Directors' report for the year ended 30 April 2006

The directors present their report and financial statements of the company for the year ended 30 April 2006.

Principal activities

The company provides a means of protecting/reserving a company name. All liabilities have been satisfied by third parties. Throughout the year the company has not traded, no income has been realised and no expenditure incurred. Accordingly, no profit and loss account has been presented.

Future prospects

The directors do not expect the company to trade during the next financial year.

Directors

The persons who at any time during the year were directors of the company are set out on page 1 and served throughout the year.

Directors' interests

The directors of the company at the end of the year were, at that time, beneficially interested in shares in the company to the following extent:

	Ordinary shares of £1 each 2006
Roger Lane-Smith	-
Nigel Graham Knowles	-

No director of the company holds any other interest described in paragraph 2A(1) of Schedule 7 to the Companies Act 1985 nor, during the year, has any director of the company (or a member of his immediate family) been granted or exercised any right described in paragraph 2B(1) of Schedule 7 to the Companies Act 1985.

DLA & Partners Limited

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. The directors are required to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that that company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently. They also confirm that reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates have been made in preparing the financial statements for the year ended 30 April 2006 and that applicable accounting standards have been followed.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
