Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the company's state of affairs and of the profit or loss for that year. In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to;

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- · make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985, as amended. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors Report to the Shareholders of Automotive Customer Service (UK) Limited for the year ended 30th June 1999

We have audited the financial statements on pages 3 to 5 which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 5.

Respective Responsibilities of the directors and auditors

As described on the directors' report the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion based upon our audit on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of our opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination on a test basis of evidence relevant to the accounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we consider necessary to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30th June 1998 and of its profit or loss for the year ended on that date and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.

A G Betts & Co., Chartered Accountants Registered Auditor.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 30th June 1999

Accounting Policies

The company has taken advantage of the exemption under FRS 1 not to prepare a cashflow statement on the grounds that it is a small company.

Turnover represents the net amount of invoices to customers less credit notes for goods returned, excluding value added tax.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985, as amended, and with applicable accounting standards.

Depreciation is provided on fixed assets so as to write off their cost less estimated residual value over their useful lives. The following rates have been applied

- Vehicles 25% on a reducing balance basis
- Furniture and Equipment 25% on a reducing balance basis

No provision is made for deferred taxation since in the opinion of the directors there is no reasonable probability that a liability will arise in the foreseeable future.

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account when arriving at the operating profit.

Turnover

The turnover and profit before taxation is attributable to the company's principal activity namely acting as Automotive Design Engineers.
