PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES AND BUSINESS REVIEW

The principal activity of the Company is that of the supply of foreign exchange services

The company did not trade during the period of these accounts

DIRECTOR

The director who served during the year was as follows

M Konnarıs

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the Profit or Loss of the Company for that year Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law)

In preparing these financial statements, the Directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the Company will continue in business

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In the case of each of the persons who are directors at the time when the directors' report is approved

- so far as the director is aware, there is no relevant audit information (information needed by the company's auditors in connection with preparing their report) of which the company's auditors are unaware, and
- each director has taken all the steps that he ought to have taken as a director in order to make himself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information

AUDITOR

P R Hartley is willing to be reappointed in accordance with section 485 of the Companies Act 2006

BASIS OF PREPARATION AND APPROVAL OF REPORT

The director's report has been prepared having taken advantage of the small companies exemption in the Companies Act 2006

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF EASY FOREX UK LIMITED

I have audited the financial statements of Easy Forex UK Limited which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, Balance Sheet and related notes The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 495 and 496 of the Companies Act 2006. My audit work has been undertaken so that I might state to the company's members those matters I am required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to any one other than the company and the company's members as a body, for my audit work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed

Respective responsibilities of Directors and Auditor

As explained more fully in the Statement of Director's Responsibilities, the Company's Director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

My responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) Those standards require me to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the director, and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Opinion on the financial statements

In my opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 30 April 2010 and of its loss for the year then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006

I have undertaken the audit in accordance with the requirements of APB Ethical Standards including APB Ethical Standard - Provisions Available for Small Entities, in the circumstances set out in note 2 to the financial statements

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In my opinion the information given in the Director's Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements

Matters on which I am required to report by exception

I have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires me to report to you if, in my opinion.

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for my audit have not been received from branches not visited by me, or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- · certain disclosures of director's remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- I have not received all the information and explanations I require for my audit
