1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which are arranged in three columns. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are written in a more formal, printed style. The list appears to be a directory or a roster of some kind.

2. The second part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These are arranged in a single column, and each entry seems to be a brief description or comment related to the names and addresses listed above. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat informal.

3. The third part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second part. These are also arranged in a single column, and each entry seems to be a brief description or comment related to the names and addresses listed above. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat informal.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second and third parts. These are also arranged in a single column, and each entry seems to be a brief description or comment related to the names and addresses listed above. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat informal.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries, similar to the second, third, and fourth parts. These are also arranged in a single column, and each entry seems to be a brief description or comment related to the names and addresses listed above. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat informal.

Part 5

Information about people with significant control (PSC)

✓ This part must be sent at the same time as your confirmation statement

✗ Don't complete this part if you've elected to keep information about people with significant control on the public register instead of in your own register

For further information, please refer to our guidance at www.gov.uk/companieshouse

Only use this Part to tell us about the people with significant control (PSC) of the company. This includes individuals, relevant legal entities (RLE) and other registrable persons (ORP).

Only complete this Part if this is the first time you have given this information or if there has been a change to any of the information since you last gave it.

If you've previously given this information and there has been no change to any of it, you don't need to complete or return this Part.

- Use section E1 to tell us about statements in your PSC register relating to the company
- Use F1-F5 for an individual who is a person with significant control
- Use G1-G4 for a relevant legal entity (RLE)
- Use H1-H4 for an 'other registrable person' (ORP)
- Use I1-I3 for any additional statements relating to a PSC or RLE that are in your PSC register at the confirmation date
- You can find more guidance on how to complete this part on our website www.gov.uk/companieshouse
- If you need to tell us about more PSCs, RLEs or ORPs, use a continuation page
