred on the Company by this Article 47.3 in respect of any Member shall cease if the Member claims a dividend or cashed a dividend warrant or cheque.

47.4 If:

47.4.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

47.4.2 the payee has not claimed it, the payee is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

48 Non-cash distributions

48.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, direct the payment of a dividend in whole or in part or other distribution payable in respect of a share by the transfer of non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any Company) and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution.

48.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

48.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;

48.2.2 paying cash to any payee on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and 48.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

49 Waiver of distributions

49.1 Payees may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share in whole or in part by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

49.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or

49.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

Capitalisation of Profits

50 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

50.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

50.1.1 capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve; and

50.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

50.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

50.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and

50.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

50.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

50.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

50.5 Subject to the Articles the Directors may:

50.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 50.3 and 50.4 partly in one way and partly in another;

50.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article 50 (including to disregard fractional entitlements or for the benefit of them to accrue to the Company); and

50.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article 50.

Part 4

Decision-Making by Shareholders

Organisation of General Meetings

51 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

51.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

51.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

- 51.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - 51.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 51.3 The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 51.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 51.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

52 Quorum for general meetings

No business, other than the appointment of the Chair of the Meeting, is to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and during the transaction of business. One person entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, being a Member, the proxy of a Member or a duly authorised representative of a corporation which is a Member, shall be a quorum.

53 Chairing general meetings

- 53.1 If the Directors have appointed a Chair, the Chair shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.
- 53.2 If the Directors have not appointed a Chair, or if the Chair is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:
 - 53.2.1 the Directors present; or
 - 53.2.2 (if no Directors are present), the meeting,must appoint a Director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and such appointment must be the first business of the meeting.
- 53.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article 53 is referred to as the "Chair of the Meeting".

54 Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-shareholders

- 54.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.
- 54.2 The Chair of the Meeting may permit other persons who are not:
 - 54.2.1 shareholders of the Company; or
 - 54.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

55 Adjournment

- 55.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the Chair of the Meeting must adjourn it.
- 55.2 The Chair of the Meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:
- 55.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment; or
 - 55.2.2 the Chair of the Meeting considers that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 55.3 The Chair of the Meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
- 55.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the Chair of the Meeting must specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors.
- 55.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- 55.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and
 - 55.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 55.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

Voting at General Meetings

56 Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

57 Errors and disputes

- 57.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 57.2 Any such objection must be referred to the Chair of the Meeting, whose decision is final.

58 Poll votes

- 58.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:
- 58.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or
 - 58.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
- 58.2 A poll may be demanded by:

- 58.2.1 the Chair of the Meeting;
- 58.2.2 the Directors;
- 58.2.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- 58.2.4 a person or persons representing not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.

58.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

- 58.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken; and
- 58.3.2 the Chair of the Meeting consents to the withdrawal.

58.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chair of the Meeting directs.

59 Content of proxy notices

59.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

- 59.1.1 states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy;
- 59.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
- 59.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and
- 59.1.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

59.2 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

59.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

60 Delivery of proxy notices

60.1 Proxy notices in hard copy form must be received at such place and by such deadline specified in the notice convening the meeting. If no place is specified, then the proxy notice must be received at the registered office of the Company for the time being. If no deadline is specified, proxy notices must be received, before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting or, if a poll is taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting, at the time for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used.

60.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

60.3 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

60.4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

60.5 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

60.6 Any vote cast or poll demanded by a proxy shall not be invalidated by the previous death or insanity of the shareholder or by the revocation or termination of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment was made unless notice of such death, insanity, revocation or termination was received in writing at the place specified in the notice of meeting for the receipt of proxy notices (or, if no place is specified, the registered office for the time being) before the start of the meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for the taking of the poll.

61 Amendments to resolutions

61.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

61.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chair of the Meeting may determine); and

61.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chair of the Meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

61.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

61.2.1 the Chair of the Meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and

61.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

61.3 If the Chair of the Meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the Chair of the Meeting's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

62 Written resolutions

The shareholders may pass any resolution (other than a resolution to remove a Director or auditor before expiry of his/her term of office) as a written resolution in accordance with Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Companies Act 2006.

Part 5.

Administrative Arrangements

63 Means of communication to be used

63.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

63.2 Any notice, document or information (including a share certificate) which is sent or supplied by the Company in hard copy form, or in electronic form but to be delivered other than by electronic means, which is:

63.3 Any notice, document or information which is sent or supplied by the Company by electronic means shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient 24 hours after it was transmitted, and in proving such receipt it shall be sufficient to show that such notice, document or information was properly addressed.

63.4 The accidental failure to send, or the non-receipt by any person entitled to, any notice of or other document or information relating to any meeting or other proceeding shall not invalidate the relevant meeting or proceeding.

63.5 Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

63.6 A Director may agree with the Company that notices, documents or information sent to that Director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than that provided in this Article 63.

63.7 Each Director shall provide the Secretary (where appointed) with an up to date electronic mail address from time to time.

64 Joint holders

64.1 Except as otherwise specified in the Articles, anything which needs to be agreed or specified by the joint holders of a share shall for all purposes be taken to be agreed or specified by all the joint holders where it has been agreed or specified by the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of Members in respect of the share.

64.2 Except as otherwise specified in the Articles, any notice, document or information which is authorised or required to be sent or supplied to joint holders of a share may be sent or supplied to the joint holder whose name stands first in the register of Members in respect of the share, to the exclusion of the other joint holders.

64.3 The provisions of this Article 64 shall have effect in place of the provisions of Schedule 5 of the Companies Act 2006 regarding joint holders of shares.

65 Company seals

The Company has no common seal.

66 No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a shareholder.

67 Provision for employees on cessation of business

The Directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a Director or former Director or shadow Director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary.

68 Bank mandates

The Directors may by majority decision or written resolution authorise such person or persons as they think fit to act as signatories to any bank account of the Company and may amend or remove such authorisation from time to time by resolution.

69 Authentication of documents
