In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

Select suitable accounting policies, and apply these consistently

Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent

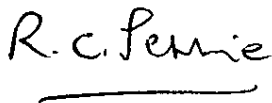

State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed

Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the above report and the accounts, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.
