The declaration of solvency, sworn by the directors prior to the commencement of the liquidation, showed neither assets nor liabilities

A notice to creditors to prove their claims in the liquidation was advertised in The London Gazette and The Independent newspaper on 6 December 2012. No creditors were forthcoming as a result of this advertisement.

Tax

The Company's director's advised that the Company had dormant corporation tax status. Following his appointment, the liquidator sought and received confirmation from HM Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") that the Company had no outstanding corporation tax returns or liabilities, that it would not raise enquiries into any pre or post liquidation periods and that it had no objection to the liquidator calling a final meeting of members to conclude the liquidation.

A similar assurance was sought and received from HMRC in respect of PAYE and VAT matters.

Distributions

There were no assets available for distribution to shareholders.

Liquidator's remuneration and expenses

A written resolution was passed on 30 November 2012 that the remuneration of the liquidator be fixed at his normal charging rates according to the time properly spent by him and members of this staff in attending to matters arising in the winding up of the Company.

In the event, the liquidator's remuneration will be paid by Thomas & Betts Holdings (UK) Limited and accordingly no detailed analysis is included in this report.
