7. In regulation 41 the words "and if at any adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during an adjourned meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand dissolved" shall be added after the words "directors may determine".

11. Any director (or his alternate) may validly participate in a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors through the medium of a conference telephone or similar form of communication equipment provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting. A person so participating shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall, accordingly, be counted in a quorum and be entitled to vote. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.
12. A director (including an alternate director) who has disclosed his interest may vote as a director in regard to any contract or arrangement in which he has, directly or indirectly, an interest or on any matter arising out of any such contract or arrangement, and if he does so vote, his vote shall be counted, and he shall be counted in the quorum when any such contract or arrangement is under consideration.

18. No director shall be required to vacate his office as a director and no person shall be disqualified from being appointed as a director by reason of his attaining or having attained the age of seventy.
19. The last sentence of regulation 84 shall not apply.

If a member fails to comply with any such request by the directors to the satisfaction of the directors within a period of three months from the date of any such request, no dividends declared on any shares in the Company held by him shall be paid to such member until he has complied, but all such dividends shall, in the meantime, be retained by the Company without any liability to pay interest in respect of them.
