

RP04

Second filing of a document previously delivered

Companies House

✓ What this form is for

You can only use this form to file a second filing of a document delivered under the Companies Act 2006 on or after 1 October 2009 that held inaccuracies.

A second filing of a document must only be filed where it is providing corrected information that has been properly delivered but inaccuracies still appear on the register.

✗ What this form is NOT for

You cannot use this form to file a second filing of a document under the Companies Act 2006 or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 regardless of whether it was properly delivered.

A second filing of a document cannot be filed where the information that was originally provided was not properly delivered. Form RP01 must be used in these circumstances.

For further information, please refer to our guidance at companieshouse.gov.uk/guidance

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the English language. It is argued that the study of the history of the English language is essential for a full understanding of the language and its development. The paper then discusses the various factors that have influenced the development of the English language, including the influence of other languages, the influence of social and cultural changes, and the influence of technological advances.
