ENTERPRISE OIL NOMINEES LIMITED
DIRECTOR'S REPORT

The Director submits the annual report and accounts for the year ended 31 December 2008.

The annual report and accounts of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and those provisions of the Companies Act 1985, which, by virtue of transitional provisions, continue to apply (as amended by the Companies Act 2006) to the Company as the Company's financial year commenced before 6 April 2008.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES AND REVIEW OF THE BUSINESS

The Company's principal purpose was, from time to time, to undertake and perform the office of nominee for companies in the Enterprise Oil group.

The Company has carried on no business activity during the year and accordingly there is no Profit and Loss Account for the year.

During the financial year the Company has not traded and is therefore dormant within the meaning of Section 249AA(4) of the Companies Act 1985.

The Directors recommend that no dividend be paid for the year ended 31 December 2008 (2007: £Nil).

FUTURE OUTLOOK

No significant change in the business of the Company has taken place during the year or is expected in the immediately foreseeable future.

DIRECTORS

The Director of the Company who served throughout the year and to the date of this report was:

Shell Corporate Director Limited

DIRECTOR'S REPORT (Continued)

STATEMENT OF DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The Director is responsible for preparing the Annual report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The Companies Act 1985 provisions which, as mentioned above, continue to apply to the Company's annual report and accounts for this financial year, require the Directors to prepare accounts for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the Director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Director confirms that the above requirements have been complied with in preparing the accounts.

The Director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable him or her to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985 provisions which, as mentioned above, continue to apply to the Company's annual report and accounts for the financial year. He or she is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

ELECTIVE REGIME

The Company has passed an Elective Resolution in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 to dispense with the holding of annual general meetings, and the laying of accounts and reports before general meetings which will continue to apply where there is a requirement in the Articles of Association to hold an annual general meeting.
