Short particulars

In accordance with clause 2.1 of the Assignment, the Company has covenanted with the Security Trustee to pay, perform and discharge in full all of the Secured Obligations strictly in accordance with the terms applicable to the payment and discharge thereof. Any Assigned Property relating to the Aircraft which is or becomes the property of the Company, without the need for further act, shall become subject to the Assignment.

In accordance with clause 2.2 of the Assignment, the Company has charged the Assigned Property with full title guarantee and by way of first fixed charge, in favour of the Security Trustee, as continuing security for the payment and discharge of the Secured Obligations.

In accordance with clause 3.1 of the Assignment, the Company has assigned and has agreed to assign absolutely by way of security with full title guarantee to the Security Trustee, as security for the payment and discharge of the Secured Obligations, all of its right, title and interest, present and future, in and to the Assigned Property.

In accordance with clause 3.2 of the Assignment, the Company has charged with full title guarantee in favour of the Security Trustee (to the extent not validly assigned) as continuing security for the payment and discharge of the Secured Obligations, by way of first fixed charge, all of its right, title and interest, present and future, in and to the Assigned Property.

The Assignment contains covenants for further assurance.

Unless defined elsewhere on this form MG01, defined terms have the meaning given to them in the attached continuation pages (in Section 6 (Short Particulars)).

Delivery of instrument

You must deliver the original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge and these prescribed particulars to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 860). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (UK), you must deliver the information to the Registrar within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could have been received in the UK in the normal course of post and assuming you had posted it promptly (section 870).

We will accept a verified copy of the instrument creating the charge where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the UK (section 866). The company or the person who has delivered the copy to the Registrar must verify it to be a correct copy and sign it. Where a body corporate gives the verification, an officer of that body must sign it. We will also accept a verified copy where section 867(2) applies (property situated in another part of UK).
