Review of business and future developments

Yell SIP Trustee Limited was owned by its directors until 31 March 2006, when a stock transfer form was signed to transfer ownership to Yell Holdings 2 Limited. It has been dormant since its incorporation on 21 June 2002.

The Company is an integral part of the Yell Group established for Group financing purposes and does not

- have multiple shareholders
- compete for business
- separately employ individuals
- have suppliers and customers outside the Yell Group
- have a strategy other than to meet its purpose

The Company is not faced with substantial risks

Directors and their interests

J. Condon and J. Davis were the sole owners of the company until 31 March 2006

None of the directors were remunerated for their services as directors of the Company

The interests of John Condon and John Davis, who are also directors of the ultimate holding company, Yell Group plc, are shown in the annual report of that company

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the Annual Report and the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Yell SIP Trustee Limited

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union. The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently, make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent, state that the financial statements comply with IFRSs as adopted by the European Union, prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business, in which case there should be supporting assumptions or qualifications as necessary.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The directors have relied upon the provisions of sections 249AA and 388A of the Companies Act 1985 and have resolved not to appoint auditors.

Elective resolutions

Elective resolutions have been approved, in accordance with Sections 252 and 366A of the Companies Act 1985, by the members authorising the Company to dispense with the need to lay future Reports and Accounts before members in general meetings and the holding of Annual General Meetings as otherwise required by Sections 241(1) and 366 of that Act.
