- (b) Subject to Articles 5(2) and 5(3), a Trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity's expense.
- 12(2) None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity except in so far as the member is a charity with similar purposes to the Objects of the Charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a Trustee receiving:
- (a) a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity;
  - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity.
- 12(3) Except as provided below, no Trustee may be employed by or receive any remuneration from the Charity (as defined in Article 12(7) below) but a connected person as defined under Article 12(6)(b) below may be so employed or remunerated subject to observance of the conditions contained in Article 12(6)(a) below.

(f) A Trustee may receive rent for premises let by the Trustee to the Charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper.

(iv) The other Trustees are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Charity to employ or to contract with that Trustee rather than with someone who is not a Trustee. In reaching that decision the Trustees must balance the advantage of employing a Trustee against that disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the Trustee's services as a result of dealing with the Trustee's conflict of interest).

(v) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Trustees in the minute book.

(vi) A majority of the Trustees then in office have received no such payments.

12(6)(b) The employment or remuneration of a Trustee includes the engagement or remuneration of any firm or company in which the Trustee is:

- 18 All members who are entitled to receive notice of a general meeting must be given not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days' notice of any resolution to be put to the meeting to appoint a Trustee other than a Trustee who is to retire by rotation.
- 19(1) The Trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Trustee.

- 20 The appointment of a Trustee, whether by the Charity in general meeting or by the other Trustees, must not cause the number of Trustees to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of Trustees.

Disqualification and removal of Trustees

- 21 A Trustee shall cease to hold office if he or she:
- (1) ceases to be a Trustee by virtue of any provision in the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from being a director;

- 23(4) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 24(1) No decision may be made by a meeting of the Trustees unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made.
- 24(2) The quorum shall be three or the number nearest to one-third of the total number of Trustees, whichever is the greater, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the Trustees.

24(3) A Trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Trustee is not entitled to vote.

25 If the number of Trustees is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Trustees or Trustee may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

26 (1) The Trustees shall appoint a Trustee to chair their meetings.

(2) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chair.

(3) If the chair is not participating in a trustees' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating trustees must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

27(1) A resolution in writing signed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Trustees or of a committee of Trustees and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Trustees or (as the case may be) a committee of Trustees duly convened and held.

27(2) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form each signed by one or more Trustees.

Delegation

- 29(3) Where a Trustee has or may have an actual or potential conflict of interest under Article 29(2) above, the remaining Trustees may, by a simple majority vote at a quorate Trustees' meeting, and under the provisions of sections 175(4) and 175(5) of the 2006 Act, authorise that Trustee to continue to act despite the conflict or potential conflict (other than a direct or indirect personal financial interest).

Validity of Trustees' decisions

30(1) Subject to Article 30(2), all acts done by a meeting of Trustees, or of a committee of Trustees, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Trustee:

the decision has been made by a majority of the Trustees at a quorate meeting.

30(2) Article 30(1) does not permit a Trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Trustees or of a committee of Trustees if, but for Article 30(1), the resolution would have been void, or if the Trustee has not complied with Article 29.

General meetings

31. An annual general meeting must be held in each calendar year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

32 The Trustees may call a general meeting at any time. At least 10% of the members entitled to attend and vote may, by a written request stating the business to be done or resolution(s) to be proposed, require the Trustees to call a general meeting, but if more than 12 months has elapsed since the last general meeting, then 5% of such members can make the request.

Notice of general meetings

33(1) The minimum period of notice required to hold a general meeting of the Charity is fourteen days unless a special resolution is to be considered, in which case the notice period is 21 days.

33(2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by not less than 90% of the members entitled to attend and vote.

34(1) The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so.
