Directors' report

The directors present the annual report and the financial statements of C Life Assurance Company Limited for the year ended 31 December 2010

Business review and principal activities

The company is an indirect subsidiary of Admin Re UK Limited which acts as an intermediate UK holding company for Swiss Re GB Plc, a reinsurance and financial services group

The principal activity of the company was the provision of life assurance, group and individual long-term life and health insurance. The company has not traded during the year and was dormant in 2010 and 2009

Future outlook

It is intended that the company will be dissolved and struck off the company register

The company is an indirect subsidiary of Admin Re UK Limited which is part of the Swiss Re Group, a worldwide reinsurance and financial services group. On 17 February 2011, Swiss Re announced that it planned to establish a new corporate structure under a newly-formed holding company. For that purpose, it was planned that a newly-formed company (Swiss Re Ltd) would launch an exchange offer later in 2011 for all shares in Swiss Reinsurance Company Ltd (the current ultimate parent undertaking)

On 20 May 2011 shares in Swiss Reinsurance Company Ltd were exchanged for newly issued shares in Swiss Re Ltd. The new shares of Swiss Re Ltd were listed on the Swiss Stock Exchange on 23 May 2011

As a result, effective 20 May 2011 Swiss Re Ltd became the holding company of the Swiss Re group of companies. It is expected that the corporate governance arrangements in the new holding company will mirror those previously operated in Swiss Reinsurance Company Ltd

Principal risks and uncertainties

From the perspective of the company, the principal risks and uncertainties are integrated with the principal risks of the group and are not managed separately. Accordingly, the principal risks and uncertainties of the company are discussed in the business review section of Admin Re UK Limited's annual report which does not form part of this report

Key Performance Indicators

Given the straightforward nature of the business, the company's directors are of the opinion that analysis using KPIs is not necessary for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the business

Results

The company has not traded during the year. The directors do not recommend payment of a dividend (2009 £Nil)

Directors and directors' interests

The name of the directors who served during the year up to 31 December 2010 are listed on page 3

The directors did not have a disclosable interest in any of the group companies

Directors' report

Directors' responsibilities statement

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors confirm that the financial statements comply with the above requirements and also confirms that

- so far as the directors are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware, and
- the directors have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as directors in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information

Auditors

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP have expressed their willingness to continue in office and accordingly a resolution to re-appoint PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors to the company will be proposed at the annual general meeting.

Directors' report exemptions

This report has been prepared in accordance with Section 415A(2) of the Companies Act 2006, entitling the Company to the small companies' exemption.

By order of the Board
