REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2022

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Purposes and aims

The Birmingham Civic Society is established to promote the City of Birmingham as an attractive city by stimulating interest and pride in its history and well-being.

The charity aims to achieve this purpose through the following objectives:

1. Promote high standards of planning and architecture.
2. Educate the public in the geography, history, natural history, culture and architecture of the city.
3. Secure the preservation, protection, development and improvement of public amenities and features or areas of historic or public interest in the city.
4. Promote the concept of active citizenship among the people of the city.

Ensuring our work delivers our aims

We review our aims, objectives and activities each year. This review looks at what we achieved and the outcomes of our work in the previous 12 months. The review looks at the success of each key activity and the benefits they have brought to those groups of people we are set up to help. The review also helps us to ensure that our aim, objectives and activities remain focused on our stated purposes.

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives they have set.

The focus of our work

The focus of the Birmingham Civic Society continues to be the promotion of the City of Birmingham as an attractive city by stimulating interest and pride in its history and well-being.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

How our activities deliver public benefit

In setting our objectives and planning our activities the trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Our main activities and who we try to help are described below.

All of our charitable activities continue to focus on our ability to promote the City of Birmingham as an attractive city by stimulating interest and pride in its history and well-being.

Examples of the Birmingham Civic Society's ability during the year ended 30 June 2022 to promote the City of Birmingham as an attractive city by stimulating interest and pride in its history and well-being include the following:

1. Promoting citizenship amongst young people is at the heart of the Society's work and it runs a major programme, the Next Generation Awards, aimed at 11 - 14 year olds, which is free for all schools across Birmingham to enter.
2. The 'Birmingham Trees for Life' project is involved in the improvement of the City's park and open spaces. It is a partnership between Birmingham City Council and the Birmingham Civic Society and its aims are to plant more trees in Birmingham and to raise awareness of the importance of trees, involving local communities, school children and the city's business community.
3. The Society celebrates both those who have made Birmingham what it is today and the city's modern diversity. Since 1953 it has been responsible for the erection of Blue Plaques in the city, each recognising an individual connected with Birmingham who has achieved greatness. On average two - three plaques are erected each year, stimulating interest in a building or place and reminding passers-by of the city's past. Schemes to erect History Plates commemorating places of historical interest and Music Plates commemorating places of Birmingham's musical heritage are also in place.
4. The Civic Society considers all aspects of the built environment relating to planning, architecture, conservation and art in the public realm. Its role is three-fold; providing expert input into the evolution of the city's built environment, celebrating renovation through its annual Renaissance Award and keeping a watchful eye and investigating changes to make sure that the city's public art remains on view.
5. Good quality events and debates are at the heart of the Society, including our Annual Leader's Breakfast and Chairmans Debate.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Birmingham Civic Society ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30 June 2022 which are set out on pages 6 to 15.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)]

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
