SHARES

10. Subject to the provisions of these Articles the unissued shares for the time being of the Company shall be at the disposal of the Board, which may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons (including Directors) at such times, and (subject to the provisions of the Act) for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions and in the case of unclassified shares with such rights and privileges or restrictions annexed thereto as the Board may determine.
11. In the exercise of the powers conferred upon them by article 15 above the Directors are hereby generally authorised for the purpose of section 80 and empowered pursuant to section 95 of the Act (in each case unconditionally) to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities (as defined in section 80 of the Act) and to allot any of such securities as are Equity Securities (as defined in section 94 of the Act) as if section 89 of the Act did not apply to any allotment. Provided that:
 - (a) the maximum total amount of relevant securities which may be allotted pursuant to the authority shall not exceed the nominal value for the time being of the un-issued share capital of the Company;
 - (b) the authority and power conferred by the article shall remain in operation for a period of 5 years from the date of the adoption of these Articles and thereafter for such extension of that period as the Company may resolve.
 - (c) All Shares which are not comprised in the authorised share capital with which the Company is incorporated and which the Board propose to issue shall first be offered to the Holders in proportion as nearly as may be to the number of the existing shares held by them respectively unless the Company in general meeting shall by Special Resolution otherwise direct. After the expiration of that period, those shares so deemed to be declined shall be offered the proportion aforesaid to the holders who have, within the said period, accepted all the shares offered to them; such further offer shall be made in like terms in the same manner and limited by a like period as the original offer. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by the Act provided that the rate or amount of the commissions paid or agreed to be paid and the number of shares which persons have agreed for a commission to subscribe absolutely shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and that such commission shall not exceed 10 per cent of the price at which the shares in respect of which the commission is paid are issued. Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in another.
13. The Company may, on any issue of shares, pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

14. Unless the conditions of issue otherwise provide any person who becomes the Holder of any shares shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer one certificate for all his shares of any one class or several certificates each or one or more of his shares upon payment of such reasonable sum as the Board may require for every certificate after the first as the Board shall from time to time determine.
15. Every certificate shall be issued in accordance with these Articles and shall specify the number class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up thereon.
16. The Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for shares jointly held by several persons and delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them.
17. Where the holder of any shares has transferred part of the shares comprised in his holding he shall be entitled without payment to a certificate for that part of his shareholding which is retained by him.
18. If a share certificate be defaced lost or destroyed it may be replaced upon such terms (if any) as the Board may from time to time determine as to evidence of loss or destruction and as to indemnity and payment of out of pocket expenses of the Company of investigating such evidence but otherwise without charge and in case of defacement upon delivery of the old certificate to the Company.
19. Except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by law required, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any shares or any interest to any fractional part of a share or (except as required by law or these Articles) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the Holder.

LIEN

20. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon. The Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article.
21. The Company may sell in such manner as the Board may think fit any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding the sum presently payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default of such payment has been given to the Holder for the time being in respect of the share that is the subject of the lien or to the person entitled by reason of the Holder's death or bankruptcy to the share.
22. The net proceeds of sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable, and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for any debt or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the share prior to sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the time of sale.
23. To give effect to any sale under Article 26 above, the Board may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser and the purchaser shall be entitled to be registered as the Holder of the shares and shall not be concerned with the application of the proceeds of sale and his title to the shares shall not be affected by any misapplication thereof or by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

24. The Board may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal amount of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times and each Member shall (subject to the Company giving to him at least fourteen days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.
25. A call may be made payable by instalments and shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.
26. Where any shares are held jointly the joint holders thereof shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
27. If a call is not paid on or before the date when payment in respect thereof becomes due the person liable to pay the sum due shall pay interest thereon from the date when payment became due until actual payment at the appropriate rate (as defined by the Act), but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

28. Any sum which according to the terms of issue of a share comes payable either on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which the same becomes payable under the terms of issue and in the case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
29. The Board may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference to be made between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment.
30. The Board may if it thinks fit receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and pay upon all or any of the money so advanced until the date when such payment would otherwise become due interest at such rate not exceeding the appropriate rate (as defined by the Act) as may be agreed between the Board and the member (subject to any direction to the contrary by the Company in General Meeting). Payment in advance of any call on any share shall not entitle the member making such payment to participate in any dividend in respect of any share in respect of which such payment is made and declared before the payment would otherwise have become due.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

31. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Board at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest and expenses which may have accrued.
32. A notice given under Article 36 above shall name a day (the payment date) not less than fourteen days after the date when the notice was served on or before which the payment which is required to be paid and shall state that in the event of non-payment on or before the payment date (or otherwise in accordance with the notice) of the sum in respect of which the notice was issued the share in respect of which the call was made or the instalment is payable shall be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder and, in such case, references herein to forfeiture shall include surrender.
33. If the requirements of any notice served under Article 36 are not complied with any share in respect of which the notice was given may before payment of the sums required to be paid by the terms of the notice, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
34. When any share has been forfeited under Article 38 above, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the Holder of the share forfeited or the person entitled to the share by virtue of the death or bankruptcy of the holder (or as the case may be) but no neglect or omission to give such notice shall invalidate the forfeiture.

