1. Accounting policies

The significant accounting policies used in the preparation of these abbreviated accounts are:-

a. Basis of accounting

The abbreviated accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention.

b. Turnover

Turnover represents the value of goods and services invoiced to customers, less returns, after deducting trade and other discounts and excluding value added tax.

c. Research and development

It is the company's policy to write off any expenditure on pure and applied research as it is incurred.

Development expenditure relating to specific projects intended for commercial exploitation is carried forward and amortised over the periods from which benefit is expected, commencing with the period in which the related sales are first made.

d. Cash flow statement

A cash flow statement is not included as part of these financial statements in view of the company falling outside the scope of Financial Reporting Standard No 1.
