No shareholder shall be entitled to more than one Season Ticket as a Shareholder.
4. The Company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any Shares in the Company or in its holding Company, nor shall the Company make any loan upon the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this Article shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the proviso to Section 54(1) of the Act
- 5 The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any Shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions whether absolute or conditional, for any Shares in the Company at any rate not exceeding ten per centum of the price at which the said Shares are issued. Such commission may be satisfied by payment in cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid Shares, or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of Shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

SHARE CAPITAL

6. Section 550 of the Companies Act 2006 shall apply to the Company and pursuant to section 567 of the Companies Act 2006 the effect of section 561 and section 562 of the Companies Act 2006 shall be excluded in relation to all allotments of equity securities.

SHARES AND SHARE CERTIFICATES

7. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing Shares in the Company, any Share in the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred, or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution determine.
8. (a) Any Preference Share may, with the sanction of a Special Resolution, be issued on the terms that it is, or at the option of the Company, is liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company before the issue of the Shares may by Special Resolution determine.
- (b) Preference Shares may be issued (with a cumulative preference dividend not exceeding £7-50 per cent or such other dividend as may be allowed from time to time by the Football Association for a period not exceeding three years) but the Company may not issue more Preference Shares than its subscribed Ordinary Shares.
9. The Shares shall be under the control of the Directors, who may allot and dispose of or grant options over the same to such persons, on such terms, and in such manner as they think fit.
10. Save as required by Statute the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the Register in respect of any Share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not (save as aforesaid) be under any obligation to recognise any trust or equity or equitable claim to or partial interest in such Share, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.
11. Every Member shall be entitled without payment to one Certificate under the Seal for all the Shares registered in his name or, in the case of Shares of more than one class being registered in his name, to a separate Certificate for each class of Shares so registered. Every Certificate shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which it is issued and the distinctive numbers, if any, of such Shares and the amounts paid up thereon respectively. Every such Certificate shall be delivered to the Member within two months after the allotment or lodging with the Company of the transfer, as the case may be, of the Shares Comprised therein

- 12 If any Member shall require additional Certificates he shall pay for each additional Certificate such sum, not exceeding twenty-five pounds, as the Directors shall determine
13. If any Certificate be defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, a new Certificate may be issued on payment of twenty-five pounds or such less sum as the Directors may prescribe, and the person requiring the new Certificate shall surrender the defaced or worn out Certificate, or give such evidence of the loss or destruction of the Certificate and such indemnity to the Company as the Directors think fit

JOINT HOLDERS OF SHARES

- 14 Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any Share they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint tenants with benefit of survivorship, subject to the provisions following:
 - (a) the Company may but shall not be compellable to accept or register more than one person as the holder of or entitled to any Share,
 - (b) the joint holders of any Share shall be liable severally as well as jointly, in respect of all payments which ought to be made in respect of such Shares;
 - (c) on the death of any one of such joint holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to such share, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any Share which had been jointly held by him,
 - (d) any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividend, bonus, or return of capital payable to such joint holders,
 - (e) only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of any Share shall be entitled to delivery of the Certificate relating to such Share, or to receive notices from the Company, or to attend or vote at General Meetings of the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders

CALLS ON SHARES

- 15 The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on their Shares (whether on account of the nominal amount of the Shares or by way of premium) and not by the terms of issue thereof made payable at any fixed time, provided that no call shall exceed one fourth of the nominal amount of the Share, or be made payable within one month after the date when the last instalment of the last preceding call shall have been made payable, and each Member shall, subject to receiving fourteen days' notice at least, specifying the time and place for payment, pay the amount called on his Shares to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments.