35. A forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and (subject to the provisions of the Act) may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of to such person (including the person who was the Holder of the share immediately prior to the forfeiture, or the person who was entitled thereto by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the Holder or as the case may be) as the Board may think fit and the Board may, at any time before any sale re-allotment or disposal as aforesaid cancel the forfeiture upon such terms as it may think fit.
36. Any person whose share or shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member of the Company in respect of the forfeited shares but shall remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of the forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at the rate at which interest was payable on those moneys before forfeiture or, if no interest was so payable then at the appropriate rate as defined in the Act.
37. A statutory declaration that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company and that a share has been duly forfeited in accordance with these Articles and stating the date of such forfeiture shall be evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
38. Upon the sale, re-allotment or other disposal of the Company of a forfeited share in accordance with Article 40 the Company may receive the consideration (if any) given by the person in whose favour such share is sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of and that person shall thereupon be registered as the Holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity or other neglect or omission in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

39. Subject to such of the restrictions of these Articles as may be applicable any Member may transfer all or any of his shares by transfer in writing in the usual common form or in any other form which the Board may approve. Transfers and other documents will be registered without the payment of any fee.
40. The instrument of Transfer of a share shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and unless the share is fully paid by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. All instruments of Transfer when registered may be retained by the Company.
41. Nothing in these Articles shall preclude the Board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

42. The Board may in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason therefore decline to register any transfer of any shares not being fully paid shares or being shares upon which the Company has a lien to any person of whom it shall not approve. The Board shall notify the transferee of any refusal under this Article or under Article 48 below within the two months of the date when the transfer was lodged with the Company.
43. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless
- (a) the instrument of transfer duly stamped is lodged with the Company together with the certificate of the share to which it relates and such other evidence of the transferor's right to make the transfer as the Board may reasonably require; and
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is in respect of any one class of share.
44. The Register may be closed at such times and/or such periods not exceeding in total thirty days in any calendar year provided that the Board shall give the notice required by section 358 of the Act.

45. In case of the death of a Member the survivor or survivors (where the deceased was a joint Holder) or (if he was a sole Holder) the personal representatives of the deceased shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint member from any liability in respect of any share held by him jointly with other persons.

47. If a person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself he shall deliver or send to the Company written notice signed by him of such election. If he elects that another person shall be registered he shall testify such election by executing a transfer of the share in favour of that other person. All the provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall apply as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred or as if the Mental Health Act 1983 did not apply and the notice or transfer were a transfer executed by the Member.
48. A person entitled to a share by reason of the circumstances mentioned in Article 51 above shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the Holder of the share except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company provided always that the Board may at any time give notice requiring such election or transfer as is described in Article 52 above. If such notice is not complied with within ninety days from the date thereof the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends in other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice are complied with.

STOCK

49. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution convert any paid up shares into stock and may reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination.
50. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as the subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit. The Board may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of the fractions of such minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the share from which the stock arose.
51. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose but no such right privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and in assets on a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not have been conferred by the shares from which the stock arose.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

52. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into such amounts as the resolution shall prescribe.
53. The issue of any shares created by the Company in the exercise of the power contained in Article 57 above shall be governed by the provisions of Articles 15 and 16 above which shall apply in reference to allotment or issue of such shares by the Company in general meeting as they apply to the allotment or issue of shares by the Directors.
54. The new shares shall be subject to all the provisions of these Articles with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission and forfeiture or otherwise.
55. The Company may by ordinary resolution:
 - (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (b) subject to the provisions of the Act, sub-divide its shares or any of them, into shares of smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the shares resulting from the subdivision, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others or any other rights the Company has power to attach to any un-issued share;
 - (c) subject to the provisions of the Act and to the terms of issue of any shares, divide the shares (whether part of the original or increased capital of the Company) into several classes and attach thereto any preferred, deferred or other special rights, privileges or conditions as regards dividends, repayment capital, voting or otherwise;
 - (d) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

56. Whenever as a result of a consolidation of shares any members would become entitled to fractions of a share, the directors may on behalf of those members sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person (including, subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among these members, and the directors may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with, the discretion of the purchaser. The transferee shall not be concerned to see the application of the purchase money and neither shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceeding in reference to the sale.
57. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account in any way.

Notice of every general meeting shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are, in accordance with the provisions of these Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Company, to the Directors and to the Auditors for the time being of the Company.

63. A meeting shall be deemed to have been duly called notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than is specified in Article 67 above if it is so agreed:

68. If within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of or by Members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time or place as the Board may determine and the provisions of Article 76 shall apply. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined be not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.
69. A Director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

73. If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless it be pointed out at the same meeting and not, in that case, unless in the opinion of the Chairman the error is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.
74. If a poll be duly demanded the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Subject to these Articles, a poll shall be taken as the Chairman directs.

77. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the Chairman and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

80. A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of each member who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which he was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more members.
