2.12 The Company shall:

- ~~2.12.1 get in and realise all Receivables in the ordinary course of its business and hold the proceeds of the getting in and realisation (until payment into an account in accordance with clause 2.12.2 below) upon trust for Lloyds;~~

- 2.13 If Lloyds releases, waives, or postpones its rights in respect of any Receivables to enable the Company to factor or discount them to any third party (the "factor"), the charges created by this Debenture shall in all other respects remain in full force and effect. All amounts becoming due to the Company from the factor and any Receivables re-assigned, or due to be re-assigned to the Company, shall be subject to the relevant fixed charge created by this Debenture, subject only to any defences or rights of set-off which the factor may have against the Company;

- 6.3 The Company shall not, without the prior written consent of Lloyds, exercise any of the powers of leasing or of accepting surrenders of leases conferred by Sections 99 (Leasing powers of mortgagor and mortgagee in possession) and 100 (Powers of mortgagor and mortgagee in possession to accept surrenders of leases) of the Law of Property Act 1925. The statutory powers of sale, leasing and accepting surrenders exercisable by Lloyds under this Debenture are extended so as to authorise Lloyds whether in its own name or in that of the Company to grant a lease or leases of the whole or any part or parts of the freehold and leasehold property of the Company with whatever rights relating to other parts of it and containing whatever covenants on the part of the Company and generally on such terms and conditions (including the payment of money to a lessee or tenant on a surrender) and whether or not at a premium as Lloyds thinks fit.

JMM

7.2 Where more than one Receiver is appointed they will have power to act separately (unless the appointment of Lloyds specifies to the contrary).

7.3 Any appointment over part only of the Assets charged under this Debenture will not preclude Lloyds from making any subsequent appointment of a Receiver over any part of the Assets over which an appointment has not previously been made by it.

7.4 Lloyds may from time to time determine the remuneration of the Receiver and may (subject to Section 45 of the Insolvency Act 1986) remove the Receiver from all or any part of the Assets of which he is the Receiver and at any time after any Receiver has vacated office or ceased to act, appoint a further Receiver over all or any part of those Assets.

7.5 The Receiver will be the agent of the Company (which will be solely liable for his acts, defaults and remuneration) and will have and be entitled to exercise in relation to the Company all the powers set out in Schedule 1 to the Insolvency Act 1986 and all the powers conferred from time to time on receivers by statute and in particular by way of addition to but without prejudice to those powers (and those of Lloyds) the Receiver will have power:-