16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed.
17. If a call payable in respect of any Share or any instalment of a call be not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of such Share shall be liable to pay interest on the same at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as the Directors shall determine from the day appointed for the payment of such call or instalment to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may, if they shall think fit, waive the payment of such interest or any part thereof.
18. If by the terms of the issue of any Shares, or otherwise, any amount is made payable at any fixed time, whether on account of the nominal amount of the Shares or by way of premium, every such amount shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors, of which due notice had been given, and all the provisions hereof with respect to the payment of calls and interest thereon; or to the forfeiture of Shares for non-payment of calls, shall apply to every such amount and the Shares in respect of which it is payable.
19. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any Shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so paid in advance the Directors may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting, six per centum per annum) as may be agreed upon between the Member paying the moneys in advance and the Directors.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

20. The instrument of transfer of any Share in the Company shall be in writing, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
21. Shares in the Company may be transferred in any usual or common form in any other form of which the Directors shall approve.
22. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of Shares whereon the Company has a lien, or a transfer of Shares not fully paid, or to a person of whom they do not approve. The Register of Transfer of Shares shall be closed for thirty days prior to the Annual General Meeting or at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, but so that registration of Transfers shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless

- (a) a fee not exceeding ten pounds paid to the Company in respect thereof; and;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the Certificate of Shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any Shares they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal and return to him the instrument of transfer

- 23 The Company shall be entitled to charge such fee, not exceeding fifteen pence as the Directors may from time to time determine for registering any probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, or other instrument relation to or affecting the title to any Shares
- 24 On the death of any Member (not being one of two or more joint holders of a Share) the legal personal representatives of such deceased Member shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to Share or Shares registered in his name.
- 25 Any person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors, elect either to be registered as a Member in respect of such Share, or to make such transfer of the Share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself shall give to the Company a notice in writing signed by him that he so elects The Directors shall in either case have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as they would have had if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice of the election or transfer were a transfer executed by the Member
- 26 Any person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share, except that he shall not, unless and until he is registered as a member in respect of the Share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by Membership in relation to Meetings of the Company Provided always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to make such transfer as aforesaid, and if such notice is not complied with within ninety days after service thereof the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such Share until the requirement of the notice has been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES AND LIEN

- 27 If any Member fail to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him, requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with interest accrued and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment
28. The notice shall name a further day (not being earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment and all interest accrued and expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment are to be paid, and it shall also name the place where payment is to be made. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time stated and at the place appointed the Shares in respect of which such call or instalment is payable will be liable to forfeiture
- 29 If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any Shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, and any such forfeiture shall extend to all dividends declared in respect of the Shares so forfeited, but not actually paid before such forfeiture
- 30 Any Shares so forfeited shall be deemed to the property of the Company, and may be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner, either subject to or discharged from all calls made or instalments due prior to the forfeiture, as the Directors think fit, or the Directors may, at any time before such Shares are sold or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such terms as they may approve. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale or other disposition the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the Shares so sold or otherwise disposed of to the purchaser thereof or other person becoming entitled thereto
- 31 Any person whose Shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited Shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of the forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the Shares together with interest thereon at such rate, not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as the Directors shall appoint, down to the date of payment, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receive payment in full of the nominal amount of the Shares. The Directors may, if they shall think fit, remit the payment of such interest of any part thereof
32. When any Shares have been forfeited an entry shall forthwith be made in the Register recording the forfeiture and the date thereof, and so soon as the Shares so forfeited have been sold or otherwise disposed of an entry shall also be made of the manner and date of the sale or disposal thereof

