But any act done in good faith by a Governor whose office is vacated as aforesaid shall be valid unless, prior to the doing of such act, written notice has been served upon the Governors or an entry has been made in the Governor's Minute Book stating that such Governor has ceased to be a Governor of the Association.

50. The continuing Governors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but if and so long as the number of Governors is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the regulations of the Association as the necessary quorum of the Governors, the continuing Governors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Governors to that number, or of summoning a General Meeting of the Association, but for no other purpose.

ROTATION OF MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

51. At the Annual General Meeting in every year, one third of the Governors other than the ex-officio Members for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one third, shall retire from office, the Governors to retire in each year being those who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment, but as between persons who became Governors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

52. A retiring Governor shall be eligible for re-election and his name may be submitted to the Meeting and he may be re-elected without any notice having been given of intention to propose him for election.

53. The Association at the Annual General Meeting at which any Governor retires in manner aforesaid shall fill up the vacated office, and may fill up any other offices which may then be vacant, by electing the necessary number of persons unless the Association shall determine to reduce the number of Governors. Any casual vacancy occurring in the Governors may be filled up by the Governors, but any person so chosen shall only retain his office until the next Annual General Meeting of the Association, when he shall retire, but he shall be eligible for re-election.

56. The Association in General Meeting may by an Extraordinary Resolution remove any Governor before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an Ordinary Resolution appoint another person in his stead. 58. Notwithstanding anything in Articles 28, 53, 56, or 57 hereinbefore contained, no person shall be elected by the Association to be a Governor or removed therefrom (subject however to Article 49) unless the Governors shall have by resolution previously signified their assent to such election or removal as the case may be.
