Amphenol Holding UK, Limited

Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and the unaudited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2017.

Principal activity

Amphenol Holding UK, Limited is the UK holding company of Amphenol Limited.

Business review

The company has been dormant as defined in section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the current and preceding financial period. It is anticipated that the company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future. There are no risks or uncertainties facing the company including those within the context of the use of financial instruments.

The company made a profit for the financial year of £nil and had shareholders' funds of £36,549,000. The company had net current liabilities of £18,305,000 including inter-company borrowings of £19,505,000. There are no formal repayment terms of the inter-company balances other than they are not repayable within 12 months.

The directors have obtained confirmation from the parent company that it is their intention to continue to provide financial support to the company for a period of 12 months from the date of signing of the financial statements.

The directors consider that the group structure and strategy together with UK economic conditions are commensurate with reasonable prospects for the existing profitability of the UK operations to continue in the medium term.

Going concern

The company has no loans from external sources and does not foresee any change to this external borrowing profile. The company also has loans from its subsidiaries and has confirmed that no repayment of these loans is required by the parent company during the next twelve months. The Directors have obtained confirmation from the parent company that it is their intention to continue to provide financial support to the company for a period of 12 months from the date of signing of the financial statements. For these reasons the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing these accounts.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The main risks and uncertainties affecting the company are consistent with those affecting its investments and hence the value of those investments. Further information in respect of principal risks and uncertainties are held in those investments' relevant financial statements.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The company's activities expose it to a number of financial risks including cash flow risk and credit risk.

As part of the Amphenol Corporation, Amphenol Holding UK, Limited is subject to corporate guidance and controls in the areas of treasury and risk management. The company does not use financial derivatives to manage any of these risks nor for speculative purposes.

Cash flow risk

The company is not exposed to financial risks of foreign currency exchange rates.

Credit risk

The company's principal financial assets are bank intra group receivables and investments. No significant credit risk exists on these items.

The company makes use of its parent company treasury department in respect of interest rate risk and exchange rate risk. None of this risk is passed down to the company. Credit risk is managed through the use of external credit reference agencies. The company does not enter into speculative derivative transactions.

Future prospects

The directors of Amphenol Holding UK Limited recognise the volatility and challenges that will exist in the markets in the future. Further information in respect of risk affecting the company's investments is held in those investments' relevant financial statements.

Directors

The directors who served throughout the year, were as follows:

Notes to the accounts

1. Accounting policies

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with applicable United Kingdom accounting standards. The particular accounting policies adopted are described below and have been applied consistently throughout the current and preceding financial year.

Consolidated financial statements

The financial statements contain information about Amphenol Holding UK, Limited as an individual company, and do not contain consolidated financial information as the parent of a group. The company is exempt under 401 of the Companies Act 2006 from the requirement to prepare consolidated financial statements, as it and its subsidiary undertakings are included in the consolidated financial statements of Amphenol Corporation, an ultimate parent incorporated in the United States of America. Its accounts are drawn up in a manner considered to be equivalent to UK GAAP consolidated accounts, as required by the EU Seventh Directive.

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No.1 (Revised 1996) from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is a subsidiary undertaking where 90 per cent or more of the voting rights are controlled within the group.

Basis of preparation – Going concern

The company has no loans from external sources and does not foresee any change to this external borrowing profile. The company also has loans from its subsidiaries and has confirmed that no repayment of these loans is required by the parent company during the next twelve months. The Directors had obtained confirmation from the parent company that it is their intention to continue to provide financial support to the company for a period of 12 months from the date of the financial statements. For this reason the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the accounts.

Investments

Investments held as fixed assets are stated at cost less provision for any impairment in value.

Taxation

Current tax, including UK corporation tax, is provided at amounts expected to be paid (or recovered) using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred taxation is provided in full on timing differences which result in an obligation at the balance sheet date to pay more tax, or a right to pay less tax, at a future date, at rates expected to apply when they crystallise based on current tax rates and law. Timing differences arise from the inclusion of items of income and expenditure in taxation computations in periods different from those in which they are included in financial statements. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is regarded as more likely than not that they will be recovered. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. These translation differences are dealt with in the profit and loss account.

Amphenol Holding UK, Limited

1. Accounting policies (continued)

Profit and loss account

No profit and loss account is presented as the company did not trade and made neither a profit nor a loss in this or the preceding year.

There are no recognised gains or losses for the current and preceding year. Accordingly, no statement of total recognised gains and losses or movement in shareholders' funds is given.

The company has no employees, paid no emoluments to directors and audit fees of £1,000 were borne by other group companies in both this and the preceding year and not recharged.