- 33 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all Shares not fully paid held by any Member of the Company (whether along or jointly with other persons) and upon all dividends and bonuses which may be declared in respect of such Shares, for all debts, obligations, and liabilities of such Member to the Company Provided always that if the Company shall register a transfer of any Shares upon which it has such a lien as aforesaid without giving to the transferee notice of its claim, the said Shares shall, in default of agreement to the contrary between the Company and the transferee, be freed and discharged from the lien of the Company.
- 34 The Directors may, at any time after the date for the payment or satisfaction of such debt, obligations, or liabilities shall have arrived, serve upon any member who is indebted or under any obligation or liability to the Company, or upon the person entitled to his Shares by reason of the death or bankruptcy of such Member, a notice requiring him to pay the amount due to the Company or satisfy the said obligation or liability and stating that, if payment is not made or the said obligation or liability is not satisfied within a time (not being less than fourteen days) specified in such notice, the Shares held by such Member will be liable to be sold, and if such Member or the person entitled to his Shares as aforesaid shall not comply with such notice within the time aforesaid, the Directors may sell such Shares without further notice, and for the purpose of giving effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the Shares so sold to the Purchaser thereof.
- 35 Upon any sale being made by the Directors of any Shares to satisfy the lien of the Company thereon, the proceeds shall be applied First, in the payment of all costs of such sale, next, in satisfaction of the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Member to the Company and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the person entitled to the Shares at the date of the Sale, or as he shall in writing direct.
- 36 An entry in the Directors' Minute Book of the forfeiture of any Shares, or that any Shares have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence as against all persons claiming to be entitled to such Shares, that the said Shares were properly forfeited or sold; and such entry, the receipt of the Company for the price of such Shares, and the appropriate Share Certificate, shall constitute a good title to such Shares, and, subject to the due signature of a transfer if the same be required, the name of the purchaser or other person entitled shall be entered in the Register as a Member of the Company, and he shall be entitled to a Certificate of title to the Shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the Shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or sale The remedy (if any) of the former holder of such Shares and of any person claiming under or through him shall be against the Company and in damages only
- 37 The Company may by Ordinary Resolution increase the Capital by the creation of new Shares, such increase to be of such aggregate amount and to be divided into Shares of such respective amounts as the resolutions shall prescribe

- 38 Any capital raised by the creation of new Shares shall, unless otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, be considered as part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls and the forfeiture of Shares on non-payment of calls, transfer and transmission of Shares, lien, or otherwise, as if it had been part of the original capital
- 39 The Company may by Special Resolution
- (a) sub-divide its existing Shares or any of them into Shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association. Provided that in the sub-division of an existing Share the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced Share shall be the same as it was in the case of the Share from which the reduced Share is derived,
 - (b) consolidate and divide its capital or any part thereof into Shares or larger amount than its existing Shares, and
 - (c) cancel any Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person,
 - (d) reduce its Share Capital, any Capital Redemption Reserve Fund, and any Share premium Account in any manner authorised by law

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

40. If at any time the capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class of any of such rights (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 72 of the Act, be modified, abrogated or varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three fourths of the issued Shares of that class, or with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the Shares of the class. To every such separate General Meeting the provisions of these Articles relation to General Meetings shall, mutatis mutandis, apply, but so that at every such separate General Meeting the quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third of the issued Shares of the class, and that any holder of Shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll
- 41 The rights attached to any class of Shares shall not (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class or by the terms upon such Shares are for the time being held) be deemed to be modified or varied by the creation or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu therewith

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 42 The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other Meetings in that year and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting and that of the next The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called "Extraordinary General Meetings"

43. (1) The Directors may whenever they think fit and shall on the requisition of members of the Company holding at the date of deposit of the requisition not less than one-tenth of such of the paid up capital of the Company as at the date of the deposit carries the right of voting at general meetings of the Company, forthwith proceed duly to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company
- (2) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the Company, and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists
- (3) If the Directors do not within twenty-one days from the date of the deposit of the requisition proceed duly to convene a meeting, the requisitionists, or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves convene a meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of three months from the said date
- (4) A meeting convened under this Section by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by Directors
- (5) Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the directors duly to convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the Company, and any sum so repaid shall be retained by the Company out of any sums due or to become due from the Company by way of fees or other remuneration in respect of their services to such of the directors as were in default
- (6) For the purpose of this section the directors shall, in the case of a meeting at which a resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, be deemed not to have duly convened the meeting if they do not give such notice thereof as is required by section one hundred and forty one of this Act
44. In the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting called in pursuance of a requisition, unless such meeting shall be been called by the Directors, no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the Meeting shall be transacted
- 45 An Annual General Meeting and a Meeting for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and a Meeting of the Company other than an Annual General Meeting or a Meeting for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at least The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and also of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day, and the hour of meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of the business. The notice shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting to such persons as are under these Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Company. Every notice calling in Annual General Meeting shall specify the Meeting as such.

46. A meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than specified in the last preceding Article, be deemed to have been duly called with regard to length of notice if it is so agreed:
- (a) in the case of a Meeting called as the Annual General Meeting by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat, and
 - (b) in the case of any other Meeting by a majority in number of the Members having the right to attend and vote at the Meeting, being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent in nominal value of the Shares giving that right.
47. In every notice calling a Meeting of the Company or of any class of Members of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not also be a member.
48. The accidental omission to give notice to any person entitled under these Articles to receive notice of a General Meeting or the non-receipt by any such person of such notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings at that Meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

49. The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the accounts and balance sheets, the reports of the Directors and Auditors, and any other documents required by law to be attached or annexed to the balance sheets, to elect Directors in place of those retiring, to elect Auditors and fix their remuneration, and to declare a Dividend. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, shall be deemed special.
50. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present and such quorums shall consist of not less than twenty Members personally present.
51. If within half an hour from the time appointed for a General Meeting a quorum be not present the Meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned Meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting, those

Members who are present shall be deemed to be quorum, and may do all business which a quorum might have done

52. The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any Meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the Meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Members present shall choose one of the Directors present to be Chairman, or if no Director be present and willing to take the chair the Members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.
53. The Chairman may, with the consent of any General Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the Meeting), adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place; but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned Meeting shall be given as in the case of an original Meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned Meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat.
54. (a) At any General Meeting every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, and unless a poll be (on or before the declaration of the result of the show of hands) directed by the Chairman or demanded by at least three members entitled to vote, or by one or more Members representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the Meeting, or holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting, being Shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the Shares conferring that right, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or not carried, or carried or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minute Book of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn and subject to Article 55 hereof a poll may be taken by means of voting papers and the personal attendance of the vote or his proxy may be dispensed with.
- (b) On the election of a Director or Directors the election shall be by ballot and each person voting must vote for the number of Directors to be elected otherwise his voting paper will be void.
55. If a poll be directed or demanded in the manner before mentioned it shall be (subject to the provisions of Article 58 hereof) taken at such time (but not more than thirty days after such direction or demand) and in such manner as the Chairman may appoint, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was directed or demanded.

56. In the case of an equality of votes at any General Meeting, whether upon a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or a casting vote
57. No objection to the admission or rejection of any vote shall be taken except at the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the vote in dispute is given or tendered. The Chairman shall determine any such objection if made within due time, and such determination shall be final and conclusive.
58. A poll demanded upon the election of a Chairman or upon a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be preceded with pending the taking of the poll
59. In the event of a poll or ballot being taken and in whatever manner, there shall be appointed by the Members in General Meeting not less than three scrutineers whose duty shall be to supervise the counting of the votes when the poll or ballot takes place

VOTES OF MEMBERS

60. Each Member shall have one vote for each share held by such member
61. If any Member be a person of unsound mind he may vote by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other legal curator
62. No Member shall be entitled at any General Meeting or be entitled to any of the privileges arising from the possession of a Share unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of the Shares held by him in the Company have been paid and no member shall be entitled to vote in respect of any share that he has acquired by transfer at any Meeting held unless he has been possessed of the Share in respect of which he claims to vote for a least thirty days prior to the time of holding the Meeting at which he proposes to vote
63. Upon a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
64. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer, or if its attorney duly authorised in writing, or if such appointor be a corporation either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised
65. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company
66. The instrument appointing a proxy, and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified or office copy of such power or authority, shall be deposited at the Office not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the person named in such instrument is authorised to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid

- 67 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll
- 68 A vote given or act done in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the appointor, or revocation of the proxy, or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the Share in respect of which the proxy is given, unless notice in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the Meeting or adjourned Meeting or poll at which the vote was given or the act was done
69. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form, or in any other form of which the Directors shall approve.

LIMITED

I, _____, of _____, in the County of _____, being a member of the above named Company, hereby appoint _____ of _____, or failing him, _____ of _____, as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the Annual (or Extraordinary, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____, 19____, and at any adjournment thereof

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, 19____

- 70 Where it is desired to afford Members an opportunity of voting for or against a resolution the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form, or in any form which the Directors approve:
